Under the words "years" find the year, above which is the Dominical Letter; then against the month in the other Table find the same Letter, over which are placed the days of the month for every Sunday in that month. Each blank space shews the year following to be "Leap year."

N. B. every Leap year for January and February, use the letter above the blank space before that year, and for the other months, use the Letter Belonging to the respective year.

A POPULAR CALENDAR.

CALENDAR AND ALMANACK.

The word CALENDAR (which is sometimes spelt Kalendar.) is properly a register of time or dates; in which acceptation it was used by the Romans, as the word ALMANACK was by the Germans, and our Saxon forefathers.

Calendar, as some state, is derived from the Latin Calendarium, which was the account-book kept by the Roman usurers, of the money which they lent out upon interest, and which they were in the habit of calling in, or claiming, on the Calends, or first day of each month. But it is more probable that the words Calendar and Calendarium are both to be traced to the ancient Roman Custom of publicly proclaiming or calling the Calends and other periods of each month, on the appearance of every new moon. This practice continued until the year 450, after the building of Rome, when Calus Flavius, the Ædile, or chief magistrate, ordered the Fasti, or Calends, to be affixed upon all the places of public resort, in order that the dates of the approaching festivals might be more generally and exactly known. In fact, these public notices or registers of coming events, were called Fasti Calendares.

The etymology, or derivation, of ALMANAC has been much disputed; many writers derive it from the Arabic article Al (the) and the Greek word manakos (a lunar circle); others, from the Hebrew manach (to count), whilst Dr. Johnson says that the Greek word men pronounced maen (a month), enters into its composition. The explanation given by the celebrated antiquarian Verstegan, of the origin and use of this word, seems worthy of notice. He says, 'Our Saxon ancestors used to engrave on certain squared sticks, about a foot in length, the courses of the moons of the whole year; whereby they could certainly tell when the new moons, full moons, and changes should happen; as also their festival-days: and such a carved stick they called an AL-MON-AGHT; that is to say, Al-mon-heed; to wit, the regard or observation of all the moons: and hence is derived the name of Almanack.'—An instrument of this kind, of a very ancient date, is to be seen in St. John's College, Cambridge; and there are still, in the midland counties, several remains of them.

YEARS.

The word YEAR is purely Saxon, and is supposed by some to be derived from æra; whilst others deduce both words from the Greek ear, or Latin ver (Spring); because many of the Ancients were in the habit of dating the commencement of the year from Spring. In the Hebrew, Greek, and Latin languages, the word year is expressive of a ring or circle; the Egyptians, also, represented it by a snake placed in a circular position, with its tail in its mouth; whence, perhaps, the name of the Zodiac, or that imaginary circle which is made by the sun in the heavens, during the twelve months.

The time in which the sun performs its journey through the twelve signs of the Zodiac, comprehends 365 days, 5 hours, 48 minutes, and 48 seconds; and is therefore styled the NATURAL, SOLAR, or TROPICAL Year.

The SIDEREAL, or ASTRAL Year is the time which elapses from the sun's passage from any particular fixed star until its return to it again; and is just twenty minutes and twenty-nine seconds longer than the natural or Solar Year.

The LUNAR YEAR, consists of Twelve Lunar Months, or that period during which the moon passes twelve times through its various phases, or changes.

The COMMON, or CIVIL Year, in use with us, and established by law, contains 365 days, during three successive years; but in each fourth year, an intercalary or additional day is inserted, in order to make up the number 366; such additional day being considered equivalent to the time lost by not counting the five hours and forty-nine minutes at the end of each of the four years from one BISSEXTILE, or LEAP Year, to another. The word Leap, sufficiently explains the act of passing over the hours in question. This plan was invented by Jullius Cæsar or by Sosigenes, the Egyptian mathematician, who assisted him in rectifying the Calendar. The additional or intercalary day, is with us, always placed in the month of February, which, consequently, in Leap year, consists of 29 days; the usual number being 28. Cæsar placed it in the month of March, by reckoning the 6th day of the Calends of that month twice over! hence the term Bissextile, from the words bis (twice) and sex (six,) or sextilis (sixth day.) But, by the Gregorian alteration, the fourth year coming at the close of a century, is not a leap year, unless the number of hundreds be a multiple of four. Thus 1600 was a leap year, 1700 and 1800 were not, 2000 will be.

The reckoning of time by the course of the sun or moon, was attempted in various ways by different ancient nations; but they finding that their minor divisions of time did not correspond with the courses in question, endeavoured to prevent confusion by ordaining a certain number of days to be intercalated or inserted, out of the common order; so as to preserve the equation of time. The Egyptian Year (as used by Ptolemy) consisted of 365 days, which were divided into twelve months of thirty days each; besides five intercalary days at the end. The Egyptian Canicular, or Natural Year, was computed from one heliacal rising of the star Sirius, or Canicula, same to the next.

By the regulation of Solen, the ancient Greek year was lunar, and consisted of twelve months; each containing thirty and twenty-nine days, alternately: and in every revolution of nineteen years, the third, fifth, eighth, eleventh, sixteenth, and nineteenth, it had an intercalary month; in order to keep the New and Full Moons to the seasons of the year.

The ancient Jewish year was the same as the Greek one, only that it was made to agree with the Solar year by adding eleven, and sometimes twelve days, at the end; or an intercalary month, when necessary. The modern Jewish year consists of twelve lunar months generally; but sometimes of thirteen; that is when an intercalary month is inserted.

The Turkish year consists of twelve lunar months of thirty and twenty-nine days, alternately; sometimes of thirteen.

The ancient Roman year, as settled by Romulus, was lunar, but contained only ten months, which were irregular, and comprehended 304 days in all; being a number fifty days short of the true lunar year, and sixty-one days of the solar. Romulus added the requisite number of days at the end of the year. Numa Pompilius added two months; making the year consist of 355 days; thereby exceeding the lunar year by one day, but being short of the solar one by ten days. Julius Cæsar, during his third consulship, and whilst he was Pontifex Maximus, or high priest of Rome, reformed the calendar by regulating the months according to their present measure, and adding an intercalary day every fourth year to the month of February: but he being assassinated before his plan could be fully brought into operation, the emperor Augustus perfected and established what his kinsman had begun. The Julian year, which consisted of 365 days and 6 hours, was however, still incorrect; for it was found to be too long by about eleven minutes which in 131 years would be equal to one day—consequently there was a further reformation of the calendar by Pope Gregory, in the year 1582. He cut off eleven days, by calling the fourth of October the fifteenth. This alteration of the style was gradually adopted in the several countries of the European continent; but in Russia, in some of the Swiss cantons, and in the countries of the East, the old style is still preserved.

The Parliament of England adopted the Gregorian plan, in 1752, by enacting that eleven days should be omitted that year: all dates, therefore, previous to 1752, are said to be according to the OLD STYLE; whilst those since that period, are deemed to be according to the NEW STYLE. In 1800, which was properly a bissextile, or leap year, the intercalary day was omitted: hence, the difference between the Old and New Style is now twelve days. The Gregorian regulation does not absolutely preclude all error in future; but that is likely to be so trifling, as not to require particular attention.

The beginning of the year has by no means been the same in different ages and countries. The Chaldeans, the Egyptians, and the Jews, in all civil affairs, began it at the autumnal equinox. The ecclesiastical year among the Jews, the common year of the Persians, and of the Romans under Romulus, commenced in the spring; a mode still followed in many of the Italian States. Both the equinoxes, as well as the summer solstice, were each the commencing date in some of the states of Greece. The Roman year, from the time of Numa, began on the Calends of January; the Arabs and Turks compute from the 10th of July, the Christian clergy formerly commenced the year on the 25th of March; * a method observed in Great Britain, generally, in civil affairs, until 1752; from which period our civil year has begun on the 1st of January, except in some few cases, in which it still commences on the 'Day of Annunciation,' or the 25th of March. In Scotland, the year was, by a proclamation, bearing date so early as the 27th of November, 1599, ordered thenceforth to commence, in that kingdom, on the 1st of January; instead of the 25th of March.

* The Church of Rome dated from the Sunday succeeding the full moon which occurred next after the vernal equinox; or, if the full moon happened on a Sunday, the new year commenced on that day.

The English Church, still, in her solemn service, renews the year on the first Sunday in Advent, which is always that next to, or on, St. Andrew's Day.

Our Ancestors, after the establishment of Christianity, usually began their year at Christmas, and reckoned the commencement of their sera from the incarnation, or birth of Christ. William the Conqueror, however, introduced the method of substituting the first year of his own reign for the Christian sera. At subsequent periods, the English reverted to the ancient custom: but all State proclamations, patents, charters and Acts of Parliament, have continued to be dated from the commencement of the reigns of the respective sovereigns, with the addition of the words, 'and in the year of our Lord,' &c.

The Russian government did not adopt the Christian sera until the time of Peter, in 1725; their previous practice had been to reckon from the world's age or the year of the creation.

MONTHS.

THIS division of the year appears to have been used before the flood; * and as it was naturally framed by the revolutions of the Moon, the MONTHS of all nations were originally lunar; that is, from one New Moon to another. In a more enlightened period, the revolutions of the Moon were compared with those of the Sun; and the limits of the Months, as the component parts of a Year, were fixed with greater precision. The Romans divided each month into Calends, Nones, and Ides: the Calends were the first day of the month, the Nones were the 7th and the Ides the 15th of March, May, July, and October; in the other months, the Nones fell on the 5th, and the Ides on the 13th. The days of each month, according to this form, were counted backwards; thus, the 18th of October was called the 15th day before the Calends of November, &c.—which method of counting we shall further explain on a future occasion.

In the year 1793, the French Government had a new Calendar constructed, in which they adopted the following fanciful designations for each month:—

	French Months.	Signification.	Eng. Months.
AUTUMN.	1. Vindemaire, . . .	Vintage Month, from . . .	Sept. 22.
	2. Brumaire	Foggy Month	Oct. 22.
	3. Frimaire	Frosty, or Sleety Month	Nov. 21.
WINTER.	4. Nivose	Snowy Month	Dec. 21.
	5. Pluiose	Rainy Month	Jan. 21.
	6. Ventose	Windy Month	Feb. 19.
SPRING.	7. Germinal	Springing or Budding Month	Mar. 21.
	8. Floreal	Flowering Month	April 20.
	9. Prairial	Hay Harvest Month	May 20.
SUMMER.	10. Messidor	Corn Harvest Month	June 19.
	11. Thermidor	Heat Month	July 19.
	12. Fructidor	Fruit Month	Aug. 19.

This new Calendar, which, after all was only a plagiarism or copy, of one used in Holland from time immemorial, like many of the absurd institutions which sprang from the French Revolution, was laid aside in a few years, from the circumstance of its utter unfitness for the seasons, even as they occur in the several provinces of France itself;—how much less applicable, therefore, must they have been to other countries, where the climates and seasons vary so much from each other! A Calendar, to be worthy of universal adoption, must be capable of universal application: not so that of the French philosophers, which, independently of its discordance with those of all civilized nations had not even the merit of indicating those very seasons from which it professed to derive its character. The late Mr Gifford ridiculed this new fangled method of registering time by the following ludicrous, but happy, translation of the Republican months and seasons.—

AUTUMN Wheezy, sneezy, freezy;
 WINTER Slippy, drippy, nippy;
 SPRING Showery, flowery, bowery;
 SUMMER Hoppy, croppy, poppy.

* Noah, as we find it recorded in the Bible, reckoned by months of 30 days each; and from him that mode of computing the year is supposed to have been adopted by the Chaldeans, Egyptians, and other Oriental nations.

WEEKS.

It is probable that this measure of time has existed in the East from the earliest ages; but the Greeks certainly never used such a mode of division. They divided each month of thirty days into three Decades, or equal portions of ten days each. Thus the 5th day of the month was the 5th day of the first Decade; the 5th was the 5th of the second Decade;—and the 25th of the third Decade. This division was adopted by the French in their Revolutionary Calendar, in order to get rid of the Sabbath day.

The Jews have ever marked their time by sevenths, according to the command given by God himself, for labouring during only six days of each week, and resting on the seventh, which was consequently set apart, or consecrated, to the service of their Creator;—nay, they not only hallowed the seventh day, or SABBATH, which formed a portion of their week of days; but they had, also, their weeks of years, which consisted of seven years; and their Jubilees, or rejoicing periods, which were celebrated by many acts of justice, forgiveness, and restitution, at the end of every week of seven times seven years. The Hebrews, the Assyrians, Egyptians, Arabians and Persians, all had this custom of reckoning by weeks. The origin of computation by sevenths, has been vehemently contested by some authors; who say that the four quarters or intervals of the Moon (the phases, or changes, of which are about seven days distant) originally gave occasion to this mode of division. But it seems more reasonable to conclude that it arose from the traditional accounts of the first seven days of the world's existence.

Although each lunar month contains four weeks, or four sevenths, the solar month, or that regulated by the passage of the Sun through each of the twelve signs of the Zodiac, generally contains two or three days more; consequently, as we have twelve solar months in each year, we have fifty-two weeks and one day over instead of forty-eight weeks, which would be the exact number, were our year regulated merely by the revolutions of changes of the moon.

The word WEEK is of Saxon origin, and signifies a numerical series, generally having nearly the same meaning as way, which is measured by successive steps,) although now expressive only of the space of seven days.

DAYS.

The word DAY is derived from, or synonymous with, the Saxon daeg; and the Saxons are supposed to have had it from the same source, as the Roman word Dies (a day,) which in its turn is said to be derived from Di, or Gods; by which name the Romans called the planets.

The word Day, in its strict sense, signifies that portion of time, during which we receive the light of the sun: but, more properly speaking, it includes the night, also; and is that space of time during which the Sun appears to us to make one revolution round the Earth:—to speak with astronomical precision, it is that space of time in which the Earth makes one revolution round its own axis, during its annual or yearly progress round the Sun.

In different nations and ages the modes of reckoning the beginning of the day have been various. According to the computation of the ancient Syrians, Babylonians, Persians, and the inhabitants of Hindoostan, the day commenced at the rising of the sun; with the other modern Greeks it is the same. The Athenians, and other ancient inhabitants of Greece, as well as the ancient Gauls, began theirs at sun-set, which mode is still followed by the Jews, the Austrians, the Bohemians, Silesians, the Italians, and the Chinese. The ancient inhabitants of Italy computed their day from midnight; which mode is now in common use with us and all other European nations, with the above exceptions. The Mahometans calculate from one twilight to another. The ancient Egyptians dated from noon to noon; which mode is at this day, and has always been, followed by astronomers; because that instant of time can be ascertained with greater precision than any other.

The Romans gave to each of the seven days of their week, the name of one of the heavenly bodies: thus, Dies Solis, signifies the day of the sun (Sunday); Dies, Luna; the day of the moon (Monday); Dies Martis, the day of Mars (Tuesday); Dies Mercurii, the day of Mercury (Wednesday); Dies Jovis, the day of Jupiter (Thursday); Dies Veneris, the day of Venus, (Friday) and Dies Saturni, the day of Saturn (Saturday).—From this source the English language has received Sunday, Monday, and Saturday, by translation; but Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, were derived from the ancient Saxon and Danish deities, TUESCO, WODIN, THOR, and FREYA, or FREGA.—In all Parliamentary bills, acts, journals and other documents, the Roman names of the days of week have at all times been used.

P R E F A C E.

It may be proper first to premise, that the Phases of the Moon, the rising and setting of the Sun, the Solar and Lunar Eclipses, and the time of the Tides, are all calculated for mean Solar Time, or that shown by a true Clock at Bombay.

Those who may wish to avail themselves of the columns of the Sun's rising and setting, for the purpose of rectifying a Clock or a Watch, should observe, that at the time given in the Almanac (which is that when the Sun's centre is really in the Horizon) either at rising or setting, the upper or lower limb of the Sun, will appear to be at least the Sun's diameter above the edge of the water; the Watch &c. should therefore, be set to the time as shewn in the Almanac, when this appearance is seen at Sun-rise or Sun-set, when it will show the true Mean time at Bombay.

The Sun's Right Ascension in Time, Declination, and the Equation of Time, are adopted to apparent Noon, or the instant when the Sun's centre is on the Meridian of Greenwich.

AN OUTLINE OF THE FIRST PRINCIPLES OF HORTICULTURE.

I.—GENERAL NATURE OF PLANTS.

1. Horticulture is the application of the arts of cultivation, multiplication, and domestication to the vegetable kingdom. Agriculture and Arboriculture are branches of Horticulture.
2. The vegetable kingdom is composed of living beings, destitute of sensation with no power of moving spontaneously from place to place, and called plants.
3. Plants are organised bodies, consisting of masses of tissue that is permeable by fluids or gaseous matter.
4. Vegetable tissue consists either of minute bladders, or of tubes adhering by their contiguous surfaces, and leaving intermediate passages where they do not touch.
5. Tissue is called Cellular when it is composed of minute bladders, which either approach the figure of a sphere, or are obviously some modification of it supposed to be caused by extension or lateral compression.
6. When newly formed it is in a very lax state, and possesses great powers of absorption; probably in consequence of the excessive permeability of its membrane and the imperfect cohesion of its cells.
7. Cellular tissue, otherwise called Parenchyma, constitutes the soft and brittle parts of plants; such as pith, pulp, the spaces between the veins of leaves, the principal part of the petals; and the like.
8. Succulent plants are such as have an excessive development of cellular tissue.
9. It may be considered the most essential kind of tissue, because, while no plants exist without it, many are composed of nothing else.
10. Tissue is called Woody Fibre when it is composed of slender tubes, which are conical and closed at each end, and placed side by side.
11. Woody Fibre is what causes stiffness and tenacity in certain parts of plants; hence it is found in the veins of leaves, and in bark, and it constitutes the principal part of the wood.
12. Vascular tissue is that in which either an elastic tough thread is generated spirally within a tube that is closed and conical at each end; or rows of cylindrical cellules, placed end to end, finally become continuous tubes by the loss of their ends.
13. The most remarkable form of vascular tissue is the Spiral vessel, which has the power of unrolling with elasticity when stretched.
14. Other kinds of vascular tissue are incapable of unrolling, but break when stretched.
15. Spiral vessels are not found in the wood or bark, and rarely in the roots of plants.
16. Vascular tissue of other kinds is confined to the root, stem, veins of leaves, petals, and other parts composed of leaves. It is not found in bark.
17. The common office of the tissue is to convey fluid or air, and to act as the receptacle of secretions.
18. Cellular tissue conveys fluids in all directions, absorbs with great rapidity, is the first cause of the adhesions that take place between contiguous parts, and is the principal receptacle of secreted matter.
19. Adhesion will take place at all times during the growing season, when the cellular tissue of two different parts, or of two different plants, is kept for some time in contact; but as none but tissues of nearly the same nature will adhere, grafting and budding, which are caused by the adhesion of contiguous parts, can only take place either between different varieties of the same species, or between nearly related species; and even then only when the corresponding parts of the scion or bud, and the stock, are placed in contact.
20. Woody fibre conveys fluid in the direction of its length, gives stiffness and flexibility to the general system, and acts as a protection to spiral and other delicate vessels.
21. Spiral vessels convey oxygenated air.
22. Other vessels probably conduct fluid when young, and air when old.
23. As the bodies of which all Tissue is composed are perfectly simple, unbranched, and regular in figure, having, when elongated, their two extremities; exactly alike, they are more or less capable of conveying gaseous matter or fluids in any direction; and, consequently, a current may be reversed in them without inconvenience: hence, inverted cuttings or stems will grow.

24. All parts of plants are composed of tissue, whether they be soft, as pulp; or hard, as the bony lining of a peach.

25. With regard to Horticultural operations, the parts of plants should be considered under the heads of Root (II.); Stem (III.); Leaf-buds (IV.); Leaves (V.); Flowers (VI.); Seeds (VII.); Fruit (VIII.) and Seed (IX.)

II. Root.

26. The Root is the part that strikes into the earth when a seed begins to germinate, and which afterwards continues to lengthen beneath the soil.

27. It is also the part which is sometimes emitted by the stem, for the purpose of absorbing nutriment from the atmosphere; as in Ivy, Air-Plants, Vines, &c.

28. It is distinguished from the stem by the absence of leaves in any state of regular leaf-buds (IV.); of evaporating pores or stomata (131.); and of pith in Exogenous plants.

29. Therefore such underground bodies as those called Tuber (61.) in the Potato; Bulb (96.) in the Onion; and solid Bulb or Cormus (61.) in the Crocus, are not roots.

30. The office of the root is to absorb food in a fluid or gaseous state; and also to fix the plant in the soil, or to some firm support.

31. The latter office is essential to the certain and regular performance of the former.

32. It is not by the whole of their surface that roots absorb food; but only by their young and newly formed extremities, called Spongioles.

33. Hence the preservation of the spongiole, in an uninjured state is essential to the removal of a plant from one place to another.

34. A Spongiole consists of very young vascular tissue (12.) surrounded by very young cellular substances, (5.)

35. It is therefore one of the most delicate parts of plants, and the most easily injured.

36. Hence whatever is known to produce any specific deleterious action upon leaves of stems, such as certain gases (298) and mineral or vegetable poisons, will produce a much more fatal effect upon the spongioles.

37. These organs have no power of selecting their food, but will absorb whatever the earth or air may contain, which is sufficiently fluid to pass through the sides of their tissue.

38. So that if the spongioles are developed in a medium which is of an unsuitable nature, as they will still continue to absorb, they cannot fail to introduce matter which will prove either injurious or fatal to life, according to its intensity.

39. This may often explain why trees suddenly become unhealthy, without any external apparent cause.

40. Plants have the power of replacing spongioles by the formation of new ones; so that an individual is not destroyed by their loss.

41. But this power depends upon the co-operation of the atmosphere, and upon the special vital powers of the species.

42. If the atmosphere is so humid as to hinder evaporation spongioles will have time to form anew; but if the atmosphere is dry, the loss by evaporation will be so much greater than can be supplied by the injured roots, that the whole system will be emptied of fluid before the new spongioles can form.

43. This is the key to Transplantation. (XV.)

44. As roots are destitute of leaf-buds (IV.) and as leaf-buds are essential to the multiplication of an individual (108.) it should follow that roots can never be employed for the purpose of multiplication.

45. Nevertheless, roots when woody have, occasionally, the power of generating adventitious leaf-buds (IV.) and when this is the case, they may be employed for the purpose of multiplication; as those of Cydonia Japonica, &c.

46. The cause of this power existing in some species, and not in others, is unknown.

47. It is therefore a power that can never be calculated upon; and whose existence is only to be discovered by accident.

48. Although roots are generated under-ground, and sometimes at considerable depths, yet access to a certain quantity of atmospheric air appears indispensable to the healthy execution of their functions. This is constantly exemplified in plants growing in the earth at the back of an ill-ventilated forcing house, where the roots have no means of finding their way into the earth on the outside of the House.

49. It is supposed by some that the introduction of oxygen into their system is as indispensable to them as to animals.

50. It seems more probable that the oxygen of the atmosphere, seizing upon a certain quantity of carbon, forms carbonic acid, which they absorb, and feed upon.

51. It is at least certain that the exclusion of air from the roots will always induce an unhealthy condition, or even death itself. This may be one of the reasons why stiff tenacious soils are so seldom suited to the purposes of the cultivator, until their adhesiveness has been destroyed by the addition of other matter.

52. Spongioles secrete excrementitious matter, which is unsuitable to the same species afterwards as food; for poisonous substances are as fatal to the species that secrete them as to any other species.

53. But to other species the excrementitious matter is either not unsuitable, or not deleterious.

54. Hence, soil may be rendered impure (or, as we inaccurately say, worn out) for one species, which will not be impure for others.

55. This is the true key of the theory of rotation of crops.

56. This also may serve to explain in part why light soil is indispensable to so many plants, and heavy or tenacious soil suitable to so few; for in the former case the spongioles will meet with little resistance to their elongation, and will consequently be continually quitting the place where their excrementitious matter is deposited; while, in the latter case, the reverse will occur.

III. STEM.

57. The stem is that part of a plant which is developed above ground, and which took an upward direction at the period of germination.

58. It consists of a woody axis, covered by bark having stomata (131.) on its surface, bearing leaves with leaf-buds in their axillæ, and producing flowers and fruit.

59. The points where leaves are borne are called Nodi; the spaces between the leaves are Internodia.

60. The more erect a stem grows, the more vigorous it is; and the more it deviates from this direction to a horizontal or pendulous position, the less is it vigorous.

61. Some stems are developed under ground, such as the Tubers of the Potato and the cormus of the crocus but they are known from roots by the presence of leaves, and regular leaf-buds upon their surface.

62. Stems increase in diameter in two ways.

63. Either by the addition of new matter to the outside of the wood and the inside of the bark; when they are Exogenous; ex. Oak.

64. Or by the addition of new matter to their inside; when they are Endogenous; ex. Cane.

65. In Exogenous stems, the central portion, which is harder and darker than that at the circumference, is called Heart-wood; while the exterior, which is softer and lighter, is called Alburnum or Sapwood.

66. The inside of the bark of such stems has also the technical name of Liber.

67. The Heart-wood was, when young, Alburnum, and afterwards changed its nature, by becoming the receptacle of certain secretions peculiar to the species.

68. Hence the greater durability of Heart-wood than of Sapwood. While the latter is newly formed empty tissue, almost as perishable as bark itself, the former is protected against destruction by the introduction of secretions that become solid matter, which is often insoluble in water, and never permeable to air.

69. The secretions by which Heart-wood is solidified are prepared in the leaves, whence they are sent downwards through the bark, and from the bark communicated to the central part of the stem.

70. The channels through which this communication takes place are called Medullary Rays, or Silver Grain.

71. Medullary rays are plates of cellular tissue, in a very compressed state, passing from the pith into the bark.

72. The wood itself is composed of tubes consisting of woody fibre and vascular tissue, imbedded longitudinally in cellular substance.

73. This cellular substance only develops horizontally; and it is to it that the peculiar character of different kinds of wood is chiefly due.

74. For this reason the wood of the stock of a grafted plant will never become like that of its scion, although, as will be hereafter seen (IV.,) the woody matter of the stock must all originate in the scion.

75. The stem of an Exogenous plant may therefore be compared to a piece of linen, of which the weft is composed of cellular tissue, and the warp of fibrous and vascular tissue.

76. In the spring and autumn a viscid substance is secreted between the wood and the liber, called the Cambium.

77. This Cambium appears to be the matter out of which the cellular horizontal substance of the stem is organized.

78. In Endogenous stems the portion at the circumference is harder than that in the centre ; and there is no separable bark.

79. Their stems consist of bundles of woody matter, imbedded in cellular tissue, and composed of vascular tissue surrounded by woody fibre.

80. The stem is not only the depository of the peculiar secretions of species (67.,) but is also the medium through which the sap flows in its passage from the roots into the leaves.

81. In Exogenous stems (63.,) it certainly rises through the alburnum, and descends through the bark.

82. In Endogenous stems (64.,) it probably rises through the bundles of wood, and descends through the cellular substance ; but this is uncertain.

83. Stems have the power of propagating an individual only by means of their leaf-buds. If destitute of leaf-buds, they have no power of multiplication, except fortuitously.

IV. LEAF BUDS.

84. Leaf-buds are rudiments of branches enclosed within scales, which are imperfectly formed leaves.

85. All the leaf-buds upon the same branch are constitutionally and anatomically the same.

86. They are of two kinds ; viz. regular or normal, and adventitious or latent, (119.)

87. Regular leaf-buds are formed at the axille of leaves.

88. They are organs capable of propagating the individual from which they originate.

89. They are at first nourished by the fluid lying in the pith, but finally established for themselves a communication with the soil by the woody matter which they send downwards.

90. Their force of developement will be in proportion to their nourishment ; and consequently, when it is wished to procure a young shoot of unusual vigour, all othershoots in the vicinity are prevented growing, so as to accumulate for one shoot only all the food that would otherwise have been consumed by several.

91. Cutting back to a few eyes is an operation in pruning to produce the same effect, by directing the sap, as it ascends, into two or three buds only, instead of allowing it to expend itself upon all the others which are cut away.

92. When leaf-buds grow, they develop in three directions ; the one horizontal, the other upward, and the third downward.

93. The horizontal developement is confined to the cellular system of the bark, pith, and medullary rays.

94. The upward and downward developements are confined to the woody fibre and vascular tissue.

95. In this respect they resemble seed ; from which they differ physiologically in propagating the Individual while seeds can only propagate the species.

96. When they disarticulate from the stem that bears them, they are called bulbs.

97. In some plants, a bud, when separated from its stem, will grow and form a new plant, if placed in circumstances favourable to the preservation of its vital powers.

98. But this property seems confined to plants having a firm, woody perennial stem.

99. Such buds, when detached from their parent stem, send roots downwards and a stem upwards.

100. But if the buds are not separated from the plant to which they belong, the matter they send downwards becomes wood and liber, (66.,) and the stems they send upwards become branches. Hence it is said that wood and liber are formed by the roots of leaf-buds.

101. If not leaf-buds are called into action, there will be no addition of wood ; and, consequently, the destruction or absence of leaf-buds is accompanied by the absence of wood ; as is proved by a shoot, the upper buds of which are destroyed and the lower allowed to develop. The lower part of the shoot will increase in diameter ; the upper will remain of its original dimensions.

102. The quantity of wood, therefore depends upon the quantity of leaf-buds that develop.

103. It is of the greatest importance to bear this in mind in pruning timber trees ; for excessive pruning must necessarily be injurious to the quantity of produce.

104. If a cutting with a leaf-bud on it be placed in circumstances fitted to the development of the latter, it will grow and become a new plant.

105. If this happens when the cutting is inserted in the earth, the new plant is said by gardeners to be upon its own bottom.

106. But if it happens when the cutting is applied to the dis severed end of another individual, called a stock, the roots are insinuated into the tissue of the stock, and a plant is said to be grafted ; the cutting being called a scion.

107. There is, therefore, little difference between cuttings and scions, except that the former root into the earth, the latter into another plant.

108. But if a cutting of the same plant without a leaf-bud upon it be placed in the same circumstances, it will not grow, but will die.

109. Unless its vital powers are sufficient to enable it to develop an adventitious leaf-bud. (119.)

110. A leaf-bud separated from the stem will also become a new individual, if its vital energy is sufficiently powerful.

111. And this, whether it is planted in earth, into which it roots, like a cutting, or in a new individual to which it adheres and grows like a scion. In the former case it is called an eye, in the latter a bud.

112. Every leaf-bud has, therefore, its own distinct system of life, and of growth.

113. And as all the leaf buds of an individual are exactly alike, it follows that a plant is a collection of a great number of distinct identical systems of life, and consequently a compound individual.

114. Regular leaf-buds being generated in the axillæ of the leaves, it is there that they are always to be sought.

115. And if they cannot be discovered by ocular inspection, it may nevertheless be always inferred with confidence that they exist in such situations, and may possibly be called from their dormant state into life.

116. Hence, wherever the scar of a leaf, or the remains of a leaf, can be discovered, there it is to be understood that the rudiments exist of a system of life which may be, by favourable circumstances, called into action.

117. Hence, all parts upon which leaves have ever grown may be made use of for purposes of propagation.

118. From these considerations it appears, that the most direct analogy between the Animal and Vegetable Kingdoms is with the Polypes of the former.

119. Adventitious leaf-buds are in all respects like regular leaf-buds, except that they are not formed at the axillæ of leaves, but develop occasionally from all and any parts of a plant.

120. They are occasionally produced by roots, by solid wood, or even by leaves and flowers.

121. Hence roots, solid wood, or even leaves and flowers may be used as means of propagation.

122. But as the development of adventitious buds is extremely uncertain, such means of propagation can never be calculated on ; and form no part of the science of cultivation.

123. The cause of the formation of adventitious leaf-buds is unknown.

124. From certain experiments it appears that they may be generated by sap in a state of great accumulation and activity.

125. Consequently, whatever tends to the accumulation of sap in an active state may be expected to be conducive to the formation of adventitious leaf-buds.

V. LEAVES.

126. Leaves are expansions of bark, traversed by veins.

127. The veins consist of spiral vessels enclosed in woody fibre ; they originate in the medullary sheath and liber ; and they are connected by loose Parenchyma (7.) which is full of cavities containing air.

128. This parenchyma consists of two layers, of which the upper is composed of cellules perpendicular to the cuticle, and the lower of cellules parallel with the cuticle.

129. These cellulæ are arranged so as to leave numerous open passages among them for the circulation of air in the inside of a leaf. Parenchyma of this nature is called cavernous.

130. Cuticle is formed of one or more layers of depressed cellular tissue, which is generally hardened, and always dry and filled with air.

131. Between many of the cells of the cuticle are placed apertures called stomata, which have the power of opening and closing as circumstances may require.

132. It is by means of this apparatus that leaves elaborate the sap which they absorb from the alburnum, converting it into the secretions peculiar to the species.

133. Their cavernous structure (129) enables them to expose the greatest possible surface of their parenchyma to the action of the atmosphere.

134. Their cuticle is a non-conducting skin, which protects them from great variations in temperature, and through which gaseous matter will pass readily.

135. Their stomata are pores that are chiefly intended to facilitate evaporation; for which they are well adapted by a power they possess of opening or closing as circumstances may require.

136. They are also intended for facilitating the rapid emission of air, when it is necessary that such a function should be performed.

137. The functions of stomata being of such vital importance, it is always advisable to examine them microscopically in cases where doubts are entertained of the state of the atmosphere which a particular species may require.

138. Leaves growing in air are covered with a cuticle.

139. Leaves growing under water have no cuticle.

140. All the secretions of plants being formed in the leaves, or at least the greater part, it follows that secretions cannot take place if leaves are destroyed.

141. And as this secreting property depends upon specific vital powers connected with the decomposition of carbonic acid, and called into action only when the leaves are freely exposed to light and air (279), it also follows that the quantity of secretion will be in direct proportion to the quantity of leaves, and to their free exposure to light and air.

142. The usual position of leaves is spiral, at regularly increasing or diminishing distances; they are then said to be alternate.

143. But if the space, or the axis, that separates two leaves, is reduced to nothing at alternate intervals, they become opposite.

144. And if the spaces that separate several leaves be reduced to nothing, they become verticillate.

145. Opposite and verticillate leaves, therefore, differ from alternate leaves only in the spaces that separate them being reduced to nothing.

VI. FLOWERS.

146. Flowers consist of two principal parts, viz. Floral Envelopes (140.) and Sexes (V11.)

147. Of these, the former constitute what is popularly considered the flower; although the latter are the only parts that are absolutely essential to it.

148. However different they may be in appearance from leaves, they are all formed of those organs in a more or less modified state, and altered in greater or less degree by mutual adhesion.

149. The Floral Envelopes consist of two or more whorls of transformed leaves; of which part is calyx, its leaves being called sepals, and part corolla, its leaves being called petals.

150. The Sexes are also transformed leaves, (187.)

151. The calyx is always the outermost, the corolla is always the innermost whorls; and if there is but one floral envelope, that one is calyx.

152. Usually the calyx is green, and the corolla coloured and more highly developed; but the reverse is frequently the case, as in Fuchsia, Ribes sanguineum, &c.

153. A Flower being, then, an axis surrounded by leaves, it is in reality a stunted branch; that is, one the growth or which is checked, and its power of elongation destroyed.

154. That Flowers are stunted branches is proved, firstly, by all their parts, especially the most external, occasionally reverting to the state of ordinary leaves; secondly, by their parts being often transformed into each other; and thirdly, by the whorls of flower-buds being dislocated and actually converted into branches whenever any thing occurs to stimulate them excessively.

155. Their most essential distinctive character consists in the buds at the axillæ of their leaves being usually dormant, while those in the axillæ of ordinary leaves are usually active.

156. For this reason while leaf-buds can be used for the purpose of propagation, flower-buds cannot usually be so employed.

157. Being stunted branches, their position on the stem is the same as that of developed branches.

158. And as there is in all plants a very great difference in the development of leaf-buds, some growing readily into branches, others only unfolding their leaves without elongating, and many remaining altogether dormant, it follows that flower-buds may form upon plants of whatever age and in whatever age and in whatever state.

159. But to produce a general formation of flower-buds it is necessary that there should be some general predisposing constitutional cause independent of accidental circumstances.

160. This predisposing cause is the accumulation of sap and of secreted matter.

161. Therefore whatever tends to retard the free flow sap, and causes it to accumulate, will cause the production of flower-buds or fertility.

162. And on the other hand, whatever tends to produce excessive vigour causes the dispersion of sap, or prevents its elaboration and causes sterility.

163. Transplantation with a partial destruction of roots age, or high temperature accompanied by a dry atmosphere, training obliquely or in an inverted direction, a constant destruction of the extremities; of young growing branches, will all cause an accumulation of sap, and secretions; and consequently all such circumstances are favourable to the production of flower-buds.

164. But a richly manured soil, high temperature, with great atmospheric humidity, or an uninterrupted flow of sap, are all causes of excessive vigour, and are consequently unfavourable to the production of flower-buds.

165. There is a tendency in many flowers to enlarge, to alter their colours or to change their appearance by a transformation and multiplication of their parts, whenever they have been raised from seeds for several generations, or domesticated.

166. The causes of this tendency are probably various, but being entirely unknown, no certain rules for the production of varieties in flowers can be laid down, except by the aid of hybridising. (210.)

167. It often happens that a single branch produces flowers different from those produced on other branches. This is technically called a sport.

168. As every bud on that branch has the same specific vital principle (113.) a bud taken from such a branch will produce an individual, the whole of whose branches will retain the character of the sport.

169. Consequently, by buds an accidental variety may be made permanent, if the plant that sports be of a firm woody nature. (98.)

170. As flowers feed upon the prepared sap in their vicinity, the greater the abundance of this prepared food, the more perfect will be their development.

171. Or the fewer the flowers on a given branch the more food they will severally have to nourish them, and the more perfect will they be.

172. The beauty of flowers will therefore be increased either by an abundant supply of food, or by a diminution of their numbers (thinning), or by both. The business of the pruner is to cause these by his operations.

173. The beauty of flowers depends upon their free exposure to light and air, because it consists in the richness of their colours, and their colours are only formed by the action of those two agents. (281.)

174. Hence flowers produced in dark or shady confined situations are either imperfect, or destitute of their habitual size and beauty.

175. Double flowers are those in which the stamens are transformed into petals; or in which the latter, or the sepals, are multiplied. They should not be confounded with Proliferous (183) and Discoid Compound Flowers. (184.)

176. Although no certain rules for the production of double flowers can be laid down, yet it is probable that those flowers have the greatest tendency to become double, in which the sexes are habitually multiplied.

177. In Icosaandrous and Polyandrous plants either the stamens or the pistilla are always very numerous when the flowers are in a natural state; and it is chiefly in such plants that double flowers occur, when they become transformed.

178. It is therefore in such plants that double Flowers are to be principally expected.

179. In proportion as the sexes of Flowers habitually become few in number, do the instances of double Flowers become rare.

180. Double Flowers are therefore least to be expected in Plants with fewest stamens.

181. Whenever the component parts of a Flower adhere by their edges, as in monophyllous calyxes, monopetalous corollas, and monadelphous, or polyadelphous stamens, the tendency to an unnatural multiplication of parts seems checked.

182. Therefore in such cases double Flowers are little to be expected; they are, in fact, very rare.

183. Proliferous Flowers are those in which parts that usually have all their axillary buds dormant, accidentally develope such buds; as in the Hen and Chickens Daisy, in which the bractes of the involucre form other Daisy-heads in their axillæ; or as in certain Roses, in which the carpellary leaves develope leaf-buds in their axillæ, so that the flower becomes a branch, the lower leaves of which are coloured and transformed, and the upper green, and in their ordinary state.

184. Discoid compound Flowers are those in which the central florets of a flower head acquire corollas like those of the circumference, as in the Dahlia; the cultivated varieties of which should be called discoid, and not double.

185. These two last are so essentially different from double flowers, that whatever laws may be supposed to govern the production or amelioration of double Flowers, can have no relation to proliferous or discoid compound Flowers.

VII. SEXES.

186. The sexes consists of two or more whorls of transformed leaves, of which the outer are called stamens (183), and the inner (pistillum. (191.)

187. They are known to be modifications of leaves, because they very frequently are transformed into petals which are demonstrably such (149.); and because they occasionally revert to the state of leaves.

188. The stamens bear at their apex an organ, called the anther, which contains a powder called pollen.

189. When the anther is full grown it opens and emits the pollen, either dispersing it in the air in consequence of the elasticity with which it opens; or deposit it upon the stigma (191.); or exposing it to the action of wind, or such other disturbing causes as may liberate it from its case.

190. The pollen consists of exceedingly minute hollow balls, or cases, containing myriads of moving particles, which are the fertilising principle of the stamens.

191. The pistillum has at its base one or more cavities or cells, in which bodies called ovula are placed; and at its apex one or more secreting surfaces called stigmata.

192. The ovula are the rudiments, of seeds.

193. If the fertilising powder of the pollen come in contact with the stigma, the ovula in the cells of the pistillum are vivified, and become seeds.

194. But if this contact does not take place, the ovula cannot possibly be vivified, but shrivel up and perish.

195. The phenomenon of vivification takes place in consequence of the descent of a portion of the moving particles (190.) of the pollen into the ovula, where such particles form the commencement of future plants.

196. In wild plants a stigma is usually acted upon only by the pollen of the stamen, which belong to it.

197. In this case the seeds thus vivified will, when sown, produce new individuals, differing very little from that by which they were themselves produced.

198. And therefore, wild plants are for the most part multiplied from generation to generation without change.

199. But it is possible to cause deviations from this law, by artificial means.

200. If the pollen of one species is placed upon the stigma of another species, the ovula will be vivified; and what is called a hybrid plant will be produced, by those ovula when they shall have grown to be seeds.

201. Hybrid plants are different from both their parents, and are generally intermediate in character between them.

202. They have little power of perpetuating themselves by seeds; but they may, if woody, be perpetuated by cuttings (312), buds (254), scions (335), &c.

203. Therefore, no hybrids but such as are of a woody perennial character can be perpetuated.

204. It usually happens that the hybrid has the constitution and general aspect of the polliniferous parent; but is influenced in secondary characters by the peculiarity of the female parent.

205. This should always be borne in mind in procuring new hybrid plants.

206. Really hybrid plants must not be confounded with such as are spurious, in consequence of their origin being between two varieties of the same species, and not two species of the same genus.

207. Hybrid plants, although incapable of perpetuation by seed, are often more abundant flowerers than either parent.

208. This is, probably, connected with constitutional debility. (162.)

VIII. FRUIT.

209. Fruit, strictly speaking, is the pistillum arrived at maturity.

210. When the calyx adheres to the pistillum and grows with it to maturity the fruit is called inferior: as the Apple.

211. But when the pistillum alone ripens, there being no adhesion to it on the part of the calyx, the fruit is called Superior: as the Peach.

212. The fruit, is therefore, in common language, the flower or some part of it, arrived at its most complete state of existence; and, consequently is itself a portion of a stunted branch. (153.)

213. The nature of its connection with the stem is therefore the same as that of the branches with each other, or of leaves with their stem.

214. A superior Fruit consisting only of one, or of a small number of metamorphosed leaves, it has little or no power of forming a communication with the earth and of feeding itself as real branches have (89.)

215. It has also very little adhesion to its branch; so that but slight causes are sufficient to detach it from the plants especially at an early age, when all its parts are tender.

216. Hence the difficulty of causing Peaches and the like to stone or to pass over that age, in which the vascular bundles that join them to the branch become woody, and secure them to their place.

217. For the same reason they are fed almost entirely by other parts, upon secreted matter which they attract to themselves, elaborate, and store up in the cavities of their tissue.

218. The office of feeding such fruit is performed by young branches, which transmit nutriment to it through the bark. (69.)

219. But as young branches can only transmit nutriment downwards, it follows that unless a fruit is formed on a part of a branch below a leaf-bud, it must perish.

220. Unless there is some active vegetation in the stem above the branch on which it grows; when it may possibly live and feed upon secretions attracted by it from the main stem.

221. But inferior fruit, consisting at least of the calyx in addition to the pistillum, has a much more powerful communication with the branch; each division of its calyx having at least one bundle of vascular and fibrous tissue, passing from it into the branch, and acting as a stay upon the centre to prevent its breaking off.

222. Such fruit may be supposed much more capable of establishing a means of attracting secretions from a distance; and, consequently, is less liable to perish from want of a supply of food.

223. It is therefore not so important that an inferior fruit should be furnished with growing branches above it.

224. Fruit is exclusively fed by the secretions prepared for it by other parts; it is therefore affected by nearly the same circumstances as flowers.

225. It will be large in proportion to the quantity of food the stem can supply to it; and small in proportion to the inability of the stem to nourish it.

226. For this reason, when trees are weak they should be allowed to bear very little, if any, fruit; because a crop of fruit can only tend to increase their debility.

227. And in all cases each fruit should be so far separated from all others as not to be robbed of its food by those in its vicinity.

228. We find that nature has herself in some measure provided against injury to plants by excessive fecundity, in giving them a power of throwing off flowers, the fruit of which cannot be supported.

229. The flavour of fruit depends upon the existence of certain secretions, especially of acid and sugar; flavour will, consequently, be regulated by the circumstances under which fruit is ripened.

230. The ripening of fruit is the conversion of acid and other substances into sugar.

231. As the latter substance cannot be obtained at all in the dark, is less abundant in fruit ripened in diffused light, and most abundant in fruit exposed to the direct rays of the sun, the conversion of matter into sugar occurs under the same circumstances as the decomposition of carbonic acid. (141. and 279.)

232. Therefore, if fruit be produced in situations much exposed to the sun, its sweetness will be augmented.

233. And in proportion as it is deprived of the sun's direct rays that quality will diminish.

234. So that a fruit which when exposed to the sun is sweet, when grown where no direct light will reach it will be acid; as Pears, Cherries, &c.

235. Hence acidity may be corrected by exposure to light; and excessive sweetness, or insipidity, by removal from light.

236. It is the property of succulent fruits which are acid when wild to acquire sweetness when cultivated, losing a part of their acid.

237. This probably arises from the augmentation of the cellular tissue, which possibly has a greater power than woody or vascular tissue of assisting in the formation of sugar.

238. As a certain quantity of acid is essential to render fruit agreeable to the palate, and as it is the property of cultivated fruits to add to their saccharine matter, but not to form more acid than when wild, it follows that, in selecting wild fruits for domestication, those which are acid should be preferred, and those which are sweet or insipid rejected.

239. Unless recourse is had to hybridism; when a wild insipid fruit may be possibly improved (204), or may be the means of improving something else.

240. It is very much upon such considerations as the foregoing that the rules of training must depend.

IX. SEED.

241. The seed is the ovulum arrived at perfection.

242. It consists of an integument enclosing an embryo, which is the rudiment of a future plant.

243. The seed is nourished by the same means as the fruits; and, like it, will be more or less perfectly formed, according to the abundance of its nutriment.

244. The plant developed from the embryo in the seed, will be in all essential particulars like its parent species.

245. Unless its nature has been changed by hybridising. (204.)

246. But although it will certainly, under ordinary circumstances, re-produce its species, it will by no means uniformly reproduce the particular variety by which it was borne.

247. So that seeds are not the proper means of propagating varieties.

248. Nevertheless, in annual or biennial plants, no means can be employed for propagating a variety, except the seeds; and yet the variety is preserved.

249. This is accomplished by the great care of the cultivator, and happens thus.

250. Although a seed will not absolutely propagate the individual, yet as the seed will partake more of the nature of its actual parent than of any thing else, its progeny may be expected, as really happens, to resemble the variety from which it sprang, more than any other variety of its species.

251. Provided its purity have not been contaminated by the intermixture of other varieties.

252. By a careful eradication of all the varieties from the neighbourhood of that from which seed is to be saved, by taking care that none but the most genuine forms of a variety are preserved, as seed-plants; and by compelling by transplantation a plant to expend all its accumulated sap in the nourishment of its seeds, instead of in the superabundant production of foliage, a crop of seed may be procured, the plants produced by which will, in a great measure, have the peculiar properties of the parent variety.

253. By a series of progressive see l-savings upon the same plan, plants will be at length obtained, in which the habits of the individual have become as it were fixed, and capable of such exact reproduction by seed, as to form an exception to the general rule; as in Turnips, Radishes, &c.

254. But if the least neglect occurs in taking the necessary precautions (252.) to ensure a uniform crop of seed, possessing the new fixed properties, the race becomes deteriorated, in proportion to the want of care that has occurred, and loses its characters of individuality.

255. In all varieties those seeds may be expected to preserve their individual characters most distinctly which have been the best nourished (243.): it is consequently, those which should be selected in preference for raising new plants, from which seed is to be saved.

256. When seeds are first ripened, their embryo is a mass of cellular substance, containing starch, fixed carbon, or other solid matter in its cavities; and in this state it will remain until fitting circumstances occur to call it into active life.

257. These fitting circumstances are, a temperature above 32° Fahr., a moist medium, darkness, and exposure to air.

258. It then absorbs the moisture of the medium in which it lies, inhales oxygen (278) and undergoes certain chemical changes; its vital powers cause it to ascend by one extremity for the purpose of finding light, and of decomposing its carbonic acid (279). by parting with its accumulated oxygen, and to descend by the other extremity for the purpose of finding a constant supply of crude nutriment.

259. Unless these conditions are maintained, seeds cannot germinate; and consequently, an exposure to light is fatal to their embryo, because (278) oxygen will not be absorbed in sufficient quantity to stimulate the vital powers of the embryo into action for the purpose of parting with it again, by the decomposition of the carbonic acid that has been formed during its accumulation.

X. SAP.

260. The fluid matter which is absorbed either from the earth or from the air is called sap.

261. When it first enters a plant it consists of water, holding certain principles, especially carbonic acid, in solution.

262. These principles chiefly consist of animal or vegetable matter in a state of decomposition, and are energetic in proportion to their solubility, or tendency to form carbonic acid by combining with the oxygen of the air.

263. Sap soon afterwards acquires the nature of mucilage or sugar, and subsequently becomes still further altered by the admixture of such soluble matter as it receives in passing in its route through the alburnum or newly formed woody tissue (65.)

264. When it reaches the vicinity of the leaves it is attracted into them, and there, having been exposed to light and air, is converted into the secretions peculiar to the species.

265. It finally, in its altered state, sinks down the bark, whence it is given off laterally by the medullary rays, and is distributed through the system.

266. No solid matter whatever can be taken up by the roots; for this reason metals, which in the state of oxides are poisonous, are perfectly harmless in their metallic state, as mercury; and this is, no doubt, the cause why liquid manure, which contains all the soluble parts of manure in a fluid state acts with so much more energy than stimulating substances in a solid state.

267. The cause of the motion of the sap is the attraction of the leaf-buds and leaves.

268. The leaf-buds, called into growth by the combined action of the increasing temperature and light of spring, decompose their carbonic acid (279.), and attract fluid from the tissue immediately below them; the space so caused is filled up by fluid again attracted from below, and thus a motion gradually takes place in the sap from one extremity to the other.

269. Consequently the motion of the sap takes place first in the branches, and last in the roots.

270. For this reason a branch of a plant subjected to a high temperature in winter will grow while its stem is exposed to a very low temperature.

271. But growth under such circumstances will not be long maintained, unless the roots are secured from the reach of frost; for if frozen they cannot act, and will consequently, be unable to replace the sap of which the stem is emptied by the attraction of the buds converted into branches, and by the perspiration of the leaves. (XII.)

272. Whatever tends to inspissate the sap, such as a dry and heated atmosphere, or an interruption of its rapid flow, or a great decomposition of carbonic acid by full exposure to light, has the property of causing excessive vigour to be diminished, and flower buds to be produced.

273. While, on the other hand, whatever tends to dilute the sap, such as a damp atmosphere, a free and uninterrupted circulation, or a great accumulation of oxygen in consequence of the imperfect decomposition of carbonic acid, has the property of causing excessively rapid growth, and an exclusive production of leaf-buds.

274. Inspissated or accumulated sap is, therefore, a great cause of fertility.

275. And then fluid, not being elaborated, is a great cause of sterility.

276. The conversion of sap into different kinds of secretion is effected by the combined action of Air (X1) Light (X1.), and Temperature.

XI. AIR AND LIGHT.

277. When an embryo plant (242.) is formed within its integuments, it is usually colourless, or nearly so; but, as soon as it begins to grow, that part which approaches the light (the stem) becomes coloured, while the opposite extremity (the root) remains colourless.

278. The parts exposed to the air absorb oxygen at night, absorb carbonic acid and part with oxygen again in daylight; and thus in the day-time purify the air, and render it fit for the respiration of man.

279. The intensity of this latter phenomenon is in proportion to the intensity of solar light to which leaves are directly exposed.

280. Its cause is the decomposition of carbonic acid, the extrication of oxygen, and the acquisition by the plant of carbon in a solid state; from which, modified by the peculiar vital actions of species, colour and secretions are supposed to result.

281. For it is found that the intensity of colour and the quantity of secretions are in proportion to the exposure to light and air, as is shown by the deeper colour of the upper side of leaves, &c.

282. And by the fact, that if plants be grown in air from which light is excluded, neither colour nor secretions are formed, as is exemplified in blanched vegetables: which if even naturally poisonous, may, from want of exposure to light, become wholesome, as Celery.

283. When any colour appears in parts developed in the dark, it is generally caused by the absorption of such colouring matter as pre-existed in the root or other body from which the blanched shoot proceeds, as in some kinds of Rhubarb when forced.

284. Or by the decomposition of colouring matter forced by parts developed in light, as in the subterranean roots of Beet, Carrots, &c.

285. What is true of colour is also true of flavour, which equally depends upon light for its existence; because flavour is produced by chemical alterations in the sap caused by exposure to light. (229.)

286. The same thing occurs in regard to nutritive matter, which in like manner is formed by the exposure of leaves to light. Thus the Potato when forced in dark houses contains no more amylaceous matter than previously existed in the original tube; but acquires it in abundance when placed in the light, and deposits it in proportion as it is influenced by light and air. Thus, also, if Peaches are grown in wooden houses, at a distance from the light, they will form so little nutritive matter as to be unable to support a crop of fruit, the greater part of which will fall off. And for a similar reason it is only the outside shoots of standard fruit trees that bear fruit. Considerations of this kind form in part the basis of pruning and training.

287. Light is the most powerful stimulus that can be employed to excite the vital actions of plants, and its energy is in proportion to its intensity; so that the direct rays of the sun will produce much more powerful effects than the diffused light of day.

288. Hence its buds, that are very excitable are placed in diffused light, their excitability will be checked.

289. And if buds that are very torpid are exposed to direct light, they will be stimulated into action.

290. So that what parts of a tree shall first begin to grow in the spring may be determined at the will of the cultivator.

291. This is the key to some important practices in forcing.

292. This should also cause attention to be paid to shading buds from the direct rays of the sun in particular cases: as in that of cuttings, whose buds, if too rapidly excited, might exhaust their only reservoir of sap, the stem, before new roots were formed to repair such loss.

293. As plants derive an essential part of their food from the air (280.) by the action of light, it follows that in glass houses those which admit the greatest portion of light are the best adapted for purposes of cultivation.

294. The proportion of opaque matter in the roof of a glass house constructed of wood varies from 1-3d to 1-7th,—that of an iron-house does not exceed 1-23d.

295. Therefore iron-roofed houses are in this respect better suited for cultivation than wooden-roofed houses.

296. And as it has been found by experiment, that light passes more freely through a curvilinear than through a plain roof and through glass forming an acute angle with the horizon than through perpendicular glass, it follows that a curvilinear roof is best, and a plain roof with glass perpendicular side the worst adapted to the purposes of the cultivator.

297.—For the same reason common green glass is less fitted for glazing forcing-houses than white crown glass.

298. Poisonous gases in very minute quantities act upon vegetation with great energy. A ten thousandth part of sulphurous acid gas is quickly fatal to the life of plants; and hence the danger of flues heated by coal fires, and the impossibility of making many species grow in the vicinity of houses heated by coal fires, or in large towns.

XII. PERSPIRATION.

299. It is not, however, exclusively by the action of light and air that the nature of sap is altered. Evaporation is constantly going on during the growth of a plant, and sometimes is so copious, that an individual will perspire its own weight in the course of 24 hours.

300. The loss thus occasioned by the leaves is supplied by crude fluid, absorbed by the roots, and conveyed up the stem with great rapidity.

301. The consequence of such copious perspiration is the separation and solidification of the carbonised matter that is produced for the peculiar secretions of a species.

302. For the maintenance of a plant in health, it is indispensable that the supply of fluid, by the roots should be continual and uninterrupted.

303. If any thing causes perspiration to take place faster than it can be counteracted by the absorption of fluid from the earth, plants will be dried up and perish.

304. Such causes are, destructive of spongioles, an insufficient quantity of fluid in the soil, an exposure of the spongioles to occasional dryness, and a dry atmosphere.

305. The most ready means of counteracting the evil consequences of an imperfect action of the roots is by preventing or diminishing evaporation.

306. This is to be effected by rendering the atmosphere extremely humid.

307. Thus, in curvilinear iron hot houses, in which the atmosphere becomes so dry in consequence of the heat that plants perish, it is necessary that the air should be rendered extremely humid, by throwing water upon pavement, or by introducing steam.

308. And in transplantation in dry weather, evergreens, or plants, in leaf, often die, because the spongioles are destroyed, or so far injured in the operation as to be unable to act, while the leaves never cease to perspire.

309. The greater certainty of transplanting plants that have been growing in pots is from this latter circumstance intelligible.

310. While the utility of putting, cutting or newly transplanted seedling into a shady damp atmosphere, is explained by the necessity of hindering evaporation.

XIII. CUTTINGS.

311. When a separate portion of a plant is caused to produce new roots and branches, and to increasing an individual, it is a cutting.

312. Cuttings are of two sorts,—cuttings properly so called, and eyes (319.)

313. A cutting consists of an internodium, or a part of one, with its nodus (59) and leaf-bud.

314. When the internodium is plunged in the earth it attracts fluid from the soil and nourishes the bud until it can feed itself.

315. The bud, feeding at first upon the matter in the internodium, gradually elongates upwards in to a branch, and sends organised matter downwards, which becomes roots.

316. As soon as it has established a communication with the soil, it becomes a new individual, exactly like that from which it was taken.

317. As it is the action of the leaf-buds that causes growth in a cutting, it follows that no cutting without a leaf-bud will grow;

318. Unless the cutting has great vitality and power of forming adventitious leaf-buds (119), which sometimes happens.

319. An eye is a leaf-bud without an internodium.

320. It only differs from a cutting in having no reservoir of food on which to exist, and in emitting its roots immediately from the base of the leaf-bud into the soil.

321. As cuttings will very often, if not always, develop leaves before any powerful connection is formed between them and the soil, they are peculiarly liable to suffer from perspiration.

322. Hence the importance of maintaining their atmosphere in an uniform state of humidity, as is effected by putting bell or other glasses over them.

323. In this case, however, it is necessary that if air-tight covers are employed, such as bell glasses, they should be from time to time removed replaced, and for the sake of getting rid of excessive humidity.

324. Layers differ from cuttings in nothing except that they strike root into the soil, while yet adhering to the parent plant.

325. Whatever is true of cuttings is true of layers, except that the latter are not liable to suffer by evaporation, because of their communication with the present plant.

326. As cuttings strike roots into the earth by the action of leaves or leaf-buds, it might be supposed that they will strike most readily when the leaves or leaf-buds are in their greatest vigour.

327. Nevertheless, this power is controlled so much by the peculiar vital powers of different species, and by secondary considerations, that it is impossible to say that this is an absolute rule.

328. Thus Dahlias and other herbaceous plants will strike root freely when cuttings are very young; and Heaths, Azaleas, and other hard wooded plants, only when the wood has just begun to harden.

329. The former is, probably, owing to some specific vital excitability, the force of which we cannot appreciate; the latter either to a kind of torpor, which seems to seize such plants when their tissue is one emptied of fluid or to a natural slowness to send downwards woody matter, whether for wood or not, which is the real cause of their wood being harder.

330. If ripened cuttings are upon the whole the most fitted for multiplication, it is because their tissue is less absorbent than when younger, and that they are less likely to suffer from either repletion or evaporation.

331. For to gorge tissue with food, before leaves are in action to decompose and assimilate it, is as prejudicial as to empty tissue by the action of leaves, before spongy tissues are prepared to replenish it.

332. For this reason pure silex, in which no stimulating substances are contained (silver sand) is the best adapted for promoting the rooting of cuttings that strike with difficulty.

333. And for the same reason cuttings with what gardeners call a heel to them, or a piece of the older wood, strike root more readily than such as are not so protected. The greater age of the tissue of the heel renders it less absorbent than tissue that is altogether newly formed.

334. It is to avoid the bad effect of evaporation that leaves are usually for the most part removed from a cutting, when it is first prepared.

XIV. SCIONS.

335. A scion is a cutting (311.) which is caused to grow upon another plant, and not in earth.

336. Scions are of two sorts, scions properly so called, and buds. (354.).

337. Whatever is true of cuttings is true also of scions, all circumstances being equal.

338. When a scion is adapted to another plant, it attracts fluid from it for the nourishment of its leaf-buds until they can feed themselves.

339. Its buds thus fed gradually grow upwards into branches, and send woody matter downwards, which is analogous to roots.

340. At the same time the cellular substance of the scion and its stock adheres (19) so as to form a complete organic union.

341. The woody matter descending from the buds passes through the cellular substance into the stock, where it occupies the same situation as would have been occupied by woody matter supplied by buds belonging to the stock itself.

342. Once united the scion covers the wood of the stock with new wood, and causes the production of new roots.

343. But the character of the woody matter sent down by the scion over the wood of the stock being determined by the cellular substance, which has exclusively a horizontal development (73), it follows that the wood of the stock will always remain apparently the same, although it is furnished by the scion.

344. Some scions will grow upon a stock without being able to transmit any woody matter into it; as some Cacti.

345. When this happens, the adhesion of the two takes place by the cellular substance only, and the union is so imperfect that a single degree of violence suffices to dis sever them.

346. And in such cases the buds are fed by their woody matter, which absorbs the ascending sap from the stock at the point where the adhesion has occurred; and the latter, never augmenting in diameter, is finally overgrown by the scion.

347. When, in such instances, the communication between the stock and the scion is so much interrupted that the sap can no longer ascend with sufficient rapidity into the branches, the latter die; as in many Peaches.

348. This incomplete union between the scion and its stock is owing to some constitutional or organic difference in the two.

349. Therefore care should be taken that when plants are grafted on one another their constitution should be as nearly as possible identical.

350. As adhesion of only an imperfect nature takes place when the scion and stock are to a certain degree dissimilar in constitution, so will no adhesion whatever occur when their constitutional difference are very decided.

351. Hence it is only species very nearly allied in nature that can be grafted on each other.

352. As ~~only~~ similar tissues ~~will~~ unite (19), it is necessary in applying a scion to the stock that similar parts should be carefully adapted to each other: as bark to bark, cambium to cambium, and alburnum to alburnum.

353. The second is more especially requisite, because it is through the cambium that the woody matter sent downwards by the buds must pass: and also because cambium itself, being organizing matter in an incipient state, will more readily form an adhesion than any other part.

354. The same principles apply to buds, which are to scions precisely what eyes (319) are to cuttings.

355. In arching is the same with reference to grafting that layering (324,) is with reference to striking by cuttings.

356. It serves to maintain in the vitality of a scion until it can form an adhesion with its stock; and must be considered the most certain mode of grafting.

357. It is probable that every species of flowering plant, without exception may be multiplied by grafting.

358. Nevertheless, there are many species and even tribes that never have been grafted.

359. It has been found that in the Vine and the Walnut this difficulty can be overcome by attention to their peculiar constitution; and it is probable that the same attention will remove supposed difficulties in the case of other species.

XV. TRANSPLANTATION.

360. Transplantation consists in removing a plant from the soil in which it is growing to some other soil.

361. If in the operation the plant is torpid, and its spongioles uninjured the removal will not be productive of any interruption to the previous rate of growth.

362. And if it is growing, or evergreen, and the spongioles are uninjured, the removal will produce no further injury than may arise from the temporary suspension of the action of the spongioles, and the non-cessation of perspiration during the operation.

363. So that transplantation may take place at all seasons of the year, and under all circumstances, provided the spongioles are uninjured.

364. This applies by the largest trees as well as to the smallest herbs.

365. But as it is impossible to take plants out of the earth without destroying or injuring the spongioles, the evil consequences of such accidents must be remedied by the hindrance of evaporation.

366. Transplantation should therefore take place only when plants are torpid, and when their respiratory organs (leaves) are absent; or if they never lose organs, as evergreen only at seasons when the atmosphere is periodically charged with humidity for some considerable time.

367. Old trees in which the roots are much injured from new ones springing so slowly, that they are very liable to be exhausted of sap by the absorption of their very numerous young buds before new spongioles can be formed.

368. The amputation of all their upper extremities is the most probable prevention of death; but in most causes injury of their roots is without a remedy.

369. Plants in pots being so circumstanced that the spongioles are protected from injury, can, however be transplanted at all seasons, without any dangerous consequences.

SHORT METHOD TO FIND THE SIMPLE INTEREST OF ANY SUM, FOR ANY NUMBER OF DAYS, AT ANY RATE PER CENT. PER ANNUM.

Formula.

Let p denote the principal.

d the number of days.

r the rate per cent.

Assume $\frac{1}{100,000} (2 p d r + \frac{1}{2} 2 p d r + \frac{1}{30} 2 p d r + \frac{1}{300} 2 p d r) \parallel \sigma$

Then $a - \frac{a}{10,000} = i$ very nearly.

Rule.

Multiply the principal by the number of days, and that product by double the rate per Cent. Then divide the amount by 3,30, and 300; add these quotients to it; and, subtracting the 10,000th part of the sum, the remainder divided by 10,000 will be interest required.

Example.

Required the interest of Rs. 180,000 for 146 days at 9 per Cent. per annum?
Answer Rs. 6,480.

Principal 180,000 \times 146 days.

$$\begin{array}{r} 146 \\ \hline 1080000 \\ 720000 \\ 180000 \end{array}$$

Product... 26280000 \times 18 (double the rate per cent.)

$$\begin{array}{r} 18 \\ \hline 210240000 \\ 26280000 \end{array}$$

Add 1-3rd part.... 157680000

1-30th do.... 15768000

1-300th do.... 1576800

(Sum..... 648064800

Deduct 1-10,000th part 64800 (rejecting fractions.)

Remainder.... 6480,00000 divided by 100,000, (by inserting the decimal point before the fifth figure to the right hand) shews that the Interest is Rs. 6,480.

NEW WEIGHTS & LIQUID MEASURES.

COMPILED BY THE HON'BLE J. H. CRAWFORD, Esq.

LATE ACCOUNTANT GENERAL.

New Indian Weights established in Bengal by Regulation VII of 1833; and adopted by the Government of Bombay, at the recommendation of the Tariff Committee in the New Tariff valuation, about to come into operation throughout the Bombay Presidency; with a few memoranda, intended to facilitate the conversions of old weight into new, that may become necessary in Custom House transactions under the new system of valuations mentioned above (10th December 1840.)

1 Tola	=		=	180. Grains Troy
80 Tolas	=	1 Seer.	=	14,400.
40 Seers	=	1 Indian Maund	=	5,76,000.

Then as — 7,000 Grains Troy are exactly equal to 1 seer of — 14,400 Grains Troy are exactly equal to 1 md. of — 576,000 Grains Troy are exactly equal to

lbs. Avoirdupois.
82 2 7

And it follows therefore,

That 35 Seers are exactly equal to
 „ 49 do. = „ 36
 „ 245 do. = Tons 9 = „ 180

 or

lbs. Avoirdupois.
72 „ „

The following simple and accurate Rules for the conversion of new Indian weight into avoirdupois weight, and vice-versa, deduced from the foregoing data, are given in the volume of useful Tables published by Mr. James Prinsep, in Calcutta in 1834. Page 66.

Rule 1. To convert Indian weight into Avoirdupois weight.

1. Multiply the weight in seers by 72 and divide by 35, the result will be the weight in lbs. avoirdupois.

2. Or, Multiply the weight in maunds by 36 and divide by 49 the result will be the weight in cwt. avoirdupois.

Rule 2. To convert Avoirdupois weight into Indian weight.

1. Multiply the weight in lbs. avoirdupois by 35 and divide by 72, the result will be the weight in Seers.

2. Or, Multiply the weight in cwt. by 49 and divide by 36 the result will be the weight in maunds.

Since the foregoing Memoranda and calculations were made, I have been able to obtain a Copy of the Bengal regulation VII. of 1833, on which the new System of Indian weight is founded, and subjoin the following further memoranda connected therewith, in the belief that they will be founded useful at this time.

The first Section of the Regulation in question, after reciting the reasons that render it expedient to adopt the weight and standard of the Furruckabad Rupee (which are the same as that of the Madras and Bombay Rupee) in the Calcutta Mint, as well as in the Saugor Mint, where they had been introduced as far back as the year 1824 | 25, continues as follows: “It is further convenient to introduce the weight of the Furruckabad Rupee as the unit of a general system of weights for Government transactions throughout India, under the Native and well known denomination of the Tola.”

And Section IV. in ordering the discontinuance of the use of the Sicca weight of 179,866 grains heretofore employed for the receipt of Bullion at the Calcutta Mint, states that, “in its place the following unit to be called the Tola shall be introduced, which from its immediate connection with the Rupee of the upper Provinces, and of Madras and Bombay, will easily and speedily become universal throughout the British Territories.”

"The Tola, or Sicca weight to be equal to 180 Grains Troy, and the other denominations of weight to be derived from this unit, according to the following scale.

8 Ruttees	= 1 Masha	= 15 Troy Grains.
12 Mashas	= 1 Tola	= 180 ditto.
80 Tolas (or Sicca weight)	= 1 Seer	= 2½ lbs. Troy.
40 Seers	= 1 Mun (or Bazar Maund)	100 lbs. Troy.

Mr. James Prinsep says, with reference to the foregoing change, in Pages 62 and 63 of his very useful Tables already alluded to in these memoranda, "The Tola is chiefly used in the weighing of the precious metals and Coin; all Bullion at the Mints is received in this denomination, and the Tables of Bullion produce are calculated per 100 tolas. It is also used at the Mints to make the subdivision of the Tola into annas (Sixteenths) and pie, in lieu of Mashas and Ruttees.

Mashas, Ruttees, and Dhans are used chiefly by native Goldsmiths and Jewellers. They are also employed in the native valuation by assay of the precious metals; thus 10 Mashas fine, signifies 10 | 12ths, pure and corresponds to "10 oz touch" of the English assay report of Silver. There is a closer accordance with the English Gold assay scale, in as much as the 96 Ruttees in a Tola exactly represent the 96 Carat grains in the Gold assay pound, and the Dhan the quarter Grain, and the Ruttee, of which eight go to the Masha as the above, is not an exact divisor of the latter weight, the following further Table may not be without use in calculations connected with the conversion of precious metals from the Troy weight of Great Britain, into the Tola weight of India.

1 Ruttee	= Grains Troy	1. 875 decs.—or 1½ Grains Troy exactly.
2 do	= do	3. 750 " 3½ do
3 do	= do	5. 625 " 5½ do
4 do	= do	7. 500 " 7½ do
5 do	= do	9. 375 " 9½ do
6 do	= do	11. 250 " 11½ do
7 do	= do	13. 125 " 13½ do
8 do	= do	15. " 15 do

It will be observed, that the preceding observations, whether extracted from the Regulations of Government (VII.) of 1833 Bengal. Mr. Prinsep's Tables, or made by myself, relate chiefly to the Bullion or Mint weights. Speaking of the Tola in connection with Indian weights generally Mr. Prinsep says, Page 61, "The unit of the British Indian ponderary system is called the Tola. It weighs 180 Grains English Troy weight. From it upwards are derived the heavy weights, viz. Chittack, seer, and Mun (or Maund,) and by its subdivision the small or Jeweller's weights, called Mashas, Ruttees, and Dhans.

These last mentioned weights having already been disposed of, it will be sufficient to give the following Table of the larger or Bazar weights.

5 Tolas, or sicca weight,	= 1 Chittack, or Grs. Troy 900.
16 Chittacks.....	= 1 Seer or lbs. Troy 2½.
40 Seers.....	= 1 Maund or lbs. Troy 100.

and to add with reference to the Chittack that it is the lowest denomination of the Gross weights; and in Bazar transactions is commonly divided into halves and quarters (called in Bengalee Kacha,) thus marking the line between the two series which are otherwise connected by the relation of the seer, &c. to the Tola." (Prinsep's Table Page 62,) whilst the Government of India, appear by the Tables prepared by their authority for the transactions of the Commissariat and other Public Establishments in Bengal, to have sanctioned the introduction of a smaller denomination of great weight than the Chittack called tenth parts in the Tables in question.

It appears to me, however, that neither of the above subdivisions of the Chittack are so correct in principle, and certainly not more convenient in practice, than the Tola, the unit on which, as observed by Mr. Prinsep, the whole ponderary system of India is founded. In the practice adapted in the Bazar transactions as above, the subdivisions of one half and one quarter, are not only in themselves fractional parts of Chittack, but represent Tolas and their fractional parts also, half a Chittack being equal to two and half Tolas, and the quarter of a Chittack to 1½ Tola and neither of them carries the subdivision so low in actual quantity as the weight represented by the unit itself, whilst in the Transactions of Government though the actual quantity represented by the newly created tenth parts, carries the weight as low as half Tolas, it does so, by the adoption of denomination of weight not recognized in the general dealings of commerce or by Law, and as it appears to me without sufficient cause, for if a Tola, which is considerably less than half an ounce avoirdupois, is a weight not sufficiently small for the purposes of Government, its Transactions may be carried out in the next lower subdivision to Tolas, Mashas and Ruttees, viz. Grains Troy. But, I believe it will be admitted by mercantile men in general, that the ounce avoirdupois is the lowest denomination of English weight to which recourse need be had in the ordinary operations of commerce, and it therefore seems to me, that the Tola, which, as already stated, is not equal to one half that weight, is as low a standard, as need be noticed in Indian mercantile dealings generally, the more especially as the subdivisions of the Tola (Mashas and Ruttees and Grains) afford the means of the most minute calculations in retail transactions, as well as in the adjustment of weights connected with the more valuable articles of Trade such as Musk, Opium, Silk, &c. &c. &c., and in all dealings indeed where perfect accuracy is considered necessary or desirable.

The weights of the several Presidencies of India, Travancore, China and England compared with the new Indian Maund introduced into Bengal by Regulation VII of 1833, and adopted in the New Tariff valuation about to come into operation, under the Bombay Presidency, (10th December 1840.)

Memorandum shewing the relative proportions between the old wine Gallon and Imperial Gallon now established by Law in Great Britain and Vice-Versa; with some calculations explanatory and corroborative thereof (10th December 1840.)

The old Wine Gallon contained.....	231 —
The imperial Gallon contains.....	277 274

Therefore (Vide McCulloch's Dictionary of Commerce 2d Edition 1834 under the head of weights and Measures, page 1234.)

		Decs.
1 Old Wine Gallon contains Imperial Gallons.....		0 83311
10 ditto contain of ditto.....		8 83111
100 ditto contain of ditto.....		83 31109

10 ditto contain ditto.....		12 00320
1000 ditto contain ditto.....		1200 320

Making the proportion between the old Wine Gallon and the Imperial Gallon so nearly as 10 are to 12, or 5 are to 6, that the difference between converting the former description of Gallon into the latter, according to the proportions just quoted, or working the conversion to the greatest nicety of calculation, will only occasion a difference of 222 decimal parts of an Imperial Gallon (or say rather more than 1—5th, of an imperial Gallon) in every one thousand (1000) old Wine Gallons converted as above.

To convert old Wine Gallons, therefore, into Imperial Gallons, we may either multiply by 10 and divide by 12, or multiply by 5 and divide by 6 or deduct 16th, from the number of old Wine Gallons given.

Old Wine Gallons.	Imperial Gallons decs.
For $1000 \times 10 =$	$10000 \div 12 = 833 \text{ } 333$
$1000 \times 5 =$	$5000 \div 6 = 833 \text{ } 333$
$1000 - 1-6\text{th, or } 166666$	$= 833 \text{ } 333$

Again, taking the converse of this proportion from the data above given, we have the proportions between the Imperial Gallon and old wine Gallon so nearly as 12 are to 10, or as 6 are to 5, that the difference between converting Imperial Gallons into old Wine Gallons, according to the proportions just quoted, or working the conversion to the greatest nicety of calculation will only occasion a difference of 320 decimal parts of old Wine Gallon (or say rather less than one third of such Gallon) in every one thousand (1000) Imperial Gallons converted as above.

To convert Imperial Gallons therefore into old Wine Gallons we may either multiply by 12 and divide by 10 or multiply by 6 and divide by 5 or add 1—6th, to the number of Imperial Gallons given.

Imperial Gallons.	Old Wine Gallons decs.
For $1000 \times 12 =$	$12000 \div 10 = 1200$
$1000 \times 6 =$	$6000 \div 5 = 1200$
$1000 \times 1-6\text{ths, or}$	$200 = 1200$

Memorandum intended to show the check against fraudulent weights in the Bazar, and elsewhere, which the introduction of the New Indian Maund and its several subdivisions, will prove, wheresoever adopted, to all classes of the community.

Extract being Para. 6 of a Report from the Revenue Accountant (Bombay) to Government in the Territorial Department No. 22 of 1839, dated 25th May, 1839.

6. It has been stated in the 4th para. of this Report, that the Revenue Accountant would recommend Indian Maunds, Seers, and Tolas, in preference to the avoirdupois, as the weight to be adopted in Opium purchases & sales hereafter, and he would now respectfully state, in support of this opinion, that however much maunds differ in their actual weight, and in their several subdivisions in different parts of India, still the maund is a weight familiar to the Native Population in every portion of it, and that whilst the Company's or head Rupee, which is exactly a tola, or 180 Grains troy, enables every individual of the better classes of Society, who may possess eighty Rupees of that Coinage or of the Bombay, Madras, and Furruckabad coinage of years immediately preceding the introduction of the head Rupee, to check or establish a standard seer in every part of the country, the poorer individual, to whom our Copper currency may be better known, need only possess thirty six annas (or two and quarter Rupees) of the new Copper coinage to command the same check against fraud, and imposition, as his more fortunate neighbour, the possessor of Rupees; the weight being in both cases grains troy fourteen thousand and four hundred, and therefore equal to one new Indian seer as per margin.

N. B. And further if annas 36 = 1 seer, then $36 \text{ annas} \times 4 \text{ annas} = 144 \div 1 = 9$ Rupees in new Copper Currency = 1 seers of the new Indian weight.

3rd CLASS.—Companions of the Order not limited in number, they are to take precedence of Esquires, but not entitled to the appellation, style, &c. of Knights Bachelors. To wear the badge assigned to the 3d class, pendant by a narrow riband to the button hole. No Officer can be nominated unless he shall have received a medal or other badge of honour, or shall have been especially mentioned in despatches in the Gazette, as having distinguished himself in action.

The new badge for the Military classes of the Order, is a Gold Maltese Cross of eight points, enamelled argent in the four angles a lion passant, guardant, or, in the centre, the rose, thistle, and shamrock, issuant from a sceptre between three imperial crowns, or, with a circle, gules,—thereon the motto of the Order surrounded by two branches of laurel, proper issuing from an escrol azure inscribed "Ich Dien" in letters of gold, worn by the Grand Crosses pendant from a red riband across the right shoulder. The collar is of gold, weighing thirty ounces of troy weight, and is composed of nine imperial crowns and eight roses, thistle and shamrock, issuing from a sceptre, enamelled in their proper colours, tied or linked together with seventeen gold knots, enamelled white, having the badge of the order pendant thereto. The Star of the Military Grand Crosses is formed of rays of flames of silver, thereon a Gold Maltese Cross, and in the centre, with the motto branches of laurel, issuant as above described three imperial crowns of gold, and is worn on the left side.

The Civil Knights Grand Crosses retain the old badge and star of the order.

No Knight can wear the collar before his installation.

The Star of the Commanders is in the form of a Cross patee of Silver having the same centre as the Grand Crosses, but no Gold Maltese Cross thereon.

ROYAL HANOVERIAN GUELPHIC ORDER.

This order was instituted by the Prince Regent in the name of His Majesty Geo. III "King of Great Britain, and Hanover," in 1815. The badge is a gold Maltese Cross of eight points surmounted by a Crown, and bearing on its Centre the white Horse surrounded by the motto "Nec Aspera terrent." Ribbon, sky blue, watered. On the death of William IV, the power of conferring this distinction passed, agreeably to statute II, to the Crown of Hanover, but it still enrolls 525 British Members, admitted before that event—of these 67 are Civil, and 135 are also Members of the order of the Bath. The following are extracts from the Royal Ordinance of Institution dated "Carlton House, 12th Aug. 1815."

I. This new order of Knighthood is to be considered as instituted from the 12th August 1815, and to be styled the Guelphic order, in Commemoration of several important events. For the more particular splendour of this order the office of Grand Master is for ever to be vested in the Crown of Hanover. IV. The order is to consist of three classes, Grand Crosses, Commanders and Knights. VI. Only those of our servants and subjects are to be received into the Order who have not only performed their services according to honor and duty, but who have particularly distinguished themselves or performed extraordinary services for their Country. VII. This order gives to those who obtain it, exclusive of the consideration for their services, not only precedence before those of their rank who do not possess it, but gives to those who are not noble, for their person all the rights of nobility, and the admission to our Court attached thereto.

I. Supplementary. In order to give this our order greater value and higher dignity we do hereby Command that such persons only shall be received therein who are of good descent, and birth, possess arms, and are of unimpeachable conduct &c.

II. It is our Royal will, that the Blank Coursier Herald shall obtain the Arms of the different Knights, and place the same as well on the Chapel of our Palace at Hanover, as in the Ancient Hall of Knights. there, the Arms to be placed on a Copper plate within a Sky blue Circle bearing the Motto "Nec aspera terrent" in letters of gold surrounded, if a Military person, by a wreath of laurel; if Civil, by a wreath of Oak. Under the Arms shall be engraved the name and rank of the knights, and also the date of their reception, as a durable remembrance to posterity of their distinguished merit and services.

III. Grants to the grand Crosses, the right of using the Collar Circle, Motto, wreath and badge with their Armorial bearings, and to Commanders and Knights the same insignia with the Exception of the collar.

At a General Meeting of the Subscribers to the Second Bombay Laudable Society, held on the 21st Dec. 1838, at the office of the Secretaries it was determined to establish a Third Society in succession to the Second which closes on the 31st Dec. 1839.

The Thrid Bombay Laudable Society will commence on 1st January, 1839, and the following regulations, are published for general information.

Article 1st. The object of this association is to provide a fund for the Insurance of Lives. This fund is to be portioned into shares, and an individual may subscribe for a certain number of shares, either on his, or her own life, or on the life of any other individual. In the former case, the general estate of the deceased, or such person or persons as he, or she may, by will or assignment, have appointed, shall benefit in the event of a lapse; in the latter, the person who may have subscribed on the life of the deceased shall benefit to the extent of the shares subscribed, for unless in either case such shares be especially declared at the time of subscription to be for the benefit of any other person or persons, or be subsequently made over according to the form hereafter prescribed for the benefit of any other person or persons in which case, such person or persons shall be entitled to benefit, in the event of a lapse and no other.

3d. The great principal of this Society is the equal division of its accumulated funds among the parties entitled to benefit by lapse of lives subscribed on according to the number of shares which those parties may respectively hold,

5th. Not more than four shares can be subscribed for on any life, whether those shares be held by one or more individuals.

7th. The following are the rates of subscription to be paid half yearly on each share, half, quarter and eighth share, according to the ages of the parties whose lives are subscribed on, at the time of admission into the Society, viz.

The subsequent half yearly subscription shall be payable on the 1st July and 1st January in each year commencing with the 1st July 1839.

9th. All persons who may be admitted into the Society subsequent to the 30th June 1839 shall in the first place pay their proportion of the current half yearly subscription to be calculated agreeably to the above rule from the first day of the month of their admission until the next following period of payment, and in the second place, shall pay a Premium of admission to be regulated, agreeably to the following scale, viz.

10th. Five persons residing in Bombay shall be nominated Directors of the Third Laudable Society, whose business it shall be to superintend and control the management of the Funds, to examine the accounts, to decide on all application for admission, and generally to transact the current business of the society. The concurrent opinion of three of the five Directors shall be decisive on all matters relating to the concerns of the Society, not at variance with these fundamental Regulations, which can be altered only by a majority of the Members residing in Bombay. No question, however, shall be proposed to the Members at large without the concurrence of the whole of the Directors. In case of the death or removal from Bombay of any of the Directors, another or others shall be chosen by a majority of the Members of the Society then residing in Bombay, or by a majority of such members residing in Bombay as may attend at a general meeting to be convened for that purpose.

11th. A meeting of the Directors of the Society shall be convened annually between the 1st of January and 13th April in each year, when a Statement of the Accounts of the Society shall be laid before them by the Secretaries, and no account, which shall once have been submitted to and passed by the Directors at such meeting not less than three then attending, shall afterwards be called in question, unless for some special and manifest error to the amount of five hundred Rupees or upwards.

12th. In the election of Directors as well as on all other questions relative to the concerns of the Society, which may be proposed for the decision of the Members at large, a Member holding four shares on any one Life shall be entitled to three votes, one holding three shares to two votes and holding any number of shares less than three to one vote only. Members holding shares on different lives shall be entitled to the number of votes proportioned to the number of shares which they hold on each life.

13th. Messrs. W. Nicol and Co. shall officiate as Secretaries and Treasurers to the Society, and shall charge a Commission of two and a half per cent. on all receipts of subscriptions to be paid out of the funds of the Society, and they shall charge a fee of one Bombay Rupee on each Certificate of admission, and one Rupee for the Register of each assignment of share or reduction of interest.

And the Directors shall in all instances be at full liberty to reject any such application without assigning any reason to the applicant for so doing.

17th. In all cases it shall rest with the Committee to judge whether with reference to the circumstances of situation and distance, the interval which may elapse between the date of any certificate and affidavit of health, and the time of their presentment be reasonable or otherwise, and to admit or reject such certificate and affidavit accordingly. In no case, however, is the party subscribing to have any claim on the funds of the late Society in the event of the life lapsing between the date of the certificate and the date on which the applicant may be admitted a Member, unless where the Directors may at the instance of such applicant have originally permitted the subscription to take effect from the date of the certificate and affidavit of health, which it shall at all times be in their discretion to do, on the agree of subscription being paid up. 19th. All subscriptions (except the first which is to be paid on admission, shall be paid within one month of the time at which they become due. If not paid within that time, a penalty of two per cent. on the amount of the instalment shall be added and any Member who shall not have paid his subscription together with the said penalty within two months of the day on which the subscription shall have become due, shall be considered to have absolutely and entirely forfeited his share or shares.

20th. Any Member shall be at liberty at any time, to pay up his subscription for the whole unexpired period between the time of such payment and the close of the Society, or for any part thereof, and in the event of a lapse of the life subscribed on, such Member or his representatives shall be entitled to receive back any part of the subscription money so paid up, which would not have been due at the time of the lapse taking place, forfeiting, however, to the Society all interest which may have intermediately accrued thereon.

21st. No subsequent increase of shares on any life shall be allowed except on fresh application to be again approved of by the Directors and accompanied by a certificate and affidavit as above. The subscription on the additional shares to be according to the age of the party at the time of making the new application.

22nd. Any member desiring to transfer his interest in any share, or shares which he may hold in the Society, shall be at liberty to do so by an endorsement to be written on the original certificate, which endorsement shall not be valid until the certificate bearing the same shall have been produced to the Secretaries and the transfer duly registered by them in a general book of registry to be kept in the office of the Society.

23d. As often as a sum exceeding Rupees one thousand shall be collected, it shall be laid out in the purchase of Government paper, Bank shares, or in Loans secured by a deposit of Government paper to be granted under the control and authority of the Directors, it being clearly understood that in all cases of Loan the saleable value of the Deposit shall be more than sufficient to cover the sum lent. All public securities purchased for the Society shall be especially endorsed to three or more of the Directors, and the interest only shall be made payable to the Secretaries and Treasurers.

24th. The person or persons entitled to benefit by the lapse of a Life in this Society shall on making application to the Secretaries, in writing, accompanied by such proof of the casualty as may be satisfactory to a majority of the Directors, at the expiration of 3 years from the commencement of the Society receive the sum of four thousand Rupees on each share, two thousand Rupees on each half share, or one thousand Rupee on each quarter share, which he or they may have held, or be entitled to on the lapsed Life, provided that in the opinion of the Directors, the state of the Funds of the Society will admit of so large a payment being made. Should the Directors think however, that the Funds will not allow of an immediate payment of this amount, then such sum only shall be advanced as they may deem proper, and the balance of the prescribed advance shall be paid so soon as the Directors shall be of opinion that the Funds will safely admit of it.

25th. Arrears of subscription or any other sum due to the Society by the holders of any share or shares on a lapsed Life shall be deducted from the amount of the advance.

26th. At the expiration of this Society on the 31st December 1843, it is proposed that a new Society, on a similar plan, but subject to such alterations as experience may suggest, shall be immediately instituted, into which Society all Members then holding shares on unexpired Lives in the Third Laudable Society shall be at liberty to transfer those shares without any renewed certificate of health, in consideration of a sum of money to be paid to such new Society, out of the Fund of Third Laudable Society and without taking into account any proportion of the advances previously paid by the society on account of the lapsed Lives, to entitle Members of the Third Laudable Society to transfer the shares held by them into the ensuing or Fourth Laudable Society, no regular form of application shall be necessary, but a certificate of admission into the new society shall be immediately issued to them on the simple payment of the usual half year's subscription in advance, subject, however, to the established penalty of two per Cent. in the event of the payment being delayed beyond the term of one month, from the commencement of the new Society and to the entire forfeiture of the privilege to transfer (excepting on a new application to the Directors, accompanied by the regular certificate of health, &c. if not made good within the second month from that period. The rates of subscription for Members transferring their shares from the Third to the Fourth Laudable Society shall be according to the respective ages of the parties on whose lives the shares are held on the first January 1844.

27th. It is proposed to render the institution of the Laudable Society permanent by establishing a new Society, in succession to each Society as it expires.

28th. Upon the transfer to the Fourth Laudable Society of any shares in the third Laudable Society, which may stand assigned by endorsement or otherwise, for the benefit of any other person or persons than the person or persons originally interested therein, or upon any subsequent transfer of any share or shares so assigned from the third or any succeeding Society, to the Society next ensuing, such share or shares shall continue in all respects, subject to the lieu of the Assignee, and shall be declared to stand for the benefit of such Assignee in the certificate of admission to be issued from the new Society.

29th. Within one month and fifteen days after its termination, the accounts of the Laudable Society shall be made up and the balance of Funds actually on hand, after deducting for the new Society 12 per cent, on the amount of subscriptions received during the term of the Society, be divided by the number of shares held on Lives subscribed upon in this Society which may have lapsed between its commencement and its close, and the party entitled to benefit by such lapses shall each receive his or their proportion of the said Funds, according to the number of shares respectively held by them on the several lapsed Lives, the holders of half or quarter shares divided according to those fractional proportions. The "sum of Rs. 10,000 shall be considered as the maximum payable on any one lapsed share and any surplus shall be carried to the credit of the Society."

30th. With respect to any lapses of Lives in this Society which may not be ascertained on or prior to the 15th of February 1839, such lapses shall be at the risk of the next ensuing or third Laudable Society, and the Advances of Dividends to which the parties claiming to benefit by such lapses may be entitled, shall be paid out of the Funds, and agreeably to the Regulations of the said ensuing Society on the lapses being ascertained; but it is hereby expressly provided with respect to any lapses which may have occurred at any place to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope, that notice of such lapses accompanied by satisfactory proof of the same must be given to the Secretaries of the fourth Laudable Society within one year from the expiration of the third Society on the 31st Dec. 1843, or within two years if the lapse have occurred in Europe or elsewhere, beyond the Cape of Good Hope and that in the event of the party or parties interested neglecting to prefer his or their claim on account of any such lapse within the period here prescribed, he or they shall entirely forfeit all right and title to any benefit whatever, by reason of such lapse from the funds of the third or any succeeding Society.

31st. The following gentlemen have this day been nominated Directors of the Third Laudable Society, viz.

CHARLES FORBES Esq.

G. FARIE Esq.

F. M. DAVIDSON, Esq.

WILLIAM FRITH. Esq.

Any mis-statement in the Affidavit of health makes the Policy void as does suicide in cases when a person effects an Insurance on his own life, (unless the Certificate be specially endorsed over, for the benefit of Creditors and duly registered) but not so in case of Creditors effecting an insurance of the lives of their debtors.

The Directors of this Society have caused investigation to be made with great care into the existing Institutions for Life Assurance, &c. &c., and they trust they have been fortunate in selecting from each what, as a whole, will place their Establishment on the most judicious and satisfactory footing both to the Proprietors and the Assured. They request particular attention to the rates, which being founded on the most accurate observations of the duration of human life, are as moderate as is consistent with perfect security.

The plan of this Society is to transact all its business on such terms as to leave, in all human probability a small, but certain excess of profit on the general result of its transactions. A small portion of that profit is set apart as a compensation to the Proprietors who have advanced the Capital necessary for defraying the unavoidable expense of the Institution, and who have pledged the subscribed amount of their Capital in order to afford that responsibility which relieves the Assured from any contingency of loss to which they might be liable without the intervention of such a guarantee.

Advantages offered by this Society.

The profits are declared in each year, on the second Wednesday in May, on which date all Persons assured in the Society for the whole term of life, whose Policies have been in existence five complete years are entitled to participate.

The practice of an annual division, as observed by Mr. Babbage, "distributes the profits with more regularity and justice than any other," and it is especially advantageous to persons of advanced years, who cannot hope to participate in many septennial or decennial divisions.

One-fifth of the ascertained profits of the five preceding years is divided between the Policy-holders, and Share-holders,—three-fourths to the former, and one-fourth to the latter. The remaining four-fifths are set apart to enter into the average of the succeeding years, and thus to provide against unforeseen contingencies.

The first division of profits was declared on the 13th May 1840, in London, and on the 15th August in India, amounting to a reduction of 60 per cent, on the annual premium of all policies entitled to participation.

The following table will shew the operation of the reduction made by the Society.

Age when Policy was issued.	Date of Policy.	Sum Assured.	Original Premium.	Reduction.	Annual Premium payable in 1840.
20	May 1835.	Co's. Rs. 10,000	Rs. 420	Rs. 252	Rs. 168
30	"	" 10,000	" 480	" 288	" 192
40	"	" 10,000	" 590	" 354	" 236
50	"	" 10,000	" 740	" 444	" 296
60	"	" 10,000	" 1,030	" 618	" 412

This system of reduction in the Premiums affords immediate benefit to the Assured, or enables them to secure a considerable bonus by effecting a new Policy.

Separate tables, both Civil and Military, have been adopted for the whole of life, at reduced rates for such persons as may prefer a lower rate of Premium to participation in the general profits.

The Society makes a natural distinction between persons exposed to the hazards of Military and Maritime occupations, and those whose occupations are of a Civil nature; but Members of the Military Service holding offices purely Civil, and subject to no extra risk, will be charged the Civil rate of premium only while engaged in duties purely Civil. It will be in the discretion of the Directors in each particular case to say whether the higher or the lower rate of premium shall be chargeable, and that discretion will be regulated by the particular circumstances of the case.

When application is made for assuring a life subject to more than ordinary hazard, and augmented Premium will be charged proportionate to the increased risk, the rate of which will be regulated by the strictest attention to justice between the Society and the Assured, according to circumstances.

Premiums are ordinarily payable half yearly in advance; but Policy-holders are at liberty to make arrangements with the Society to pay their premiums in one amount, in annual or quarterly payments, or for a given number of years, viz:—5, 10, 15, or 20. Some persons may wish to avail themselves of a present season of prosperity, and adopt the latter course, in which case (although their contributions will cease with the expiration of the term they may fix upon) their share of the profits will continue to be added to their Policies annually during the remainder of life.

The Parent institution being in London, with a similar Establishment in Calcutta for granting Policies, Premiums, as well as claims are payable in either country at the option of the Policy-holder. The appointment of Sub-Committees at Madras and Bombay with power to grant Policies, affords similar facilities to persons residing at either of the sister Presidencies.

All Policies becoming claims on the Society will be discharged within three months after satisfactory proof of the death, and cause of death, of the Assured shall have been furnished to the Directors either in London or Calcutta.

The Directors of the Indian Branch of the Society are empowered to treat for the purchase of Policies on which Premium shall have been paid for a period of not less than five years, or to advance, if required, on such Policies, by way of loan, two-thirds of the estimated value.

The accounts of this Society, after being investigated by Auditors, chosen as well by the Assured as by the Proprietors, are laid before General Meetings convened twice a year for that purpose:—In like manner the accounts of the Parent Society are regularly transmitted to India for inspection, the Indian Branch enjoying reciprocal advantages with the Parent Society.

Where the application for Assurance makes no mention of the date from which the Assurance is desired to take effect, the Policy will be issued on the date of approval of the risk by the Directors, but no Assurance to be binding on the Society until the first Premium shall have been actually paid to the Agents.

Every proposal for Assurance will be immediately attended to, and the Assurance completed generally within a few days after the application is made.

All applications for Assurance must be accompanied by a Medical Fee of Eight Rupees.

The Tables, Blank Forms, and other particulars requisite to enable persons to effect Assurances, may be had on application to the Agents.

By Order of the Directors.

V. Parties who obtain the settlement of losses from Fire are not thereby deprived of their right to participate in the profits of the Company.

VI. Losses by Lightning will be made good.

VII. The extended scale on which the Society is formed, gives rise to the expectation, that the profits to be divided, will be large.

On houses in the Bazar, outside the Fort, 15 annas per cent. per annum.

On cadjanned Bungalows within a compound, and separated from the Cook Room, Rs. 2 per cent per annum, or if temporary Bungalows, for the fair Season.

On goods hazardous, 16 annas per cent. per annum, on property for a shorter period.

1. It is incumbent on every person desiring Assurance from Fire to describe clearly the construction of the building to be assured, or containing the property to be assured according to the distinctions noted above, also, to state the nature of the goods, or other property, of which Assurance is proposed; and whether there be any Stove, Coakel, Furnace or other implement for producing fire heat by which the risk may be in any degree increased. After an assurance shall

When a party applies to pay premiums in London for a continuance, he shall be required to state if he wishes to continue his policy in Rupees, in which case the premiums are to be received in such an amount as will purchase a Bill of the East India Company for the amount of premium due in Calcutta, according to the terms of the policy—or should he be entitled to be reduced to the English rate, the premium must still be calculated in Rupees and received in Sterling money according to the Exchange of the day.

The preferable course is for the party to leave the Policy at the office to be endorsed as covering a certain sum of Sterling money, to be calculated at the rate of 3s. the Rupee, after which the premium will always be received in Sterling money without reference to the state of the Exchange.

have been effected, it is necessary for the Assured to communicate immediately to the Company any alteration which may subsequently be made in the buildings, or in the description of the goods deposited, or of the trade or process carried on in them; and if any of these changes increase the risk which has been assigned in every other respect to be perfectly explicit in their communication with the Directors, as any omission or misrepresentation vitiates the policy.

II. No claim will be allowed for loss occasioned by the invasion of a foreign enemy, by civil commotion, or by any military power; all Assurances on property in foreign countries are to be suspended during the continuance of any such invasion or civil commotion.

III. Books of Accounts, written Securities, Bills, Bonds, ready money. Tallies, and Gunpowder, are not to be held assured by any policy granted by this Company.

IV. No description of property is to be considered insured by any policy unless specially mentioned in such policy.

V. Assurances made with other Companies on property assured by this Company, must be noticed either in or by indorsement upon the policies granted by this Company. Persons neglecting to notify such assurances with other Companies, will forfeit their right of recovery on this Company.

VI. No Assurance proposed to this Company is to be considered in force, until the premium be paid.

VIII. If property assured by the Company should pass by death, assignment, or otherwise, into new hands the interest in the policy may be preserved to the successor, provided succession be allowed at the office, by indorsement on the policy and if the goods assured be removed to a new situation, the Assurance may be continued by indorsement on the Policy; an extra premium will be charged if the risk be increased by the removal.

VIII. If any loss or damage by fire, be sustained on property assured with this Company, the person assured is forthwith to give notice of such loss or damage at the Company's office, as soon as possible after within three months at the utmost, deliver into the Company an exact account of the particulars and amount of such loss or damage, as the nature of the case may admit. If it be required, such account shall be supported by the oath or affirmation of the party assured; by the attention of a certificate of some persons who reside within the parish, or in the immediate neighbourhood of the sufferer, and who may be competent witnesses as to the character of the Assured and to the fairness of the claim and further by the production of such books, documents, or vouchers, as may appear necessary. If there be found to be any false swearing, or if it shall appear that the fire shall have been occasioned by any wilful act or connivance on his part, the policy in such case shall be void, and the right of recovery forfeited.

IX. In every case of loss, the Company will reserve to itself the right of reinsurance, in preference to the payment of claims, if it shall judge the former course to be most expedient.

X. If any difference shall arise with respect to the amount of any claim for loss or damage by fire and no fraud be suspected, such difference shall be submitted to arbitrators, indifferently chosen, whose award or that of their umpire shall be conclusive.

Persons desirous of making Assurances for seven years, by one payment, will be charged for six years only.

In annual Assurances, the premium will be calculated for the day on which the Assurance is proposed for one year. On Assurances for less than a year the premium will be reduced. In case of short period Assurances the policies will absolutely cease at sick o'clock in the evening of the day specified in the policies.

No Acknowledgments for the assurances, taken will be issued except such as are on printed forms, and witnessed by one of the clerks or agents of the Company.

Buildings on which Assurances are proposed will be surveyed free of any expense of the party if required.

BENEFITS TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Provision under the guarantee of Government for the Maintenance, Education, and Establishment in life, for their Children, on their decease, or removal to Europe.

Admission to these Benefits of the Asylum at a small Monthly Payment, during the parent's residence in India, an advantage of peculiar value to the Soldier on his being left a Widower, or on the Corps to which he may belong being ordered on Field Service.

This small Monthly Payment will be found very trifling when compared with the sum each Child costs the Asylum Monthly, and the comforts which are provided for them of clothing diet, and medical aid.

The average Monthly Expense to the Asylum for each Child is calculated at 15 Rupees.

Clothing for each Boy is kept up at the following proportions—White Shirts 3, Sleeping Drawers 2, Trowsers 5, Jackets 1, Flannel Banyans 2, Cotton Banyans, 2, Cloth Caps 1, Towels 2, Pillow Cases 2, Blankets 1, Quilts 2 and 3 Carpets, for 2 Boys, for little boys Nankin frocks 5, For each Girl Frocks, 5, Flannel Petticoats 1, Day shifts 5, Night shifts 2, Stays 2, Tippets 2, Bathing Towels 4, Pocket Handkerchiefs 2, Sheets 4, Caps 2, Workbags 1, Blanket 1, and 3 Carpets for 2 Girls. Banyan 1 for little Girls.

The Children are allowed to visit their parents, and friends from the 15th December to the 18th January annually.

Leave of absence can only be obtained at other times by special application through the Secretary, for Girls to the Ladies, and for boys, to the Managing Committee.

* Printed Forms are supplied by the Secretary to Staff Officers of Corps, &c. for the above purpose.

The Ladies', and Managing Committees, meet respectively on the first and second Saturday in every Month.

Subscribers must apply for the Admission of their Children either personally to the Committee, who meet Monthly as stated above, or through their Commanding Officer.

The documents necessary to be produced are a certificate of the Child's age, and baptism, and a nominal Roll according to form specified stating the date of the last receipt of Government allowance.

All payments will be collected by the Paymaster and remitted to the Secretary regularly.

Those who desire to Subscribe should signify their wish through the proper channel to the Adjutant of their Corps who will insert their names in the monthly returns of Subscribers to the Asylum.

The channels open to the Institution for the Establishing the Children respectably in life are both numerous and most advantageous.

The Steam Engineers' Department,
The Medical ditto.
Government Offices.
Schoolmasters,
Bands of Regiments,
Printing, and other Trades.

The Committee has thus every facility of placing each child in situations for which he seems most suited, so numerous indeed are they, that they are unable to meet the applications made to them.

Every Girl admitted into the School as a whole boarder at the entire expense of the Society, is to be considered as bound to remain there, subject to the pleasure of the Committee until she attains her sixteenth year. In case, however, of the Parent, Guardian or Friend of any Girl on the foundation wishing to withdraw her from the Asylum previous to that time, with the view of otherwise providing for her, the same shall be signified from the party by a letter to the Secretary, who will communicate the circumstance to the Directresses; and should they be satisfied that the provision proposed, is better than that designed by the Institution, the child may accordingly be delivered to the Parent, Guardian, or Friend, making the application.

PUBLIC BUILDING ON THE MAHA-BULBESHWAR HILLS.

1st. The houses erected by Government for the accommodation of sick officer and their families at the convalescent station on the Mahabuleshwur Hills, are placed under the control and superintendence of the Medical Officer of the station to whom all applications for Quarters are to be addressed officially in writing.

2d. Each applicant is directed to state distinctly the description of quarters he desires to occupy, the period for which he requires them, and whether he is proceeding on medical certificate. These applications will be held, and complied with in the order of their dates; preference being given, however, to the claims of officers on medical certificate, and their sick families.

3rd. Officers not on medical certificate, will be permitted to occupy quarters in the Sanatorium, on condition of their being vacated when required for the accommodation of sick officers.

4th. Each applicant will incur the penalty of a month's rent, who may decline on their being offered to him, to occupy such quarters as he may have applied for unless he shall have withdrawn his name from the Roll a month; previous to the time at which he had intimated his intention of occupying them.

5th. No house can be hired for a shorter period than one month, and the tenant shall give a fortnight's notice to the Superintendent, of his intention to vacate his quarters under forfeiture of half a month's rent.

6th. No private transfer of quarters by the tenant is permitted, to the prejudice of the regular succession by the Superintendent's List.

7th. Any tenant who does not occupy his house within a month after engaging it shall be considered as having forfeited all further claim to it, provided there is any other applicant on the list.

8th. The rate of the house rent is regulated to the extent of the accommodation and ranges from (25) twenty five to (90) Ninety Rupees a month; the quarters of the lowest rent consisting of two rooms with out-houses attached.

9th. The amount of Rent due by officers of the Army or Indian Navy, will be deducted from their monthly abstracts by the Public Officers from whom they draw Pay; that due by other persons in the public Service is to be paid in cash to the Officer in charge of the Station, on the first of each month, if deducted by him from the amount of advances on account of Pay made to them from the treasure chest under his charge, and that due by persons not in the public Service, is to be paid in cash in like manner, under or by his Bill payable in Bombay, in favour of the Officer in charge of the Buildings, who will transmit it to the General Pay Master for recovery.

10th. The tenant will be held responsible for all damages or destruction of quarter by fire or otherwise.

11th. On the first of each month the Superintendent's Native Agent will inspect all the houses, and report any damages that may have taken place, and should this not be immediately repaired by the tenant, the Government contractor will be directed to repair them at the expence of the tenant, who will not be entitled in such case to object to the contractor's Bill, if countersigned by the Superintendent. All disputes between tenants and the contractor regarding petty damages occurring during their occupancy, are to be referred to the Superintendent to whose decision the parties are to submit.

THE SERVICES OF THE BOMBAY EUROPEAN REGIMENT.

Bombay, originally a Portuguese settlement, was ceded to the Crown of Great Britain on the marriage of His Majesty Charles II. to the Infanta of Portugal; the 11th article of the treaty then entered into provided that a regiment of 500 soldiers should constantly be kept at Bombay for the protection of His Catholic Majesty's late subjects. In accordance with this a regiment was raised (it is said at Tilbury) by Sir Abraham Shipman, and being embarked on board a fleet of men-of-war arrived at its destination 18th Sept., 1662; but the Portuguese Viceroy refusing to include in the cession the adjacent islands of Salsette and Bassein, Bombay was not taken possession of till Nov. 1664. Early in 1668 His Majesty Charles II., at the solicitation of the East India Company, granted the island of Bombay to them, conditionally that they should fulfil the provisions of the 11th article of the treaty of 1661, for the performance of which the British nation was pledged. To enable them to do this, letters patent passed the Great Seal of England the 27th March, 1668, raising Bombay to the dignity of a Presidency, and empowering the East India Company to make peace and war, to entertain officers and soldiers as a garrison for the island, to dismiss officers and soldiers, and to execute martial law. Permission was also granted to the troops then on the island belonging to His Majesty to enter the said Company's Service. On the 21st September 1668, the Commissioners appointed by the Company received charge of the island, and the whole of the officers and soldiers then forming His Majesty's "Bombay Regiment" entered the service of the East India Company, subsequent to which it has performed or shared the following services:—

1720.—A detachment was actively employed in the country of Toolajee Angria, where it engaged and defeated the Army of that powerful piratical prince.

1734.—The Tellicherry companies, reinforced from the head quarters of the reg. took possession of the island and fort of Dhurmapattam, in the province of Canara; and in the following year, in conjunction with the Dutch, took several small forts from the Canarese; and in September, 1736, were engaged in the siege of Nelleseran.

1747.—A detachment of the reg., consisting of 300 men, under Capt. Andrews, was sent to the Coromandel coast to join the Madras Army, and was detached from the head-quarters for upwards of three years, during which period it assisted in the defence of Cuddalore, when it was unsuccessfully attacked by the French on the night of the 16th June, 1748, in the siege of Pondicherry, under Admiral Boscawen, and in the siege and assault of Devi-cottah, under Major Lawrence, in 1749.

1754.—From June, 1754, to November in the following year a detachment of 400 men, under Captain Forbes, was employed in the Carnatic with a Madras force under Major Lawrence, which defeated the combined French and Mysore Army under Mons. Maisin.

1756.—In the year 1756 one part of the reg. was embarked for service on board Admiral Watson's fleet for the reduction of Viziadroog, whilst another shared in the assault of Gheriah, under Col. Clive.

1756.—On the capture of Calcutta by the Nabob Suraja Dowlah, a detachment of the reg., consisting of 400 men, under Capts. Buchanan and Armstrong was despatched on board Com. James' fleet, to assist in its recovery: joining the main Army under Col. Clive in March, the detachment shared in the capture of Chandernagore on the 15th March, and on the 23d June participated in the brilliant victory of "Plassey," in which Col. Clive with 1200 Europeans (being part of H. M.'s 39th and detachments of the Madras and Bombay European Regts.) and 2000 Native Troops, in an action of nine hours' duration, defeated and put to flight Suraja Dowlah's Army of 68,000 men.

1759.—A very large detachment of the Reg., under Capt. Lane, assisted by 1500 Irregular Sepoys, took the Castle of Surat by escalade on the 5th March, with a large loss of officers and men.

1760.—A Company of the reg., under Capt. Gore, served at the siege of Pondicherry, and the capitulation of Mahé under Col. Coote in August.

1763.—A detachment of 270 men, under Capt. Premble, was embarked for Bengal in October, and arriving at Calcutta early in the following year (1764) was in February sent up to Bahar, to join the main Army under Major Munro which, on the 23d of October, at Buxar, defeated the combined Armies of Sujaul-Dowla, and Cossim Ali Khan, with great slaughter. This detachment also co-operated at the storming of Chunar, and at the siege of Allahabad.

A detachment of the the reg. was present co-operating with the Army of Madras at the sieges of Madura and Palamcottah.

1765.—A wing of the reg. formed nearly half of a force that proceeded to the Southern Concan, under Major Govin, when they captured by assault the forts of Sunderdroo, Rairee, and Vingoria. During the following year two companies of the reg. assisted by 200 Natives, retook the East India Company's sloop-of-war Euphrates, and a lugger which had been captured by the Coolies, at that period most formidable foes.

1766.—Immediately succeeding the foregoing, a detachment of the reg. embarked for the Gulf of Persia, to assist the Persian Army under Khurreem Khan, which was descending upon the Chaub Arabs, then encamped on the banks of the Euphrates.

1768.—Early in the year Major Govin with 500 men of the reg. and 1300 Sepoys, co-operated with the Madras Army against the possessions of Hyder Ali, and arriving at Mangalore the 26th Feb. the Octagon Fort and the Fort of Mangalore were severally taken by assault parties of the Bombay Reg. under Capts. Boys and Jackson. During the 15th and 16th March the detachment of the reg., with 100 Natives in front of the Mangalore works, repulsed the whole Mysore Army in their repeated charges led by Tippoo Sahib in person, and on the latter day the Grenadier company of the reg. alone charged and captured two guns from the centre of the Mysorean line which numbered 10,000 men. The Fort of Hanowar was captured by storm by Capt. Jackson, with a detachment of the reg. and 100 Natives, on the 25th March.

1771.—In January a detachment of 250 men, with 700 Sepoys under Col. Gordon, was employed against the Coolies of Surat; in the storm of Toolajee, redoubt at Sultanpore, by the two Grenadier companies, and subsequently in the reduction of several towns in the Cooly country. In October of the following year the same detachment, completed to a wing, under Col. Gordon, accompanied a force under Brigadier-General Wedderburn, for the reduction of Broach: the fort was captured by storm on the 18th of November, on which day the Brigadier fell mortally wounded, and the Bombay Reg., which led the column of attack, had six officers and 48 men killed and wounded.

1774.—In December, the Bombay Reg. was employed, under Brigadier-General Gordon, at the siege of Tannah, which was captured by assault on the 28th. During the 15 days the Troops were before the place the Bombay Reg. lost 118 men.

1775. Early in the year a detachment of 500 men of the Bombay Reg., under Col. Keating, joined a force of 1,000 men destined to assist Ragoba the Peishwar in Guzerat: this force defeated the Ministerial Army of 70,000 men at Hossamlee the 27th April, at Daboane on the 7th May, and at Arras on the 18th; in the latter the Grenadier companies of the Bombay Reg., with two companies of the Madras European Reg. in attempting the execution of an order to capture the enemy's guns from the centre of their line, and protected by a large body of horse and war elephants, were almost entirely sacrificed, although supported by the remaining companies of the Bombay Reg. the total loss being 8 officers and 73 men killed, and 7 officers and 79 men wounded.

1778.—The latter end of November, 500 men of the Bombay Reg., under Lieut.-Col Cay. formed part of the force which, under Brigadier-General Egeron, under took the disastrous campaign against Poona; in the subsequent retreat between Tulligoom and Worgaam, which occupied 19 hours, the Bombay Reg., under Major Frederick, formed the rear-guard, and lost, besides its Lieutenant-Colonel Cay, one officer, and 54 men killed and 10 officers and 45 men wounded.

1780.—A detachment of 300 men of the Bombay Reg. joined General Goddard's Bengal force at Surat early in the year, and was present at the capture of Dabhoi; on the 20th January, and at the siege of the fortified city of Ahmedabad, at the assault of which on the 15th February the Bombay Regt. furnished the forlorn hope, and led the column of attack; the leader of the former, Serjt, Hugh Fridge, and the colour bearer of the latter, Ens. Hierne, were promoted to the respective rank of Ensign and Lieutenant by the Bombay Government. In the attack on the Mahratta camp, on the nights of the 2d and 19th April, at Kimloulé, the Bombay Reg. again led the columns of attack. The whole of the Bombay detachment being recalled, quitted General Goddard's camp early in May, and was then employed in the Northern Concan under Lieut. Col. Hartley, at the capture of Callian,—the relief of the same place when besieged by the Mahrattas, and in constant engagements until the arrival of General Goddard's force in November, for the siege of Bassein, when the Bombay detachment formed the covering force, which for six weeks defeated the unceasing efforts of the two best Mahratta Generals to throw succour into the besieged town. After the fall of Bassein, the Bombay regiment accompanied Gen. Goddard's force to Khandallah, and in concert with the 1st Battalion of the 2d Madras European Reg., led the column of attack which forced the fortified Bhore (Ghaut) mountain, the 8th January, 1781. The General maintained the position of Khandallah for six weeks, against the Mahratta Army of 70,000 men; and during the subsequent retreat between Chowke and Panwell, in the following April; the Bombay with the Madras European Regiment formed the rear-guard: in the 13 hours this retreat occupied the loss of the division was 586 men killed and wounded.

A detachment of the Bombay Reg. formed part of the force under Maj. Abington, which defended the fortified lines of Tellicherry, against the Mysore Army; from the 25th April, 1781, to the 8th January, 1782; on which latter day, Maj. Abington having received a reinforcement, marched out at the head of 3 Battalions of Sepoys led by two companies of the Bombay Reg., and attacking every part of Suddur Khan's entrenched camp, in 3 hours was in entire possession capturing 52 pieces of ordnance, 1500 prisoners, and innumerable stores.

1783. The Bombay Regiment, under Lieut. Colonel Jackson, next formed part of Brigadier General Matthews' Force, which landing at Rajahmundry, immediately took that fort by storm; the fort of Onore on the 6th January, and the fort of Candapoor on the 15th. In these three storms Bombay Reg. had the honour of leading; subsequently the Light Infantry of the Bombay Reg., with 300 Sepoys, forced a passage at the point of the bayonet through the great Husinghurry Ghaut, defended by a succession of barriers and the élite of Tippoo's Army: the whole force then advanced upon Bednore on the walls of which—then considered—impregnable fortress, the detachment of the Bombay Reg. had the honour of first planting their colours. The reg. subsequently shared in the disasters of this force, many officers and men being sacrificed in Tippoo's prison. A company of the reg. was also attached to Colonel Campbell's force in its gallant defence of Mangalore; and another small detachment in the equally gallant defence of Onore, under Captain Torrijano.

1784.—The Bombay Reg. being greatly reduced by continued service was recalled to Bombay in 1784, leaving the whole of its efficient force in the garrison of Tellicherry, having been largely recruited, in September, 1788, it was formed into 2 regiments, and Major-General Abercrombie, the Commander-in-chief of the Bombay Army, appointed its Colonel-in-chief. In January of the following year, the first reg. relieved the 2d at Tellicherry.

1790.—The 1st Bombay Regiment participated in most of the minor services in Malabar in the intermediate period of its arrival at Tellicherry, and its junction with the Army assembled under Major-General Abercrombie in December, 1790. In the action before Cannanore on the 15th December, the flank companies of the reg. were in the Left Brigade which under Lieut.-Colonel Peché stormed and took the fortified heights of Curleg; the result of this action was the unconditional surrender of Tippoo's Army and the forts of Cannanore and Belliapattam, 18 standards and 5,000 stand of arms. Almost simultaneous with the foregoing operations, the 2d Bombay Reg., under Colonel Frederick, was engaged in the siege of Dharwar, in the province of Berjapoor, from whence in April, 1791, it returned to Bombay.

1791.—In the commencement of the year the 1st Bombay Regiment was with Major Abercrombie's force employed in opening a communication through the Coorg country, to co-operate with the grand Army under Lord Cornwallis against the capital of Mysore: having penetrated as far as Periapattam, the Army fell back to its old quarters in May. In December the force again took the field under its old leader, and effected a junction with the grand Army under Lord Cornwallis before Seringapatam early in February; on the 22d of this month, the 1st Bombay Reg., with the old 2d battalion of Sepoys, performed the most brilliant exploit of the campaign, capturing and retaining possession of "The Grove" under the walls of the fort, though with a loss of 104 men. On the cessation of hostilities the following day the force returned to the coast; the 1st Bombay Reg. being cantoned at Cannanore, where it was generally actively employed, until its relief in December, 1794, by the 2nd regiment, when it returned to Bombay.

1795.—During the year 1795, a detachment from the 2d Bombay Reg. was employed with the force at Cochin, and another under Major Anderson, in the Cotiole country. The two regiments having been reformed into one in July 1796, the 1st division, in 1797, joined the 2d in Malabar. In May the reformed part of a force under Lieut.-Colonel Dow, which took the field against the forts of Toddicullum and Cotanghurry, and subsequently cantoned at Tellicherry.

1799.—In May, 1799, the Bombay Reg. joined the force assembled under Lieut. General Stuart, and shared in the siege of Seringapatam on the ramparts of which citadel its colour were the first planted by Serj. Graham of the Light Company who led the forlorn hope. The regiment after its return from Seringapatam continued to be employed in the malabar province until 1803, when it returned to the Presidency; subsequently it was employed in Guzerat, under Col. Walker, in the attack and capture of several small fortresses, and subduing many predatory chieftains. In 1809 at Mallia, the Bombay Reg. bore a conspicuous part, and at the storm its loss was proportionally severe, including three officers.

1817.—In 1817, the Bombay Reg. was engaged in the battle of Kirkee, and the subsequent operations in the Deccan, under Sir Lionel Smith.

1821.—In 1821, the Bombay Reg. was employed in Arabia; at Zore on the night attack on the lines by the Wahabee Arabs, on the 12th February; and likewise at the action of Beni-boo-alli, on the 2d March.

1823.—A detachment under Lieutenant Bell was employed as Marines on board the frigate Hastings throughout the Burmese war.

1824.—In 1824, the regiment was again re-formed into two, and the first proceeding to the Southern Mahratta country, joined the force under Col. Deacon, and shared in the attack and capture of the town and fortress of Kittoor, in December. Finally the 2d Reg. having been again joined in 1830, participated in the attack and capture of Aden, on the coast of South Arabia on the 19th January, 1839.

Many of the services here enumerated (important themselves) have acquired a higher renown in the history of Indian warfare, from having been the means of obtaining from the Bengal Government for those of its own corps engaged, the following badges of honorary distinction, Plassey, Buxar, Guzerat, Carnatic, Mysore.

No. 360. The pay of the European Troops at the three Presidencies having been assimilated and the Government of India having authorized the issue of the same in arrear, agreeably to the practice observed under the Bengal Presidency, the following rules are laid down for the gradual accomplishment of that object.

The pay of the European Commissioned Officers of the Company's Service will be paid in arrear in conformity with instructions issued to Pay-masters under the decision of Government, dated the 8th February 1838, namely—All Officers entering on returning to the service from Europe and all those promoted, will not be allowed to draw net pay in advance. The period fixed for the commencement of this arrangement was the 1st February 1838, a reference to the date of the Officers arrival in, or return to this Country, or to that of the General Order announcing his promotion will enable the pay and audit departments to ascertain readily whether the pay of any Officer has or has not been thrown into arrear.

The pay of the European Soldiers of the Company's service arriving from Europe after the 1st May 1841, will be paid in arrear, and of the Non-commissioned Officers and Soldiers previously in the service, (though actually paid in advance) will be considered as paid in arrear from the above date and issued in every respect in the same manner as the pay of the Men drawing pay in arrear, with this exception, namely,—That when such men become casualties the pay overdraw shall be deducted from the abstract as at present.

Her Majesty's Troops, both Officers and Men of Regiments now on this establishment, and all who may hereafter join those Regiments from Europe or elsewhere will continue to draw pay in advance as at present, but those belonging to Regiments placed on this Establishment after the 1st May 1841, will draw pay in arrear.

The aggregate monthly amount of the pay and allowances of the Officers of the relieving Regiments will be precisely the same as that drawn by Company's Officers of corresponding ranks, the following Table shews the item included in the aggregate sum.

No. 436.—The Right Honorable the Governor in Council, with a view to a more complete assimilation of the rules of three Presidencies regarding the Regimental Pay and Allowances of the European Commissioned Officers of the Honorable Company's Service, is pleased to direct, that from the 1st day of October, next, they shall be drawn at the rates laid down in the following Tables, in which the total receipts in each rank correspond exactly with those now existing, the calculations having been made for a period of four years, in order to embrace a leap year.

In drawing arrears for broken periods for any month, they are to be calculated with reference to the number of days in the month, and agreeably to the monthly rates now laid down.

In abstracts for Garrison Pay and Allowances the different items composing the consolidated sum shewn in the Table A. need not be stated but for Officers not entitled to Territories, or for those entitled to only Half Tentage, the total of each in the Abstract must be reduced accordingly.

The House Rent of Officers living in Public Quarters and not entitled to that Allowance, is nevertheless to be included in the total, but the amount must be deducted on the face of the Abstract, and paymasters will give credit for the same in their Cash Accounts under the proper head. Separate Abstracts for additional Half Batta when in the Field, at a Full Batta station, or marching must as heretofore, invariably be made, and the amount drawn at the rate laid down in the second column in the Field Table B; and Staff Officers who receive it in virtue of their Staff Appointments, will draw it in their Staff Abstract.

Officers individually detached from Garrison Station on Court Martial, or their temporary duties which entitled them to both House Rent and Tentage, will, as heretofore, charge the full amount of half Batta in their Field Abstract.

Adjutants and Quarter Masters of Troops of Horse Artillery at Bombay, will be abolished as vacancies occur, and a Brigade Adjutant and Quarter Master in one person, appointed in the allowances above specified.

The Staff to the Brigade of Horse and Battalions of European Foot Artillery at Fort Saint George, and to the European Foot Artillery at Bombay, will, prospectively, as vacancies occur, merge into one Officer for each European Brigade and Battalion, (in conformity with the practice in Bengal) who will draw the allowances above specified.

The duties and emoluments of the Regimental Staff alluded to in the two preceding paragraphs, will remain unaffected until opportunities occur for effecting the proposed consolidation of their appointments.

The separate office of Interpreter to the European Regiment at Bombay, will also be abolished prospectively, and as at the other Presidencies, a Quarter Master and Interpreter, will be appointed on the Scale of allowances here indicated for the Office. In the meantime, the Quarter Master will continue to draw the same aggregate of emoluments as heretofore, but the same will in future be passed under the new heads herein detailed.

The additional Staff allowance of 30 Rupees a month, now granted at Bombay, to Quarter Masters and Interpreters of Native Infantry, and Native Artillery, when Interpreters of both the Hindoostanee and Mahratta Languages, will also be abolished prospectively, and in all future appointments, the nominee will draw staff pay at the new rate now assigned of 62 Rupees a month.

The present duties and emoluments of Interpreters of Her Majesty's Regiment of Dragoons and Infantry will both remain unaffected, but as vacancies occur, the separate Interpreterships, whenever existing in each Language, Hindoostanee and Maharatta, will merge into one for both Languages, on the allowances here stated. This rule will apply equally to the Interpreter of the European Regiment.

The allowance of 21 Rupees a month, granted at Fort Saint George, to the Adjutants of Corps, European and Native while in the Field or marching; for the carriage of Regimental Books of their own, and the Quarter Master's Department, will likewise be prospectively abolished, and the bonâ fide expenses incurred for those purposes, will be drawn when actually marching, as in Bengal.

Secy. to the Govt. of India, Mily. Department.

WARRANT REGULATING THE GRANTS OF UNATTACHED PAY, RETIRED FULL PAY, AND HALF PAY.

Dated 1st Oct. 1840.

VICTORIA R.—Whereas we have judged it expedient to revise, amend, and consolidate the Rules, orders and Regulations which have from time to time been established for granting unattached pay and other rates of pay to General Officers, and retired full pay and half pay to officers of our Army; Our will and pleasure is, that from and after the date hereof, this Our Warrant shall be considered the sole authority upon this subject.

Unattached Pay and other Rates of Pay to General Officers.

1. The number of General Officers upon unattached pay of one pound five shillings a day, not being in command of regiments, is limited to an establishment of 120 General officers.

2. The vacancies which may from time to time occur in this limited establishment, will be filled up by General Officers recommended to us by the General Commanding-in-Chief.

3. General Officers, being Colonels of regiments in the event of their regiments being reduced, may be placed, in the first instance, as Supernumeraries in the said establishments, but are to fall into the vacancies that may occur thereupon.

4. All Officers promoted to be General Officers shall whether on full pay or half pay at the time of promotion receive unattached pay at the rate of four hundred pounds per annum, or if Lieut. Colonels of Cavalry the net full pay of that rank, until elected to the establishment of unattached pay, at one pound five shillings a day or appointed to be Colonels of regiments;—provided such Officers shall have actually served upwards of six years with the rank of Regimental Major or Lieut. Colonel, either with a regiment or in some other Military capacity in the public service or having obtained the rank of Regimental Field Officers had been obliged to go upon half pay on account of reduction, or in consequence of ill health contracted in the Service, as established by the Report of a Board of Medical officers, or in consequence of wounds received in action, before he had served the six years above prescribed.

5. The benefit of this pay shall not be extended to any General Officer who, when he last went upon half pay had received the difference; nor to any officer who went upon half pay at his own request in time of war after having obtained the Brevet rank of Lieut. Colonel; nor to any officer who went upon half pay at his own request in time of peace before he had served six years with the rank of Regimental Field Officer.

Officers thus situated shall continue to receive the half pay only of which they were in the receipt at the time of their promotion to be General Officers.

6. Officers removed from their Commissions as Field Officers, in regiments of Foot Guards, in consequence of being promoted to be General Officers, shall receive unattached pay according to the following scale viz.—

Lieut.-Colonel.....	600 l. per annum.
Major.....	550 l. „

Retired Full Pay.

7. A limited establishment of retired full pay shall be formed and kept up according to the following scale.—

20 Lieut. Colonels at 17 s. a day each.
20 Majors, 16 s. „

115. Captains, whereof a number, not exceeding 45, may be Brevet Field Officers at 13*s.* 7*d.* a day each and the remainder Captains at 11*s.* 7*d.* a day each. Captains on the Retired List, at a lower rate of pay, are not to be transferred to the new scale, except on special recommendation of the General Commanding in chief.

8. The officers to be selected for this retired establishment shall be recommended to us by the General commanding in chief, and they shall be appointed thereto according to their Regimental, and not according to their Brevet rank; but they shall not thereby obtain any additional rank, nor can they be further promoted.

9. Officers hereafter appointed to veteran battalions shall not, on their retirement, therefrom, acquire any claim to full retired pay, but upon reduction shall be liable to be placed upon half pay under the same regulations as Officers reduced from regiments of the Line.

Half Pay.

10. The half pay of the Army is a remuneration for past Military services, and also an obligation on the part of the Officers to return to his Military duties whenever called upon, and any Officers not obeying the call is liable to forfeit his half pay.

11. No officer shall be entitled to be placed on the half pay establishment on reduction from full pay, unless he shall have actually done duty in some other Military capacity in the public service, for a period of at least six years, excepting he shall have been compelled to retire upon half pay, by wounds received in action; or by ill health contracted on duty in our colonies after three years' service.

12. An Officer having served more than three and less than six years, will however if reduced, be placed upon half pay until recalled to active service.

13. An officer having served less than three years, will, if reduced, receive only a temporary allowance of half pay, according to the following scale:—

Service on full pay.	Temporary allowance.
Under 1 year.....	for 1 year.
1 and under 2 years.....	2 „
2 „ 3 „.....	3 „

14. The temporary allowance shall cease at the termination of the above recited periods, or previously, if the officers shall have been previously, replaced on full pay.

15. But an officer on temporary half pay shall be eligible to be appointed to a full pay commission either by exchange or otherwise, provided his appointment shall take place within five years after he has ceased to receive temporary half pay, in which case his former service shall be allowed to reckon.

16. The exchange to full pay under the preceding article may be made with a full pay officer entitled to half pay.

17. If an officer receiving the temporary allowance shall have purchased his commission, he may receive the regulation price thereof from the public through the Secretary at War, and the sum thus advanced shall be refunded to the public by the sale of a first full pay commission provided that not more than one first commission out of two be thus sold for refunding to the public the regulated price of the commission so advanced.

18. If a Subaltern Officer having a claim to half pay is desirous of selling or commuting his half pay, the following Rule shall be observed:—If he purchased his commission, the regulated price may be given (whether receiving half pay or temporary allowance) with the usual precaution of a medical certificate as to his being in a good state of health.

If he did not purchase his commission, he may receive the new price of that commission, if a Lieut. with seven years' full-pay service in the Army, or with six years' if a cornet or Ensign; and the old price of the commission if under those periods, and above four years' full pay service.

If he did not purchase his commission and should retire after less than four years', and more than three years' service, at his own request, and not on account of ill health or wounds, he shall only receive half the price of the commission at the new rate.

19. But in the cases included in the two preceding Articles, no officer on half pay shall of right, have a claim to sell or commute his half pay—the permission shall be governed by such a consideration of the individual case as the General Commanding-in-Chief and Secretary at War may think proper to recommend to us.

20. No Garrison Commission or Appointment shall give an officer any claim to half pay on retirement.

21. An officer who applies to retire upon half pay on the ground of ill health, must, if stationed in or near London or Dublin, be examined by the principal officers of the Army Medical Departments in those cities and if stationed elsewhere by a board of Medical Officers, agreeably to the provisions of the articles of War; the result of such examination to be forwarded to the General Commanding-in-Chief and Secretary at War. If such examination shall not take place the officer will be considered to have retired upon half pay for his own convenience.

22. Every Quarter the residence of the half pay officer is to be stated in his Declaration, whether his half pay be received by an agent or by himself.

23. If an officer of any of the under mentioned ranks shall have entered the Service since the termination of the war in 1815, and shall, after the date of this warrant, be permitted to exchange to half pay, not on account of ill health, but for his private convenience, before he has served seven years on full pay, he shall be allowed only the old rate of half pay specified in the following schedule; if the retirement should be for the public convenience by reduction or otherwise, or in consequence of ill health, as certified by a Medical Board, the officer will be allowed the new rate of half pay.

26. The officer to be selected for this special provision shall be recommended to us by the General Commanding-in-Chief from those Lieutenant-Colonels having the Brevet Rank of Colonel, who have retired or may retire to half pay after thirty years' service upon full pay. But this additional rate will not be allowed to any officer who received the difference when he retired upon half pay and the officer will cease to receive the allowance when he shall cease to receive half pay.

Provided always, that our Secretary at War shall be satisfied with the manner in which the Paymaster to be recommended to us for such half pay shall have performed his duties.

29. An officer on half pay who may have served less than 5 years as Paymaster, will be eligible for re-employment on full pay, either in that situation or in his former rank; and if restored to full pay as Paymaster his previous service will be allowed to reckon.

30. An officer who may have served more than 5 years and less than 20 years as Paymaster and shall be receiving the half pay of that commission viz., 6s., 7s. 6d., or 10s. a day, will be liable to be recalled to full pay in that appointment, if his health shall be found sufficiently good to enable him to resume its duties and in case he shall decline the appointment, he shall be liable to revert to the half pay of the commission which he held before he was appointed Paymaster.

Quartermasters.

31. The rate of half pay for a Quartermaster shall in all cases be determined by the service which the officer may have rendered to the public as Quartermaster or in any former Military capacity.

32. If a Quartermaster shall have previously served at least three years as a non-commissioned officer, he shall, in case of being placed upon half pay, receive the following rate of half pay, viz :—

REDUCTION OF PASSAGE MONEY PER RED SEA STEAMERS.

MARINE DEPARTMENT.

Bombay Castle, 6th December 1841.

The Hon'ble the Governor in Council has been pleased to direct, that the following Rules for the regulation of Passages and Passengers in the Government Steam Packets, be published for general information, and that these Rules be brought into operation on the 1st January next, in supercession of those at present in force.

The names which have been already registered for the January and succeeding Steamers will be placed on the list of applicants for Cabins, in the order in which they now stand.

Rules for the engagement of Passages and accommodation of Passengers in the Government Steam Packets, between Bombay and Suez.

1. Application for passage is to be made at the Office of the Master Attendant in Bombay, and at other Ports to the Commander.

2. The Vessel which conveys the Mail intended to reach Suez on the 19th of any month: is to be designated the Steamer of that month: for instance the January Steamer is the one which is destined to reach Suez on the 19th January, although leaving Bombay possibly before the end of December.

3. Passengers are to be divided into two classes, vizt.

First class who sit at the Commander's Table and are entitled to all the privileges of the quarter deck.

Second class, who are not entitled to walk aft of the paddle boxes, whose berth forward, and either arrange for their own provision, or mess with the Warrant Officers, or Engineers.

4. Every passenger of the 1st class shall pay the following sum, as Table Money, for the voyage from Bombay to Suez, or from Suez to Bombay, vizt

A Lady or Gentleman	Rs. 200
A Child ten years of age and above five years.....	„ 100
A Child five years and above 1.....	„ 80
A Child one year and under.....	„ 50
A Child under one year, and with the Mother.....	Free

These rates apply to the Steamers of every month throughout the year, with the exception of those of July and August, in which the Table Money from Bombay to Suez will be as follows; vizt.

A Lady or Gentleman.....	Rs. 300
A Child under 10.....	„ 150
A Child under 5.....	„ 120
A Child under 1.....	„ 75
Do.....with the mother.....	Free.

But the rate from Suez to Bombay will be the same in all months. It is to be understood, that for the above sums, the passengers are to be provided with a plain substantial table; but no person is entitled to more than one pint of wine and one bottle of beer per diem. Cabin passengers have the first choice of seats at the table, and after them the saloon passengers in preference to those on the deck, whose priority will be arranged, according to their standing on the passage list. The seats will be arranged by the Commander and once taken they cannot be changed without his permission during the voyage.

5. In addition to the Table Money the following sums will be charged for the accommodation engaged by first class passengers, vizt.

A treble cabin.....	Rs. 1,000
A double cabin.....	„ 800
A single cabin.....	„ 500
A saloon berth.....	„ 350
A deck passage.....	„ 300

6. Every second class passenger shall pay Rupees 150.

7. For each European Servant 50 Rupees must be paid as subsistence money, and 50 Rupees as passage money; for Native Servant the charge will be one half the rate for an European ; but none are to be considered and taken as Servants unless they actually accompany their Masters or Mistresses.

8. Three lists for each month's Steamer will be kept at the Master Attendant's Office, vizt. one for cabin passengers, one for saloon, and one for deck passengers. A statement of the number of each class, which each packet is calculated to accommodate, will be open at the same place, to the inspection of the public.

9. Every applicant may register his name in whichever of the lists he pleases, but the name of the packet will not be declared until 10 days prior to the appointed day of sailing, when choice of accommodation will be given, according to priority of standing on the lists. Ladies having the preference for the first three cabins.

10. In the event of a greater number of names having been registered than the Steamer when declared, is calculated to accommodate, the supernumerary names on the cabin lists may be transferred to that of the saloon or the deck, and those of saloon lists to that of the deck, or they may be withdrawn and the deposit repaid, at the option of the parties. In the case of a transfer under this rule, the name will be placed in the same position in which it would have stood by date of registry had the original application been for a saloon or a deck passage instead of a cabin or for a deck instead of for a saloon. Should any of the cabin or saloon berth remain open after the vessel has left the harbour, the saloon or deck passengers may be allowed to take them on paying into the hands of the Commander the regulated difference of price.

11. Ladies and Children can take passages in cabins only, and female servants cannot be accommodated otherwise than in the cabin engaged for the family they accompany.

12. A passenger who has engaged a cabin may make what arrangement he likes for its occupation ; he may either keep it entirely to himself, or admit to share it with any one that he pleases, provided only that the name of the person so admitted (if an adult) must have been previously on one of the lists, and subject to the following restrictions, viz.

A treble cabin cannot be appropriated to the accommodation of more than Four Ladies.

Three Gentlemen.

Six Children.

One Lady and four Children.

Two Ladies and three Children.

A single cabin cannot be appropriated to more than.

Two Ladies.

One Gentleman.

Three Children.

One Lady and two Children.

Children under 5 years of age may be taken extra to the complement of a cabin on payment of 50 Rupees for each additional.

13. Passages for intermediate places can be engaged only when there is accommodation not taken up for the entire voyage, unless the parties are willing to pay the price of the whole voyage, in which case they may register their names in the same manner as all other passengers.—The vacant accommodation will be declared three days before the sailing of the Vessel. The passage between Aden and Mocha, and Bombay and Suez respectively will be counted as one half of the whole passage between Bombay and Suez :—between Judda and Suez, will be counted as one-third, and between Judda and Bombay as two-thirds : Cossier and Suez are considered to be alike.

14. The engagement of a passage will not be considered valid unless a deposit of the following sums be made at the time of application, vizt.

For a Cabin passage.....	Rs. 300
For a Saloon.....	„ 150
For a Deck.....	„ 125

This deposit, should the party not proceed, will invariably be forfeited, except under the provisions of art. 10, and in cases where, by the production of a Medical Certificate, it is satisfactorily shewn that the person was compelled, by sickness to abandon the passage. A deposit is not required on the registry of the names of children, except when the children are to occupy a cabin, by themselves, in which case the same deposit must be made as for the cabin passage of a lady or gentleman, viz. 300 rupees.

15. To prevent unnecessary trouble, the Master Attendant is authorized to receive and pass receipts for the deposit money.

16. Ten days prior to the appointed day of sailing each passenger must pay to the Master Attendant the remaining portion of the passage money, in default of which the deposit will be considered forfeited, and any claim to passage invalid. When the cabins are finally allotted, an adjustment will be made with the party or parties to whom they are appropriated, the difference between the value of the place occupied by each individual and the deposit made under article 14 being paid up or returned, as the case may be. When the passage money has been paid up, no portion of it can, on any plea be returned, except under the provisions specified in article 14.

17. Persons who from non-arrival at Bombay, may have omitted to pay the balance of the passage money may be re-admitted as passengers, if before the period of departure the balance is paid. They however will be placed at the bottom of the list of the class of passengers in which they are registered.

18. No transfer of accommodation in the Steamers by an individual who has taken a passage to one who has not taken his passage will be permitted, but after the list has been filled up, any person wishing to stand the chance of succeeding to a vacancy caused by a lapse of any kind may do so, by registering his name and paying the required sum which will be refunded to him should no vacancy occur.

19. It is to be understood, that Government reserves to itself the right of appropriating a cabin or cabins for the use of public functionaries or others proceeding on duty or by special order of Government as passengers in any of the Honorable Company's Steamers.

20. Passengers on a Steamer that may from accident or other cause be obliged to return to Port will be entitled to the refund of the amount that has been paid, deducting therefrom, a sum for the Table Allowance of the Commander according to the number of days that the vessel may have been at sea calculating the average time occupied in a voyage to or from Suez to be 18 days, and Aden 10 days.

21. It is necessary for passengers not belonging to the Honorable Company's Service, to make the requisite arrangements at Suez or other intermediate Port with the Commander before or at least at the time of their embarkation for the payment of the passage money.

22. For the convenience of passengers from the Red Sea to India, the Commanders of the Honorable Company's Packets are authorized to receive payment of passage money at Suez or any Port between Suez and Bombay in Sovereigns, Spanish Dollars, or German Crowns, at the following rates of exchange; viz: Sovereigns at ten Rupees each, Spanish Dollars at Rupees two, and three Annas each; German Crowns at Rupees two and two Annas each.

23. The baggage of each passenger must not exceed four boxes of the following dimensions vizt.

Length.....	2 Feet 5 Inches.
Breadth.....	1 „ 5 „

and the total weight must not be more than four cwt. Second class passengers are allowed half the above quantity.

24. Each cabin passenger may, if he pleases put all his baggage into his cabin. The saloon and deck passengers will be allowed to keep one box or bag above. The rest of the baggage is to be in the baggage-room and passengers will be allowed access to it twice a week, on a day and hour fixed by the Commander, who will appoint a person to have charge of the baggage.

25. Any applicant may be refused a passage without any cause being assigned either by the authorities at Bombay or by the Commander of the vessel when away from Bombay, but a report of the rejection is to be communicated to Government.

26. All persons who take passage either themselves or through their agents, will be considered as thereby binding themselves to comply with these Rules which will be shewn by the Master Attendant or by the Commander of the Vessel to parties who engage passage.

By order of the Hon'ble the Governor in Council.

The Mahableschwur Hills, which form the site of the only convalescent station under the Bombay Presidency, are situated in 17dg. 56' north latitude, and in longitude 73dg. 30' east, and are distant twenty-five miles due east from the sea, and sixty-nine miles from Bombay, which bears north 29dg. W. They form a portion of the extensive chain of mountains known under the name of the Western Ghats, or Syhadree mountains. On their western side they rise with an abrupt and precipitous ascent from the Concan which separates them from the sea while their eastern face presents a somewhat less rapid and steep descent into the table land of the Deccan.

The general elevation of the station is 4,500 feet above the level of the sea, while its highest summit attains an altitude of 4,700 feet. It is elevated upwards of 4000 feet above the subjacent country on the Concan side, and about 2,300 feet above the general level of the Deccan at its eastern base. Its greatest breadth at the northern extremity is about 15 miles, and about 8 at its southern boundary. The average direct length north and south does not exceed five miles though from N. E. to S. W. it extends diagonally seventeen miles.

Excellent roads have been made in almost every direction. These already extend over a space of upwards of forty miles, more than one half of which are carriage-roads, and the remainder bridle-paths, and have been so laid out as to open up to the visitor a varied succession of mountain scenery, which for grandeur and beauty, it is believed can be equalled in few parts of the world.

The soil consists principally of a red clay (formed by the disintegration of cellular ferruginous clay-stone, which constitutes the surface rock) intermixed with the debris of trap rock, and in many places with a considerable proportion of decayed vegetable matter, forming a brown mould, which is found to be very productive. An abundant supply of excellent water is at all seasons procurable, either from wells, which vary from twenty to forty feet in depth, or from the small streamlets which traverse the hills, some of which retain their water during the whole of the hot season. An extensive artificial lake, which is now being constructed by His Highness, the Rajah of Satara, will add materially to the supply of water already available, whether for cultivation or for domestic use.

The most striking feature in the vegetation of these hills is the profusion of the common Brake (Pteris Aquilina) which serves to recall the association of a more northern clime. A species of Curcuma, the roots of which yields an excellent description of Arrowroot, grows every where in the greatest abundance. There is a considerable variety of Parasitic Orchideve, some of which possess great beauty; and the trunks and branches of many of the trees, are covered with a variety of Lichens and Musesi.

Potatoes of excellent quality are cultivated very extensively, both for the consumption of the station, and for the supply of the Bombay and Poona, markets. A plentiful supply of all the common culinary vegetables of the best description can be procured at reasonable rates. The excessive heaviness of the rains prevents the successful cultivation of European fruits.

The village of Malcolm Peth, (so named by the Rajah of Satara in honor of the late Sir John Malcolm, the distinguished founder of the station) contains six European shops, where European supplies of almost every description are procurable at the same rates as at Poona, and very little higher than at Bombay. The station is also visited by numerous itinerant hawkers (Borahs) from Bombay, whose baskets are usually filled with a varied assortment both of European and Indian goods. The Malcolm Peth Bazar is a tolerably large one and is well supplied with all articles of consumption, which are the produce of the country, and generally at moderate rates. The mutton, which is small but of excellent quality, is sold at $1\frac{1}{2}$ annas per pound. Beef at 1 anna per lb. Fowls at 3 or 4 annas each. Grain is principally imported from Wye, (a distance of 20 miles,) and is usually about 8 or 10 per cent. higher than in the Deccan. Firewood is abundant and cheap; grass is of rather inferior quality. A monthly nerrik, or price current, is circulated for the information of visitors: but under existing regulations, its observance cannot be enforced on the dealers, though they almost invariably conform to it.

Mahableshwur is easily accessible both from Bombay and from the principal stations of Deccan and Concan. The visitor from Bombay by sailing down the coast to Bancote, and thence up the Sawitree river to Mhar (a distance of seventy miles by sea, and thirty by river) is brought within twenty seven miles land journey from the hills or, should he object to even this short sea-trip, he can cross the harbour to Nagotna (which is effected in one tide) from which the distance by land is only seventy miles, along an excellent road, with a public bungalow at each stage. The distance from Poona, by an indifferent hilly route, is seventy miles, and from Sattara only thirty miles by a very good carriage-road. The approach both from the Concan and from the Deccan side is at all times safe, as there is no intervening jungle, and no danger to be apprehended from attacks of fever or other diseases, of malarious origin.

This station was founded by the then Governor of Bombay, Sir John Malcolm, in 1828. It was ceded to the British Government, by the Rajah of Sattara, in exchange for another village, and was subsequently annexed to the Zillah of the Concan. Its European establishment consists only of a chaplain and a Medical officer. The former visits Dapoollee once a month, and Rutnagherry once in two months, during the fair season; and during the rains he performs the duties of Chaplain at Malligaum. The Medical officer is also Superintendent of the station and a first assistant to the Magistrate, and has charge of a treasure chest for the payment of sick officers and their families, a detachment of fifty sepoy, under the command of a jemadar, is kept up to supply the usual guards.

The public buildings consist of a Sanatorium (containing eight sets of quarters) and five detached Bungalows, for the accommodation of sick officers and their families; a Church, which was built by private subscription, and accommodates 180 people. A small subsidiary jail, containing sixty Chinese convicts who are employed in the construction and repair of roads, a chowrie, and a Dhurumsallah for native travellers. There is a Subscription Library containing upwards of 700 volumes, and a Hotel, on a very small scale, has recently been completed.

The private dwelling-houses are 70 in number; of which 53 are substantially built of hewn stone and lime, and the remainder of rough stone and mortar, sun-dried bricks, or wattle-work. The greater number of them are thatched, tiles having been found not to resist the monsoon rain. Allotments of ground for building are granted by government, on a twenty one years' lease, the principal provisions of which are, that the lessee shall pay an annual rent at the rate of a rupee an acre; that he shall build a substantial bungalow, and erect suitable landmarks on the boundaries of his allotment; that he shall not be permitted to cut down trees which are close to the public road; and that he shall obey all regulations existing in the Mofussil, so far as they are not of a personal nature, but are incidental to the possession of immovable property, and so far also as they affect the health, safety, and convenience of the other inhabitants of the station. The average size of individual allotments granted, during the last three years, is six acres.

The following is a statement of the numbers of visitors of all ages who have resorted to the station, each season, during the last three years.

In	1831-32	the number	of visitors was,	197.

It remains to add a brief outline of the Physical and Medical qualities of the climate.

The mean annual temperature of the station is 66dg. 2', which approximates very closely to that of the Cape of Good Hope, and of New South Wales, and is nearly identical with the estimated mean temperature of the globe. The following summary embraces the principal particulars of the climate, as deduced from ten years meteorological observations.

The influence of the climate upon the healthy constitution, constituting what may be termed it's physiological action, is stimulant and tame. In addition to the effects which usually result from a change from a warm to a cool climate in all latitudes and to all elevations, an improvement of the app title and of the digestive and of assimilative functions, and an increase of muscular and mental energy, there are experienced, in greater or less degree, at this station, a peculiar feeling of excitement, and a sense of dryness and constriction of the skin, which appear to be solely attributable to the effect of diminished atmospheric pressure, in exciting the circulating system, and in augmentation of cutaneous evaporation. It is the presence of this latter element in the constitution of inter-tropical mountain climates, which emphatically distinguishes them from all other climates, whose temperature is the effect of latitude, and which will ever render them inferior in therapeutic efficacy.

The climate of this station is inapplicable, if not positively injurious, in all acute inflammatory affections, and in the greater number of organic visceral diseases. On the other hand, it has been found beneficial in uncomplicated intermittent fevers; in the greater number of functional disorders of the digestive organs; in general debility, cachexia, and impaired general health (unaccompanied by local disease), whether the result of long-continued exposure to a tropical climate, or of close application to official duty and the sedentary life which usually accompanies it, or of tedious convalescence from acute disease. In a few forms of diarrhœa, such as those which depend on simple relaxation of the exhalent vessels, of the bowels, or which occur in persons of a cachectic or strumous diathesis; in some of the slighter and more chronic hepatic and spleen affections, provided they be unaccompanied by any evidence of morbid vascular excitement, general or local; in some varieties of nervous and periodical headaches—in chronic rheumatism, occurring in a debilitated or in a Cachectic state of the system, and unaccompanied by any feverish tendency or by morbid irritability of the bowels. In various Scrofulous affections, and in the precursory or incipient stage of pulmonary phthisis, where there are the usual constitutional indications of the tubercular diathesis, and where the existence of tubercular deposition in the lungs is suspected rather than unequivocally announced; in the greater number of the varying modifications of disorder arising from, or co-existent with, functional uterine derangement, and in almost all the diseases incidental to infancy and childhood.

The agency of this climate in the preservation of health and the prevention of disease is probably greater and more beneficial than its direct therapeutic efficacy, more particularly in relation to females and children. The practice, which is now so prevalent in the Bombay presidency of withdrawing children from the pernicious influence of the excessive heat of the low country during the hot season, and of transferring them, during these months, to this temperate and equable climate, has the incalculable beneficial effect of warding off many of the acute attacks incident to childhood, and more especially to the period of dentition; of supporting the energies of their constitution on a nearer level with the European standard during the first years of their growth, when such constitutional invigoration is of vital importance; and of lessening the liability to future disease and future delicacy of constitution, to which all children, born and reared for some years in this country, are more or less liable.

THE NEILGHERRIES.

I—EXTENT.

The Neilgherries situated in the south of India, on the confines of Coimbatore and Malabar, extend from 11deg. 10' to 11deg. 32' north latitude, and from 76deg. 59' to 77deg. 31' east longitude. Their greatest oblique extent from south west to north east is from 38 to 40 miles and their extreme breadth 15. Their superficial area may be computed equal to 700 square miles. Four stations are at present occupied, viz. Ootacamund, Kotagherry, Dimhuty, and Coonoor.

II.—DIVISIONS AND GENERAL APPEARANCE.

The Neilgherries are composed of 3 separate ranges closely connected together.

The range to the westward bears 2 distinct names; that to the northward, commences at the Goodaloor Pass and is called the Neddimmulla hills, and the southward is termed the Koondahs.

The 2d or Central Range formed by a chain of hills rises to the summit, of Dadoobetta, the loftiest point (8760 feet) south of the Himalaya.

The 3d range to the eastward may be called the Kotagherry. All of these ranges are nearly of the same elevation but vary considerably in aspect, connection, and grouping. They are joined to the table-land of Mysore by an isthmus about 15 miles wide, and are completely isolated on every other side. Their nearest distance from the Malabar Coast is about 40 miles, and from the Coromandel side about 230. The scenery in general is exceedingly beautiful and of the grandest and most romantic description in the world.

Ootacamund is the principal station and is situated nearly in the centre of the table-land of Mysore about 10 miles from the southern edge of the range and 7 from the northern,—immediately at the base and on the western side of Dodabetta, and is open only towards the W. N. W. ; the other three sides being completely sheltered by this mountain. Its elevation is 7400 feet above the level of the sea, and it is the best locality amongst the other stations.

It has decidedly the most perfectly European climate of any in these hills and is less affected by the changes of monsoons, rains, &c. than any other which arises from its forming the line of separation between the north east Madras monsoon, and the south west Malabar monsoon.

III.—CLIMATE.

Three circumstances materially affect the climate of the hills, viz.

- 1st. Their elevation above the level of the sea.
- 2d. Their position near the line of demarcation of the two monsoons.
- 3d. Their isolated situation.

The year is divided into two seasons. The cold season is similar to the spring of the North of Persia or the autumn of the South of France and may be said to set in from December, and terminate in March ; whilst the monsoon season, resembling very nearly a mild autumn in the South of England, occupies the remaining months.

With reference to the climate of Ootacamund in particular, the following may be considered a pretty fair estimate.

January is uniformly fair, clear and dry, the nights are very cold and attended with frost in the valleys. The same remarks will apply to February except that the frost is stronger and in March it disappears, when the weather becomes milder : there are also a few heavy showers.

Towards the close of April the wind begins to vary from the North-East and finally settles in the South-West : the air is mild and balmy. May is the warmest month, but the heat is often relieved by the fall of rain in torrents intermingled with hail, ushering in the North West Monsoon, which occurs in the early part of June, 10 or 15 days later than the Malabar monsoon, and continues with greater or less constancy throughout July and August when the weather both at Coonoor and Kotagerry, is to be preferred being comparatively dry and fine. September and October are uncertain months depending upon the state of the South West monsoon, which, if begun early and exhausted renders the weather fine, warm, and pleasant ; but if deficient in previous rain, a good deal of fog and drizzle generally prevail. Towards the end of September, the wind again begins to shift round to the north, when the weather becomes sensibly colder.

The mean annual temperature of the air of Ootacamund is 58 deg. 68' ; the greatest annual range 39 deg., the maximum being 77 deg. and the minimum 38 deg., the mean annual range is 16 deg. 84', and the mean daily range 17 deg. 1'. The greatest power of the sun's rays is equal to 21 deg. 73'.

The quantity of rain that falls on an average of 4 years is 44-88 inches. There are heavy rains 19 days, drizzle with fair intervals 81, cloudy 28, and perfectly fair and dry 238.

Kotagerry is situated 16 miles distant from Ootacamund on the eastern division, and is inferior in elevation being 6571 feet above the level of the sea. The climate is much milder and the extreme and daily range less. The minimum is 43 deg. and the maximum 76 deg., a range of 5 deg. less than the extreme of Ootacamund. The air is moister and the nights less cold. In June, July and August, the weather is clear, bright and fair at this station, whilst at Ootacamund there is pretty constant fog, drizzle, or rain during this time. This difference arises from the former place being less subject to the influence of the south-west monsoon. It is also reckoned a more eligible residence during the monsoons for delicate people, whereas Ootacamund is decidedly preferred for those in tolerably confirmed health.

Less rain falls at this place and it is generally dry here when it rains at Ootacamund, from being affected by a different monsoon.

Dimhatty is situated on a plateau between Kotagerry and the Orange valley, the latter of which rises at the north east angle of Dodabetta and is so named from the number of wild orange and lime trees found in it. The elevation of Dimhatty above the sea is 4500 feet, and its temperature is much higher than that of the two former stations.

Coonoor, which is 10 miles distant from Ootacamund and the head quarters of the pioneer corps, is situated south of the range, close to the edge of the hills, and rises 58-6 feet above the sea. Its mean temperature is probably 6 deg. warmer than that of Ootacamund and from its proximity to the Ghaut it is subject at particular seasons to fogs: on the other hand it has the advantage of being on the direct road to Ootacamund and is well adapted for sick travellers.

IV.—SOIL AND PRODUCTIONS.

Over the whole extent of the table land and on the summit of the hills, the soil is exceedingly rich and of considerable depth, caused by swamps of various extent, but situation, exposure, command of water and other less obvious circumstances, confine the cultivation to the extremity of the hills and to the south and east of the range. By time, experiments, and advantages of climate, almost every European fruit might be advantageously cultivated, medicinal plants particularly.

Productions.—The different natural products are coarse barley, keeree-mow, poppies, garlick and onions. The following have been introduced by European visitants, viz: wheat, oats, potatoes, cabbage, cauliflower, savoy, French beans, spinage, peas, lettuces, beet-root, radishes, celery, turnips, carrots, &c. &c. sea-kale, asparagus, tomatas, plums, peaches, nectarines, apples, citrons, loquats. Oranges and limes grow wild. Brazil cherry, commonly known as the topara, gooseberry, capers, strawberry, raspberry, blackberries. The Orchis mascula from the root of which the salpi misree is obtained, is in abundance and several other plants resembling the genus Orchis, Lucerne. Tobacco is also found.

V.—RIVERS, &c.

The Bowany, rises in the Koondahs and flowing through a deep fissure till the north west angle of this range, turns suddenly to the east where it is joined by a great number of tributary streams.

The Pykarra separates the Neddimmulla hills from the central table land, and descending the north of the hills joins the Moyaar and sweeping round the north and north west sides of the hills, flows into the Bowany near Danaikencottah in Coimbatour.

The two other rivers are the Moyaar, and the Baypoor.

Lake.—There is an expansive and delightful lake of 6 or 7 miles in circuit having a public carriage road surrounding it which affords most healthful and agreeable drives.

VI.—CONVENIENCE OF SITUATION.

The following distances shew the convenience of these mountains from the principal points on the south side of India, and the dak expenses incident to a visit to them,

	Miles.	Expenses.
From Madras via Trichinopoly,.....	393	200
Ditto ditto via Salem,.....	332	150
Ditto ditto via Bangalore,....	385	150-70
Ditto Trichinopoly,	153	60
Ditto Bangalore,.....	176	80
Ditto Calicut,....	156	60
Ditto Tellichery (Cannanore).....	130	50
In marching or travelling by stages the expense is of course much less.

VII.—ROUTES AND APPROACHES.

There are 3 points of the readiest access to the hills, viz: Madras on the east coast; Calicut, Cannanore and Tellicherry on the west: but the Calicut or Cannanore route is recommended to travellers from the Bengal Presidency, arriving at Madras of course in the first instance.

Trichinopoly route.—Regular bearers are to be had to Cuddalore from the Madras police, thence to Trichinopoly from the post office there; from this to Matapollium where they are posted by the Collector of Coimbatour, and from Matapollium to Ootacamund, they are to be had from the Commissariat Officer on the hills. This is the most eligible though the longest road;—it passes through many stations having medical and other assistance at hand,— is free from jungle or other obstructions and may be travelled at all seasons without risk or delay.

Salem route.—The route via Salem is the shortest, but it passes through an uninteresting and unhealthy country. There are bungalows only at certain stations. It joins the former road at Avanashy.

The third road passes through Vellore, Bangalore and Mysore and then ascends by the Goodaloor pass to Nediwurtum and Ootacamund. Bearers are to be had as far as Arcot from the Madras police and thence to Ootacamund from the principal offices.

Bangalore route.—This road would be the most agreeable, but on account of the jungle between Goondlapet and Goondaloor, which, however, may be avoided by descending the Tapoor pass from Bangalore, and joining the Salem road. But this route is only had recourse to by travellers from Bangalore which is the fourth and new military road.

Calicut route.—From Calicut the road descends southward to Ponany and thence striking inland passes through a beautiful country to Paulghatcherry, 78 miles. From this to Coimbatore, 30 miles, it lies partly through a jungle not unhealthy or dangerous in any way; from Coimbatore to Matapollim, 27 miles, and thence the Coonoor ghat leads to Ootacamund.

Another road from Calicut is by ascending the Baypoor river to Nellumboor, thence through a deepjungle valley (between the Neilgherries, and the Tonbacherry hills) to the Karkoor pass and finally to Ootacamund. This route is highly objectionable from the extent and unhealthy nature of the above jungle.

Cannanore or Tellicherry route.—This road is recommended to such travellers from Calcutta as have no dislike to a sea-voyage or expect to derive benefit from it. From either of these places the road strikes directly inland, and ascending the Peria pass, to Manantoddy and passing through a wild and picturesque, though not unhealthy country, reaches Goodaloor, and thence finally enters Ootacamund.

VIII.—EFFECTS OF CLIMATE ON INDIAN DISEASES.

From the elevated position of the hills, the curative and restorative powers of the climate on Indian diseases must be apparent to all. An important consideration also connected with them, is the preventive powers of their climate, which has not yet met with the attention it deserves. A transfer at once to the climate of the hills of those suffering from the various diseases and ailments here under instanced is highly recommended.

Fever (being unknown on the hills) when previously contracted.

Dyspepsia, when not connected with serious derangement of the liver.

Debility in every degree.

Habitual constipation.

Local and cutaneous affections of every description.

All Pulmonary complaints.

All female complaints, properly so called.

Diarrhœa.

Dysentery.

Hepatic diseases in their milder forms.

Rheumatism, muscular or mercurial.

Gout, though the cure is in every instance perhaps impossible, is greatly modified.

IX.—RESOURCES AND SUPPLIES.

The bazar at Ootacamund is exceedingly well supplied, and the prices are a little higher than those of the low country. There are two excellent Parsee shops containing every thing in the way of liquors, Europe supplies, cheese, pickles, preserves, &c. &c. which are good and at reasonable prices; but those who are particular in the choice of their Port wine and beer are recommended to take a small stock with them. Salt provisions of very good quality, cured on the hills, are to be had in considerable quantities in the bazar. Cattle and swine might be procured to any extent in the low country round the hills, and fruits and vegetables of every description have advantageously been cultivated.

Houses.—In Kotagherry there is a deficiency of supplies owing to the want of a regular bazar, a market being held only once a week. There are only 12 or 13 houses besides the quarters at Dimhurty at the disposal of the public, whilst at Ootacamund there are upwards of 70 habitable houses. At Coonoor there is no accommodation for travellers except the public bungalow which is forbid to them for upwards of 3 days.

Servants.—Good men servants of every description (except perhaps head servants and dressing boys) are available at Ootacamund. Female servants are seldom found and should be brought up.

Furniture.—Beds, chairs, tables, carpets may be easily had on the Hills. Crockery may be arranged for with the Parsee shop keepers. The essential requisites to be taken are plate, bed and table-linen, and warm clothing.

X.—CLEARING THE JUNGLE.

The base of the hills is completely surrounded by dense jungle of various breadth rising in general from 2500 to 3500 feet on their declivities. Its breadth is in no place greater than 20 miles (between Mungalum and Goodaloor) and at many others does not exceed six, as at Matapollum. The clearing of this jungle would be attended with many salutary effects, thereby removing one of the greatest obstructions to the free accessibility of the hills by the route from Madras through Vellore, Bangalore, and Mysoor, and preventing the occurrence of fever, which from the density and the nature of the soil in many parts is almost inevitable; the effects of the miasm being alike fatal to Europeans and Natives.

XI.—BUILDING GROUND.

The surface of the table land is much undulated, but the portion of the central division adjoining the Koondahs and Neddimala hills being broken into an immense number of little round hills, and the vallies afford ample ground for building upon.

XII.—BUILDING MATERIALS.

There are large beds of laterite probably a very useful material for purposes of building, and also a whitish earth used for whitewashing. Quartz in great purity, but partly decomposed, is found in abundance near the Koondah ghat and below Billycul. The sienite, composing the base of the rocks, from its durability would prove useful. No lime has hitherto been discovered; and the clay is well adapted for the manufacture of bricks, tiles or pottery.

The teak forest lately discovered in the Conoor ghaat is reserved for government; the Chumpanee possessed of all the valuable qualities of the teak and is used for rafters, door-frames, &c.; the Darehenee may be had in beams of any size, but it is not so durable as the teak; Billoo is another very heavy and solid species, is easily worked and less affected by moisture than the two former, and is proof against insects. The barberry is well adapted for chairs, musicstand and other ornamental furniture.

XIII.—WATER.

There is a stream on the surface of the table land, which is quite clear and pure, and the water is as fit for use as if just taken from the spring. Each of the lateral vallies, has its own brook of beautifully limped water. The water found on the hills is occasionally hard and sometimes contains iron, but there is no scarcity of springs of beautifully soft water.

XIV.—INHABITANTS.

Excluding the European population, these may be divided into the Todas or Toruwaris; the Ewlares; the Curumbars; the Cohatars; and the Buddaghers, or Burghers, called by the natives Badacars or Vadacars, having come to the hills from the north quarter.

The Todas or Toruwaris may be considered the aborigines of the soil, they do not exceed 600 in number and are divided into 2 grand families, one called Peikis or Tarallis, and the other Kutas or Tardas—the former are competent to hold all sacred offices and the latter may be called the lay class—they intermarry and the progeny is termed Mookhs (children or descendant.) They breed only the buffalo, and manufacture butter and ghee, such of the latter as they do not require for their own use, is bartered for grain and cloth with their neighbours. They are highly respected by all the other tribes. They call themselves (par excellence) men, and the burghers, labourers.

The Ewlares divide themselves into the Urali and Curutali, who in conjunction with the Curumbars are little removed from utter uncivilization. Their language is a mixture of the Tamil, the Carnataca, the Mulayalma, and the Toda. They may be classed as Hindoos.

The Cohatars occupy the elevated parts of the hills, have no distinction of caste and differ from the other tribes; they cultivate different kinds of millet, the poppy and barley, and are the only artisans of the hills, being goldsmiths, potters, chaccileis. They are not Hindoos, but worship ideal gods not represented by any image.

The Buddhaghers or Burghers properly called by the natives Badacars or Vadacars having come from the north of the hills, number about 10,000 of both sexes and all ages and are the most numerous. They are divided into 8 classes, all Hindoos of the Siva sect, and may be said to consist of priests who wear the lingam and officiate for all other classes, of repudiated Brahmins who wear the sacerdotal string and retain some privileges in their worship, but are classed with the rest of the people who are the principal cultivators of the earth, and manufacture a coarse cloth. These are the least respected. The language of the Burghers is formed of a mixture of the Carnataca and the Toda.

XV.—HINTS TO INVALIDS.

Warm clothing is of vital importance on the hills, and even in the low country, a light flannel banian (jacket or shirt) is of service; every invalid as he values life should be provided with a good stock of flannel banians, flannel cummerbunds (belts, made so as to have strings to be firmly tied round the middle and double over) drawers and worsted stockings, and a stock of stout shoes and boots. Avoid exposure to the night air, and never be out after sunset. Early rising is neither necessary nor prudent, the invalid should wait till the sun has attained sufficient height to drive away the cold and moisture of the night; care should be taken to return home before 9 A. M. so as to avoid the powerful effects of the sun. Diet must of course be regulated by circumstances. In general, however, adhere to light animal food with bread or biscuit, and vegetables, pastry, cheese &c. Port or sherry is preferable to the lighter wines; beer unnecessary. Invalids should diminish their usual quantity of these stimulants until acclimatized, and observe early hours for diet. Exercise should be taken so as to produce a gentle action on the skin, and not fatigue, but avoid exposure to the sun. Riding is to be preferred to walking, it being less exciting. When acclimatized, exercise should be gradually increased, and when fairly recovered, as much daylight in the open air as strength will permit should be passed. Those who have suffered from fever should be cautious to avoid the jungle at the foot of the hills, and if unfortunately detained there, a course of purgatives followed by small doses of quinine should be pursued. Cold feet (a general complaint with new comers especially females) are remedied by adopting lambswool or worsted stockings which should form the stock of people in good or indifferent health.

SIMLAH (PROPERLY SHIMLAH.)

I.—ROUTES AND APPROACHES.

A few day's dak from the plains brings the traveller, to this Sanatorium. On approaching Bhar at the foot of the hills, (via Kurnaul, Amballa and Penjore), which is distant about 30 miles from Simlah, there are three stage bungalows situated at Chumbul, Hurreepore, and Syree, which lead to Simlah. The ascent from Bhar to the first of these stages is considerable, the road winds up the face of an immense mountain, and brings the traveller to the summit, where he finds the first bungalow. From Chumbul to the Khutwar river, the descent is steep but not dangerous; the course of the traveller is for some miles along its banks through a well cultivated valley, when by a sharp turn of the road he is suddenly brought to a chasm, flanked by perpendicular rocks about 800 or 1000 feet in height, through which the river Gumber rolls. Passing through this gap along the banks of the Gumber, the traveller at length advances half a mile up a gentle ascent to the Hurreepore bungalow, and thence continuing gradually the ascent by a barren, but good road, he reaches Syree, whence he proceeds to Simlah. The roads are excellent and well fenced in.

Previous to ascending the hills, the traveller, as is usual, deposits his carriage, palkee or tent &c. &c. in godowns belonging to Messrs. Barrett and Co. at Bhar and proceeds upwards with such indispensable articles of furniture only as are absolutely necessary. The usual mode of travelling is by 'jampans' a conveyance not unlike a large clumsy chair, having a top from which curtains are suspended. They are carried by four men by means of poles fixed to the sides, and are supplied by Messrs. Barrett and Co.'s agent, together with bearers and porters. Every necessary advice and assistance is given at their Kurnaul establishment.

II.—CLIMATE.

The climate is considered one of the finest in the world. The thermometer, within doors, seldom ranges higher than 62deg. Faht. except in the months of May, June, and July, when it rarely exceeds 72deg. June, July, and August comprise the rainy months; and during the remaining portion of the year, the climate is delightful. Snow seldom falls until January, and except on the north side of the hills, does not lie above two or three days on the ground. The sudden changes of temperature which are occasioned by the alternate winds of the plains and of the snowy ranges, are not of frequent occurrence; hot winds are unknown; and the weather is not so variable as elsewhere on the Himalaya range.

III.—PRODUCTIONS.

Iron, bees' wax, honey, borax, musk, wool, ginger, opium, apricots, walnuts, strawberries, raspberry, quince, green-gage, red and black currants, rhubarb, salip-misry, wheat, gram, kallae, mote, barley, rice, &c. In some well cultivated gardens, peas, beans, cabbages, lettuces, currants, and parsnips, &c. &c. may be had all the year round.

The fir, oak, rhododendron, holly, ivy, thistle, nettle, briar, violet primrose, thyme, oage, mint, marjoram, &c. &c. may be also seen.

IV.—RESOURCES AND SUPPLIES.

Supplies equal to the consumption of the Simlah community, cannot be obtained from any quarter within a hill journey of 3 or 4 days, but there is no scarcity, and they may be had at a trifle more than at other stations. Tables, chairs, almirahs, crockery, glass ware, cooking utensils, and supplies for the table, can always be had at moderate prices. Live stock of every description are carried up to the sanatorium from the plains, and may also be had from Kurnaul. Every other description of European manufacture is also obtainable at the warehouses established at Simlah. Poultry are not bred for sale near Simlah in consequence of the entire population of the hills being Hindoos.

Houses.—There are upwards of 100 English built houses, varying in rent from 400 to 1,500 Rs. a year. For the former sum may be had three rooms, a cook-room, stable, and houses for eight servant: and for 1,000 Rs. and upwards a house capable of accommodating a General Officer or high Civil Servant.

V.—POPULATION.

The number of inhabitants, consisting of Hindoos, was estimated at 336,901, in the year 1832, and if one-tenth of that be added, the present population of the hills may be said to consist of 370,590 souls.

Character of the People.—They are simple, honest, industrious and inoffensive, but greatly void of hospitality. Their industry extends merely to the cultivation of their lands, and they know little or nothing of the benefits of commerce though their country abounds with the richest stores of nature. Not one in a hundred amongst them would, in the least degree, in convenience himself to accommodate a traveller even for one night, and it is frequently by means of threats that they are induced to supply him with the necessaries of life, in exchange for coin.

VI.—COMMERCE AND MANUFACTURES.

Commerce is not much attended to. The exports chiefly comprise iron, bees' wax, honey, borax, musk, wool, ginger, and opium. The manufactures consist of cotton and woollen cloths, ghee, &c.

VII.—RIVERS.

The Ghiree, Khutwar, and the Gumber, the first of which is within five hours' drive from Simlah.

NATIVE EAST INDIAN GOVERNMENTS.

CABUL.

Shah Soojah ool Moolk, has lately been placed on the throne of Cabul, by the British Arms, which still support him there, under the direction of the British Envoy and Minister.

Dost Mahommed Khan, one of the Brothers of Futteh Khan, the celebrated Visier of Mahmood, and chief of the Barickzye Clan, the most powerful in Afghanistan had for some years ruled this country. On the base and cruel murder of Futteh Khan by Mahmood at the instigation of Prince Kamran, his Brothers revolted from their allegiance under the guidance of Azeem Khan, the Governor of Cashmere, and drove Mahmood and his son from Cabul. Azeem Khan in the first instance offered the vacant throne to Shah Soojah, (considered the legitimate King by the British Government,) but offended by some personal slight withdrew his support, and placed in his room, Eyoob, a Brother of Soojah, who was content to take the trappings without the power of royalty. On Azeem Khan's death, his Brothers dissatisfied with their position, conspired against his son, Hubeeb Oollah Khan, and seizing his person, by threats of blowing him from a Gun, induced his mother to deliver up the residue of Azeem Khan's immense wealth. Eyoob's son was killed in these disputes and he himself alarmed by these scenes of violence fled to Lahore. Dost Mahommed the most talented of the Brothers, then took possession of the throne, and became de facto King of Cabul. Shere Dil Khan accompanied by four Brothers carried off about half a million sterling of Azeem Khan's money, and seated himself in Candahar, as an independent Chieftain. He and one of his Brothers are dead; and Candahar was until lately ruled by Cohun Dil Khan, assisted by his two surviving Brothers, Ruheem Dil and Mer Dil.

At the period of the flight of Eyoob from Cabul, Peshawar was governed by a Brother of Dost Mahommed who with another Brother were both killed in battle and were succeeded by Mahommed Khan, who is a tributary of Kurruck Sing's. He is on bad terms with his brother Dost Mahommed; but out of the revenues of Peshawar supports his younger Brothers Peer and Saëed Mahommed and the families of his two predecessors.

KING OF THE SEIKHS.

His Highness, Maha Raja Kurruck Singh, King of the Seikhs.

His dominions comprise, the Punjab, Cashmere, Peshawur, Moulton, part of Scinde, &c; he is the son of Runjeet Singh and Grand son of Maha Singh and about fifty-two years of age; he has one son Now Nehal Singh.

The Government of the Seikhs had been formerly divided among a number of petty independent chieftains under the Khalsa or commonwealth, "to the established rules and laws of which, as fixed by Guru Govind, it was their moral religious duty to conform." The ancestors of Ranjit Singh had been in possession of but a few villages, until his father, by feudatory depredations, and the conquest of Lahore, laid the foundation of the present considerable power which has now subdued almost all, the petty Seikh chiefs.

KING OF OUDE.

The family of the princes of Oude are descended from Meer Mahammed Amen, of a noble, family in Persia, who came to India in the reign of Behadour Shah, and was received into the Imperial service, under the name of Saadut Khan. He was appointed to the Government of Oude in 1719 on the accession of Mehammed Shah to the throne of Delhi. He had no son, and was, therefore, succeeded by his nephew and son in law. On the death of Asoph-ud-dowla without any male issue, his spurious son Vizier Ally, assumed the reigns of government, but his illegitimacy being discovered, he was, after a reign of four months deposed, and Saadat Ally, the brother of Asoph-ud-dowla, ascended the musnud on the 21st of January, 1798. He died in 1814 and was succeeded by his son Ghazi-ud-dien Hyder, who relinquished the title of Newab, in 1819 and assumed that of King; he died in 1827 and was succeeded by his son Shah Zuman, who assumed the titles of "His Majesty Aboo Nusser, Kootab-ood-Deen Soliman Jah, Zuman Padshah, King of Oude!" This prince died in 1837 and was succeeded by his uncle, the present sovereign.

KING OF AVA.

The name of the King is Maung Tsen, but it is not considered respectful to mention it. His titles are as follows:—"His most glorious and excellent Majesty the Lord of the Tshadda," King of Elephants, Master of many White Elephants and Proprietor of Mines of Gold, Silver, Rubies, Amber and the Noble Serpentine, Sovereign of the Empires of Thunaparanta and Tampadipa and other great Empires and Countries, and of all the Umbrella wearing Chiefs, the Supporter of Religion, the Sun-descended Monarch, Arbitrer of Life, and great King of Righteousness, who bears the honorary name (on Pali) of "the Illustrious in the three worlds, the King of Kings, possessor of boundless dominion and supreme wisdom, and great King of Righteousness."

His dominions consist of Burmah Proper, the old kingdoms of Toung-ngu and Pegu, and the Shan States and Districts of Kale, Thanngthut, Khanti, Mogaung, Bamo, Monhyen, Momait, Main Loun. Taung-bain, Thainni, Kaingmha, Main Main, Main Leng-gyih, Kyain Youn-gvih, Kvaingtoun, Kyain Khysaing, Thibo, Thoun-zay, Monch, Kyain-toung, Kyain-kham. Nyaung-yue, Légya, Mauk-me, Mobyé, Main Pain, Main Pun, Main Pan, Main Kaing. Naung-mun, Thiggit, Tabet, Youk-zouk, Main Tsait, Enle, &c., all of which States and districts, however, are differently named, more or less, by the Shans themselves.

The present King of Ava was born on the 23d July 1784, and succeeded his Grand-father, Col. Symes's Minderagee, on the 6th June 1819. He is therefore now (1st January 1842) 56 years old, and has reigned 21 years. He has one son, named Tsakya Men, born on the 9th February 1803, and one daughter, named Thiri-ti-lauga Nyat-zwa, born on the 22d November 1831. He has several brothers, Tharawadi Men, Bo-wun Men, Thibo Men, &c. But his brother-in-law, the Queen's brother, named Tsalen Men, and Menthag-yih or great Prince, is the most influential and powerful Prince, in fact, the regent of the kingdom at present. His uncle, named Mekkhara Men, the late King's youngest son, is by far the most intelligent man in the country, and has lately been elected an Honorary Member of the Asiatic Society of Bengal. The present King of Ava has not nominated or acknowledged his son as his successor, and his death will, most probably, be followed by tumult and civil war at the capital.

Since the above was written, a revolution has occurred at Ava, and the King's brother, the Prince of Tharawadi, has usurped the throne, removing his brother and placing him under surveillance, and seizing his ministers and Officers putting several of them to death, and confining others as well as the Queen's brother, the Men-thag-yih, in irons, and working them on the roads as common felons.—He assumed the Sovereignty on the 9th of April 1837, with the titles of Yatana-Thaing, Koun-baung men, and Shue-Bo Bhuren, King of Yatana-Thaing, Koun-baung, and Sovereign of Shue-Bo, different names for Alompra's old capital Mouttshobo, to which place he has determined upon removing the seat of Empire.—On the 10th of June 1837 he and the whole of his Court and public officers deserted the City of Ava and removed to a place named Kyoukmyaung, situate 60 miles above Ava on the right bank of the Erawadi and 14 miles due East of Mouttshobo.—Here he proposes to remain until the palace and public buildings at Mouttshobo are completed, and fit for the reception of himself and followers.

This Prince was born of the same mother as the late King, on Wednesday the 6th September 1786, and he is therefore now (1st January 1842) more than 55 years of age. By his principal Queen he has a grown up son and daughter, the former styled Taung-dweng-gyaung men, and the latter said to be highly skilled in Astrology. By inferior Queens he has numerous other children, the principal of whom are, Thait-teng-gyih, now Prince of Promé and President of the Lhwot-tau, and Thait-teng-byu, now Prince of Pak-hang-yih and a General. His Uncle, the Prince of Mekkhara, has also been placed in the Lhwottau or Council of State, but he is too timid to interfere much. The name of the present King is Maung Kheng.

KING OF SIAM.

His usual titles are, "The God Buddha who dwells over every head, the Lord of life and master of the Palace." His dominions consist of Siam Proper, of the Shan States of Ch'hiung Mai, Lamp-hun, Lak-hon, Meuang Nan, Meuang Fang, Lan-ch'hang, Luang P'hubang, h'hiung Sen, Ch'hiung Rai, and others, of part of the old kingdom of Cambodia, and of the Malayan States of Queda and Patani.

The present King is the same person whom Mr. Crawford saw as Prince Krom Chait at Bangkok in the year 1822. He was the eldest son by an inferior wife of the late King, whom he succeeded on the 21st July 1824, with the general consent of the Country, and he is now about 50 years of age. His successor, it is supposed will be his brother Chao Fa. "Lord of Heaven," the eldest son of the late King by his principal Queen. The other Members of the Royal family of Siam are said to amount to nearly three thousand.

KING OF NEPAUL.

Maharaja Raj Rajendra Vikram Sah, King of Nepal, succeeded his father at the early age of two years; is now twenty six-years old; has two infant sons; is the son of Giriwan Juddha Vikram Sah, the son of Prithwi Pal Sah, the successor of Run Bahadur the son of Sing Pertaup, the son of Purthi Narrain, the Goorkhali conqueror of Nepal, who subdued it in 1768.

The death of the present Rajah's father is one of those, which Princes whose caprice is the law, have met with. Giriwan Juddha Vikram Sah having caused a pagoda, like that of Juggernath, to be erected, ordered similar obedience to be paid to it. This excited dissatisfaction amongst his people; and one of his brothers took advantage of this opportunity revenging the death of another brother, who had been put to death by the eradication of his eyes, by order of the Rajah. He accordingly went to the Court, and pretending to remonstrate with him on the injustice of his late order, struck him with his sabre. He was, however, immediately killed by the Causy Bhimsen, who was present, and the infant prince was placed on the Musnud. On the night of the same day, three hundred persons, on whom any suspicion fell, were, it is supposed, put to death by the Causy's order. Nepal is tributary to China from the year 1792.

NIZAM OF HYDRABAD.

His Highness Nawab Asoph Jah Moozuffer-ul-moomalik Meer Furkondeh Ali Khan Bahadour Fnteh Jung, Nizam of Hyderabad, ascended the Musnud on the 24th of May, 1829; is the son and successor of Secunde Jah, the eldest of the eight sons of Nizam Ali Khan, the younger brother of Salabut Jung, the uncle and successor of Mozuffer Jung, the nephew and successor of Nazir Jung, the second son of Nizam-ul-Moolk, who obtained the Soubadary of the Deccan in 1717, in the reign of Ruffee-ul-Dirjet.

Before the formation of a treaty of perpetual alliance with the English, on the 12th October, 1800, the subadary of the Deccan had suffered continual disturbance. When Asoph Jah Nizam-ul-moolk returned from Delhi, in 1740, he fought in 1741, his son Nazir Jung who had rebelled against him. Nizam-ul-moolk died in 1748, from which time, to the year 1763, a period of 15 years, three princes had ascended the Musnud, and were successively assassinated. Muzuffer Jung was grandson to Nizam-ul-moolk by his younger daughter's side. Nizam-ul-Moolk removed his capital from Aurungabad to Hyderabad.

RAJAH OF GWALIOR.

His Highness, Maharajah Janko Rao Scindia, Rajah of Gwalior, Succeeded to the Scindia Government on the 18th June, 1827, is now twenty two years of age; was elected by Baiza Bai, the widow of Dowlet Rao Scindia; the nephew of Madhajee Scindia, the son of Ranojee Scindia.

The Family of Scindia are Sudras, of the tribe of Kumblee, or cultivators. Ranojee was employed by Peishwa Bajerow, as the bearer of his slippers, from which situation he rose to eminence; and when Bajerow having succeeded his father, Biswanath Row, in the office of Peishwa, in May 1720; came into Malwa in 1731; Ranojee was a Mahratta chieftain of high rank. So that the Sovereign authority of the Scindia family cannot have existed more than between a hundred and one hundred and ten years. Baiza Bai was expelled in 1833 by the present Rajah.

RAJAH OF BHURTPORE.

His Highness, Maharajah Balwont Singh, Rajah of Bhurtpore, succeeded his father in August, 1824; was displaced by one of his cousins, Durjun Sal, in March, 1825, but reinstated by the British Government, on the 19th of January, 1826; is yet a minor in age; the son of Buldeb Singh, the second brother of Ranadhar Singh, the eldest of the four sons of Runjeet Singh, the son of Kairy Singh, the brother of Ruttun Singh, the brother of Jowahur Singh, the son of Sooraj Mull, the founder of the principality, killed in 1763.

The settlements of the Jauts, (of which tribe the Rajah of Bhurtpore is,) in the Dooab of the Ganges and Jumna, is dated in 1700, when they migrated from the banks of the Indus. During Aurengzebe's last march towards the Deccan. Churamun, the Jaut, pillaged the baggage of the Army, and with part of the spoil erected the fortress of Bhurtpore. The present prince, like many of his predecessors, is not legitimately descended being the son of a female slave of the name of Saheb Romar. When a Rajah has no son, his purchases females, and the boy begotten on any of them, is adopted by the Rajah and the Paut Ranees.

RAJAH OF KOTAH.

His Highness, Maharaja Bishen Singh, Rajah of Kotah. The son of Kishour Rao, the son of Maha Rao Omid Singh.

RAJAH OF INDOOR.

His Highness, Maharajah Hurry Rao Holkar, the cousin and successor of Moulhar Rao the third, the adopted son and successor of Jeswont Rao Holkar, the brother of Casi Rao, the eldest of the four sons of Tukajee Holkar, a chief who was elected to the Government of the Holkar state by Ahillia Bai, on the death of her son Mallee Row.

The Holkar family are of the Dhoongur or shepherd tribe. The derivation of the name Holkar, or, more properly, Hulkur, is from Hull a village, and Kur, an inhabitant. Moulhar Rao, I was the first prince of the Holkar family; and the time when he obtained any local authority was in 1728; the district of Indore was assigned to him in 1733. He had only one son, Kundi Row, who died in 1754, many years previous to his father's death, and left one only son Mallee Row. He also died after a reign of nine months after the death of Moulhar Row. The original family being thus extinct, Ahillia Bai elected Tukajee Holkar to the principality. He had four sons, Casi Row and Moulhar Row by his wife, and Jeswont Row and Etojee by his mistress,

RAJAH OF JOYNAGAR OR JYEPOOR.

His Highness, the infant son of Maharaja Sewai Singh, Rajah of Joynagar, or Jyepoor, who is the son of Jagat Singh, the son of Pratap Singh, the son of Maho Singh, the son of Ram Singh, the son of Sewai Jysinh, who lived in the time of Mehamed Shah. The young prince is about three years of age and Ravul Bairi Saul is the regent during his minority, appointed by the British government.

RAJAH OF JOUDHPOOR OR MARWAR.

His Highness, Maharaja Maun Singh, Rajah of Joudhpoor or Marwar is a distant relation of Bhim Singh.

The earliest Rajah of this country on record was Maharaja Jeswont Singh, who having died near Cabul, in 1581, Aurungzebe, one of whose best generals the Maharaja was, gave orders forcibly to convert his children. The family were thus compelled to take refuge in the hills and woods, and on the death of Aurungzebe, regained their former possession. Ajit Singh, the grandson of Jeswont Singh, having rebelled. The Rajah of Joudhpoor is of the tribe of Rhattore Rajpoots.

RAJAH OF BOGHELKUND.

His Highness Maharaja Biswanath Singh, Rajah of Boghelkund. The principality of Boghelkund is perhaps the most ancient Hindu dynasty now existing in India.

RAJAH OF BHOONDEE.

His Highness Rao Rajah Ram Singh, Rajah of Bhoondee. The Bhoondee Rajah is of the Hara tribe. "During the retreat of Colonel Monson, in 1804, the Bhoondee Rajah greatly assisted him in his distress; and his conduct has been uniformly friendly to the English; yet, at the peace of 1805, he was abandoned by the Government to the vengeance of the Mahrattas." Hamilton, page 173.

RAJAH OF OUDEYPORE.

His Highness, Raj Rana Jawan Singh, the son of Rana Bhim Singh, Rajah of Oudeypore.

The family of the princes of Oudeypore, belong to the Sesodia tribe or Rajpoots, which is considered the most noble of all the Rajpoot tribes. The family is also regarded highly by the Mohamedans, in consequence of a tradition, that he is descended, in the female line, from the celebrated Noushirvan, who was King of Persia at the birth of Mohamed, and thus to have in that line a common origin with the descendents of Hossein, the son of Ali.

RAJAH OF BIKANERE.

His Highness, Maharaj Ratten Singh, Rajah of Bikanere, the son of Surat Singh.

The country of Bikanere is governed by the Rhattore Rajpoots, but the cultivators are mostly Jauts.

PORTUGUESE POSSESSIONS IN INDIA.

- I. The Government of Goa which consists of the Goa islands (annexed to the Portuguese Crown in 1510); of the peninsular of Salsette and Bardez; of the five provinces of Zambaulim commonly called Panchmally viz. Astragar, Embarbaxem, Baly, Chondrovaddy and Cacora; and also Ponda and Caracona (annexed in June 1763); of Bicholim and Satary in 1781 and finally of Pernem in 1788.

The Goa islands contain about 40,000 inhabitants, chief town, Pangim; Salsette, 80,000 inhabitants, chief town, Margoa; Bardez about 90,000 inhabitants, chief town, Mabuça, the whole population directly dependant on this Government amount to about 317,000; of these two thirds are Christians.*

Governor General (ad interim) Joze Joaquim Lopez de Lima.

Civil and Military Secretary—Claudio Lagrange Monteiro de Barbuda.

The Governor who has a Council to aid him, is at the head of the departments of Finance, Army, and Navy.

There are six Military Commanders in the provinces.

The troops are composed of 3,742 regulars with 477 irregular sepoys.

- II. Damao (1559) population 32,000; is remarkable as a place for shipbuilding. Governor. MAJOR Manoel Correa da Silva Araujo.

- III. Diu (1535) population 9,000. Governor, COL. Rodrigo Luciano d'Abreu e Lima.

- IV. Macao (a Chinese port and city in which the Portuguese have been allowed to settle since 1586) Population about 5,000. Governor COLONEL Adriaao Accacio, da Silveira Pinto

- V. Timor, (this island was acquired in the 16th century) contains about 500,000 inhabitants, of whom a fifth are Christians. Chief town Dilli. Governor LIEUT. COL. Frederico Leao Cabreira. One troop of 150, Regulars and 15000 Irregulars.

* The Portuguese had established about the middle of the 16th century by the authority of the Pope, an Archiepiscopal See in Goa, in which the rights of Primacy over all India were declared vested; but that hierarchy having become extinct, the Propaganda College of Rome has sent missionary Bishops, who hold authority over a great part of the Native Christians. The most disgraceful disputes are maintained on the part of some of the subordinate Ecclesiastics, who refuse obedience to those Bishops.

The British Government would act wisely in making effective arrangement for taking the power out of the hands of both parties, and having it confided to Bishops in whom as British subjects full confidence could be reposed.

Nuldroog. The Nwab Dooly Khan's ,.....	14	6

Note.—The set in this division is calculated for 12 bearers and 1 mausaljee.

The set at Tandoolwarree carries to Nuldroog, to which place the Postmaster at Poona has to post bearers for persons travelling post by order of Government.

When a private gentleman requires bearers to be posted for him, he should be very particular in stating to his correspondent whom he relies on for assistance, the day even the hour, on which he proposes to commence his journey; the places he intends to halt at for refreshment, and the time he intends to halt for that purpose. If neglectful of these particulars the hummalls may reach their stations several days before they are required, and incur to the traveller, perhaps a great additional expense. Should the traveller on any occasion wish to halt a day at any place, his stating his intention previously would save the posting of one set. For instance, a traveller from Bombay to Poona will meet the first Poona set at Khalapoor, and supposing that they take him to the top of the ghat to breakfast, they can, having refreshed themselves, take him on in the evening to Wurgaon; or they might come to Karlee to breakfast and run to Wurgaon or Tuligaon in the evening. For the extra labour, however, they would be entitled to at least half a rupee each man additional. The hummalls at Panwell are under the Collector at Tanna, at Poona they are under the Collector in the city, and under the Bazar Master in camp; and this applies also to Sholapoor.

It may be as well to mention also that any mistake in posting any one set may subject the traveller to great loss of time and considerable expence.

Note.—The road to Manicapatam is through heavy sand, with the Chitka Lake close on the right. At Manicapatam cross an arm of the sea one mile wide at low water, which communicates with the Chitka Lake. At Nursingapatam cross a Rivulet which has a ferry boat on it during the rains. Cross the Bandia nulla, 100 yards wide near Juggonath Pooree, a small civil and military station: the residents at which have houses on the sea coast about a mile from the celebrated temple of Jagganath. Cross the Teon Mahanuddee to Mookoondapoor, two miles on the Jagganath side of Peeplee. The civil and military station of Cuttack is on the banks of the Mahanuddee, one mile east of the city of Cuttack, which is on the Ratgoree river. The Ratgoree is one mile wide, and ferried over from June to February: during the other months it is fordable.

In the Ganjam district oil is to be paid for as required, and batta of one anna to each person after the first day, is 15 annas per diem additional. In the Cuttack district oil is charged when used at 4 annas each stage.

If a traveller leaves Cuttack at 5 o'clock in the afternoon, he will arrive at Bhareepoor, half way to Balasore about 8 or 9 o'clock the next morning, where there is a bungalow for the accommodation of travellers. He can remain at Bhareepoor during the heat of the day, start again in the evening and reach Balasore to breakfast. Proceed again in the cool of the evening, and arrive at Danton, half way to Midnapoor, early next morning; where there is a comfortable house for the accommodation of travellers. In like manner if he goes on again in the evening to Midnapoor, another night will take him to Tumlook, where he gets into a boat and proceeds up the Hooghly to Calcutta.

A traveller with one set consisting of 8 bearers, 2 bangy burdars, and two mausals, pays 8 annas per mile, agreeably to regulation, and pays 2 annas per man per diem for detaining the bearers on the road. Or he may pay 3 annas per man for each stage from Tanghee to Khutnaghur.

During the moonsoon it is recommended to travellers from Midnapore to run to Tumlook, which is 51 miles viz. via Debrah and Purtabpoor, and embark there on the Roopnaraen river, a branch of the Hooghly. The passage is about 15 hours to Calcutta. The expense from Jellasure to Tumlook, 12 stages, is 264 Rs. for bearers, and 1½ Rs. for oil, being for 12 bearers, 2 bangy burdars, and 1 mausallee.

The distance by sea from Bombay to Panwell, about 20 miles, and from Tumlook to Calcutta, about 90 miles, should be added to make the whole distance from Bombay to Calcutta. The distance by land, however, from Tumlook to Calcutta, is only 50 miles.

Good hummals will go four miles an hour, sometimes more, but the time occupied in the journey depends principally on the traveller himself. From 20 to 22 days is a reasonable allowance for the journey to a stout man.

A CHRONOLOGICAL TABLE.

OF THE PRINCIPAL GEOGRAPHICAL DISCOVERIES

OF MODERN EUROPEAN NATIONS.

A. D.

- 861 Feroe Islands..discovered about this time by a Scandinavian vessel.
- 871 Iceland..discovered by some Norwegian chiefs, who were compelled to leave their native country. According to some accounts, it had been, visited before this, by a Scandinavian pirate, Naddodd.
- 950 Greenland..discovered by the Icelanders about this period. The first colony established there was destroyed by a pestilence in the 14th century and by the accumulation of ice which prevented all communication between Iceland and Greenland.

XL. And it is hereby enacted, that when Goods shall be brought to be passed through the Custom House, either for importation or exportation by Sea, if the packages in which the same may be contained shall be found not to correspond with the description of them given in the application passing them through the Custom House, or if the contents thereof be found not to have been correctly described in regard to sort, quantity, or quality, or if any Goods not stated in the application be found concealed in or mixed up with the specified articles, all such packages with the whole of the Goods contained therein shall be liable to confiscation.

XLI. And it is hereby enacted, that if any person after Goods have been landed, and before they have been passed through the Custom House, removes or attempts to remove them with the intention of defrauding the revenue, the Goods shall be liable to confiscation, unless it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the Collector of Customs that the removal was not sanctioned by the owner or by any person having an interest in or power over the Goods.

XLII. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Collector of Customs, whenever he shall see fit, to require that Goods brought by Sea and stowed in bulk shall be weighed or measured on board ship, before being sent to land to levy Duty according to the result of such weighing or measurement.

And if the owners, importers, or consignees do not bring their Goods to land within the period above fixed, it shall be the duty of the Master so to do.

XLV. And it is hereby enacted, that when there shall be no Customs Officer sent aboard vessels discharging cargo, it shall be lawful for the Collector of Customs to fix a period, not being less than twenty days, for the discharge thereof and clearance of the vessel inwards; and if any Goods remain on board after the time so fixed, or after the time allowed in the last preceding Section of this Act, the Collector may order the same to be landed and warehoused for the security of the Duties chargeable thereon, and of any freight and primage and other demands that may be due thereon, giving his receipt to the Master for the same. Provided always, that in all cases it shall be lawful for the Collector or other Offieer in charge of the Custom House, with the consent of the Master of the vessel, to cause any packages to be brought on shore and to be deposited in the Government Warehouses for the security of the Duties and charges thereon, although, twenty days may not have expired from entry of such vessel, and in case any Goods brought to land from any vessel be not claimed and cleared from the Custom House within three months from the date of entry of the ship in which such Goods were imported, it shall be competent to the Collector to sell the same on account of the Duties and other charges due thereon, and the balance remaining after deducting the said Duties and charges shall be held in deposit and paid to the owner on application.

XLVI. And it is hereby enacted, that when a Customs Officer shall be sent on board of any vessel discharging cargo, a further period of fifteen days, Sundays and Holidays excluded, beyond the twenty days above specified shall be allowed for putting on board export cargo, if the vessel shall not exceed six hundred tons burthen, and twenty days if it exceed that burthen, when the landing and unloading thereof shall be continuous, and the Master or Commander shall in such case not be charged with the wages and expenses of the Customs Officer on board until after the expiration of such additional period, and if a vessel having discharged its import cargo shall be laid up, the Customs officer on board, shall certify that no goods remain on board except necessary stores and articles, for use, and when a vessel so laid up shall be entered at the Custom House for receipt of export cargo, a Customs Officer shall be sent on board, and if the said last mentioned Officer shall certify that no Goods are on board, except as above excepted, twenty days exclusive of Sundays and Holidays as above shall be allowed from the date of such Certificate for the loading outwards of a vessel not exceeding six hundred tons, and thirty days for vessels exceeding that burthen, after which periods respectively the Master shall be charged with the wages and expenses of the Customs Officer on board to the date of the vessel's sailing from the port.

XLVII. And it is hereby enacted, that when upon application from the Master of any vessel the Customs Officer shall be removed from on board thereof under the provisions to that effect contained in the last preceding Section of this Act, if the Master of such vessel shall before a Customs Officer have again been placed in such vessel, put on board of such vessel, or cause or suffer to be put on board of such vessel, any Goods whatever, such Master shall be punished with a fine, not exceeding one thousand Rupees, and the Goods shall be liable to be reloaded for examination at the expense of the shippers, upon requisition to that effect from the Collector of Customs.

L. And it is hereby enacted, that when Goods shall be reloaded before the landing of any vessel is complete, and before Port Clearance has been granted, the Duty levied upon such Goods shall be returned to the exporter, but no refund shall be made of Duty paid on the export of any Goods after Port Clearance shall have been granted, for the vessel on which the Goods were exported, unless the vessel shall have put back for stress of weather or for damage, and the Goods shall have been relanded under the rule contained in the last preceding Section of this Act.

L.V. And it is hereby enacted, that no transhipment shall be made of any Goods except under special order in writing from the Collector of Customs of the port, and an Officer of Customs shall in all cases be deputed to superintend the removal of the Goods from vessel to vessel.

Published by order of the Hon'ble the Governor in Council.

L. R. REID, Chief Secretary.

Bombay Castle, 21st Dec. 1840.

Note.—In all custom House transactions, the “Indian Maund” is the measure of weight, and “Imperial Gallon” the measure for Liquids. For all, except the most minutely accurate calculations, 5 Imperial Gallons may be considered equal to 6 Gallons of Old Wine measure, as 100 Imperial Gallons are equal to Gallons of former times 120-032 Decls.

NEW INDIAN WEIGHTS.

- 1 Tola is equal to 180 Grains Troy.
- 80 To as, or 1 Seer, equal to 14,400 Grains Troy.
- 40 Seers or 1 Indian Maund, equal to 5,76,000 Grains Troy, or 100 hs. Troy.

Then as 7,000 Grains Troy, are exactly equal to 1 lb. avoirdupois.

- 1 Seer of 14,400 Grains Troy, is exactly equal to $2\frac{3}{4}$ lbs. avoirdupois.

and

- 1 Maund of 5,76,000 Grains Troy is exactly equal to 82 $\frac{1}{2}$ lbs. avoirdupois.

35 Seers, are exactly equal to 72 lbs. avoirdupois.

7 Indian Maunds, are equal to 576 lbs. or 5 $\frac{1}{4}$ cwt.

49 Do. do. are equal to 4032 lbs. or 36 cwt.

245 Do. do. are equal to 180 cwt. or 9 Tons.

The following Rules for the conversion of New Indian Weight into avoirdupois Weight and vice versa deduced from the foregoing data, are given in the volume of “Useful Tables” published by Mr. James Prinsep, in Calcutta, in 1834, Page 66.

Rule 1st.—To Convert Indian Weight into avoirdupois weight.

1st.—Multiply the weight in Seers by 72, and divide by 35, the result will be weight in lbs. avoirdupois.

2nd.—Or Multiply the weight in Maunds by 36, and divide by 49, the result will be the weight in cwt. avoirdupois.

† By Claret usually denominated English claret is meant the shipments made by such establishments as Sneyd, Carbonell, Todd, and Bosanquet &c. as wine from their Firms.

Rule 2nd.—To Convert a voidupois weight into Indian weight.

1st.—Multiply the weight in lbs. voidupois by 35, and divide by 72, the result will be the weight in seers.

IV. And it is hereby enacted, that at every port where registry shall be made in pursuance of this Act a book shall be kept by the Registering Officer in which all the particulars contained in the form of the certificate of the registry herein before directed to be used shall be duly entered; and every registry shall be numbered in progression beginning such progressive numeration at the commencement of each and every year. And such Registering Officer shall forthwith, or within one month at the furthest, send to the Government of the Presidency to which he is subordinate a true and exact copy, together with the number of every certificate which shall be by him so granted.

V. And it is hereby enacted, that no registry shall henceforth be made or certificate be granted, until the following declaration be made or subscribed before the Registering Officer, by the owner or major part of the owners of the ship or vessel required to be registered.

I, A. B., of (place of residence and occupation) do truly declare that the ship or vessel (name) of (port or place) whereof (master's name) is at present master, being (kind of built, burthen, etcetera, as described in the certificate of the Surveying Officer) was (when and where) built and that I the said (A. B.) and the other owners (names and occupations if any and where they respectively reside) am (or are) sole owner (or owners) of the said vessel and that no other person or persons whatever hath or have any right, title, interest, share, or property therein or thereto; and that I the said (A. B.) and the said other owners (if any) am (or are) truly and bona fide a subject (or subjects) of Her Majesty for whom the Governor General of India in Council has power to legislate, and that no person not being subject as aforesaid, directly or indirectly, hath any share or part interest in the said ship or vessel. Provided that if the Registering Officer shall see occasion to doubt the truth of any of the facts contained in the above declaration he shall not deem such declaration to be conclusive, but may refuse the registry or certificate, and his discretion exercised in this behalf shall be subject only to an appeal to the local Government to which he is subordinate.

VI. And it is hereby enacted, that in case the required number of joint owners of any ship or vessel shall not personally attend to make and subscribe the declaration herein before directed to be made and subscribed, then and in such cases such owner or owners as shall personally attend and make and subscribe the declarations aforesaid, shall further declare that the part owner or part owners of such ship or vessel then absent, is or are not resident within twenty miles of such port or place, and hath or have not to the best of his or their knowledge or belief, wilfully absented himself or themselves in order to avoid the making the declaration herein before directed to be made and subscribed, or is or are prevented by illness from attending to make and subscribe the said declaration.

VII. And in order to enable the Registering Officer to grant a certificate truly and accurately describing every ship or vessel to be registered in pursuance of this Act, and also to enable all other Officers of Customs on due examination, to discover whether any such ship or vessel is the same with that for which a certificate is alleged to have been granted, it is hereby enacted, that previous to the registering or granting of any certificate of registry as aforesaid some one or more person or persons appointed by the local Governments respectively, taking to his or their assistance if he or they shall judge it necessary, one or more person or persons skilled in the building and admeasurement of ships, shall go on board of every such ship or vessel that is to be registered, and shall strictly and accurately examine and admeasure every such ship or vessel as to all and every particular contained in the form of the certificate hereinbefore directed in the presence of the master, or of any other person who shall be appointed for that purpose on the part of the owner or owners, or in his or their absence by the said master, and shall deliver a true and just account in writing of all such particulars of the built, description, and admeasurement of every such ship or vessel as are specified in the form of the certificate above recited to the Officer authorized to make such registry and grant such certificate of registry as aforesaid; and the said master or other person attending on the part of the owner or owners is hereby required to sign his name also to the certificate of such Surveying or Examining Officer, in testimony of the truth thereof, provided such master or other person shall consent and agree to the several particulars set forth and described therein.

VIII. And it is hereby enacted, that from and after the commencement of this Act the tonnage of every ship or vessel required by law to be registered, shall, previous to her being registered, be measured and ascertained while her hold is clear, and according to the following rule; (that is to say) divide the length of the upper deck between the afterpart of the stem and the forepart of the stern post into six equal parts. Depths: at the foremost, the middle, and the aftermost of those points of division, measure in feet and decimal parts of a foot the depths from the underside of the upper deck to the ceiling at the timber strake. In the case of a break in the upper deck, the depths are to be measured from a line stretched in a continuation of the deck. Breadths: divide each of those three depths into five equal parts and measure the inside breadths at the following points, videlicet, at one-fifth and at four-fifths from the upper deck of the foremost and aftermost depths, and at two-fifths and four-fifths from the upper deck of the midship depth. Length: at half the midship depth measure the length of the vessel from the afterpart of the stem to the forepart of the stern-post, then to twice the midship depth add the foremost and the aftermost depths for the sum of the depths; add together the upper and lower breadths at the foremost division, three times the upper breadth, and the lower breadth at the midship division, and the upper and twice the lower breadth at the after division, for the sum of the breadths: then multiply the sum of the depths by the sum of the breadths, and this product by the length, and divide the final product by three thousand, five hundred, which will give the number of tons for register. If the vessel have a poop or half deck, or a break in the upper deck, measure the inside mean length, breadth and height of such part thereof as may be included within the bulk head; multiply these three measurements together, and dividing the product by 92.4 the quotient will be the number of tons to be added to the result as above found. In order to ascertain the tonnage of open vessels, the depths are to be measured from the upper edge of the upper strake.

IX. And it is hereby provided, that in each of the several rules hereinbefore prescribed when applied for the purpose of ascertaining the tonnage of any ship or vessel propelled by steam, the tonnage due to the cubical contents of the engine room shall be deducted from the total tonnage of the vessel as determined by either of the rules aforesaid, and the remainder shall be deemed the true register tonnage of the said ship or vessel. The tonnage due to the cubical contents of the engine room shall be determined in the following manner; that is to say, measure the inside length of the engine room in feet and decimal parts of a foot from the foremost to the aftermost bulk-head then multiply the said length by the depth of the ship or vessel at the midship division as aforesaid, and the product by the inside breadth at the same division at two-fifths of the depth from the deck taken as aforesaid, and divide the last product by 92.4, and the quotient shall be deemed the tonnage due to the cubical contents of the engine room.

X. And it is hereby provided, that the tonnage due to the cubical contents of the engine room shall be set forth in the certificate of registry as part of the description of the ship or vessel, and that any alteration of such tonnage due to the cubical contents of the engine room or of such length of the engine room after registry, shall be deemed to be an alteration requiring registry de novo within the meaning of the said Act for the registering of ships or vessels.

XI. And it is hereby enacted, that for the purpose of ascertaining the tonnage of all such ships whether belonging to the United Kingdom or otherwise, as there shall be occasion to measure while their cargoes are on board, the following rule shall be observed and is hereby established; (that is to say,) measure, first the length on the upper deck between the afterpart of the stem and the forepart of the sternpost; secondly, the inside breadth on the underside of the upper deck at the middle point of the length; and, thirdly, the depth from the underside of the upper deck down the pump well to the skia, multiply these three dimensions together, and divide the product by one hundred and thirty, and the quotient will be the amount of the register tonnage of such ships.

XII. And it is hereby enacted that the true amount of the register tonnage of every merchant ship or vessel belonging to the United Kingdom, to be ascertained according to the rule by this Act established in respect of such ships, shall be deeply carved or cut in figures of at least three inches in length on the main beam of every such ship or vessels prior to her being registered.

XIII. And it is hereby provided that Country Craft employed in Coasting voyages not exceeding the burden of 200 tons may be registered and the tonnage marked according to rules to be prescribed from time to time by the respective local Governments.

XIV. And it is hereby enacted, that whenever the tonnage of any ship or vessel shall have been ascertained according to the rules herein prescribed such account of tonnage shall ever after be deemed the tonnage of such ship or vessel, and shall be repeated in every subsequent registry of such ship or vessel, unless it shall happen that any alteration has been made in the form or burden of such ship or vessel, or it shall be discovered that the tonnage of such ship or vessel had been erroneously taken and computed.

XV. And it is hereby enacted, that if such certificate as aforesaid shall be sold, lent, or otherwise disposed of to any person or persons whatever than those for whose use it is granted, or shall be made use of for the service of any other ship or vessel than the ship or vessel for which it is granted, such certificate shall thenceforth be utterly void and the master or any owner of the ship or vessel who shall be proved to have sold, lent, or disposed of such certificate or made use of the same as aforesaid, or shall have concurred in or been privy to the committing any such offence, shall be liable upon conviction by information as aforesaid to a penalty not exceeding 10,000 rupees. And in case such ship or vessel shall be lost or taken by the enemy, burnt, or broken up, or otherwise prevented from returning to the port at which she is registered, or shall on any account have lost and forfeited the privileges of a British ship, or shall have been seized and legally condemned for illicit trading, or shall have been taken in execution for debt and sold by due process of law, or shall have been sold to the Crown or the East India Company, or shall under any circumstances have been registered de novo, the certificate, if preserved, shall be delivered up, within one month after the arrival of the master in any port or place in the territories of the East India Company to the Registering Officer at such port, in default whereof the master or any of the owners shall be liable on conviction by information as aforesaid in a penalty not exceeding 5,000 rupees. And if any person not being such subject as aforesaid shall purchase or otherwise become entitled to the whole or to any part or share of or any interest in such ship or vessel, and the same shall be within the limits of any port of the territories of the East India Company, then and in such case the certificate of registry shall within seven days after such purchase or transfer of property in such ship or vessel, be delivered up to the Registering Officer at such port, and if such ship or vessel shall be in any place not within the territories of the East India Company when such purchase or transfer of property shall take place, then the certificate shall be delivered up within fourteen days after the arrival of such ship or vessel, or of the master thereof in any port of the territories of the East India Company to the Registering Officer at such port in default whereof the master or any of the owners shall be liable on conviction before any Justice of the Peace in a penalty not exceeding 5,000 rupees recoverable in manner provided by Act No. 2 of 1839.

XVI. And it is hereby enacted, that when and so often as the master of any ship or vessel registered in manner hereinbefore directed shall be changed, the master or owner of such ship or vessel shall deliver to the person or persons hereinbefore authorized to make such registry and grant such certificates of registry at the port where such charge shall take place, if it be a port within the territories of the East India Company, the certificate of registry belonging to such ship or vessel, who shall thereupon indorse and subscribe a memorandum of such change, and shall forthwith give notice of the same to the proper officer of the port or place where such ship or vessel was last registered pursuant to this Act who shall likewise make a memorandum of the same in the book of registers which is hereby directed and required to be kept, and shall forthwith give notice thereof in like manner as of the original entry. But if the change do not take place in any port within the territories of the East India Company, then such delivery, memorandum and indorsement shall be made and notice given at the first port within the territories of the East India Company at which the new masters shall arrive after such change. In default of which delivery of the certificate such new master or any of the owners shall be liable on conviction before a Justice of the Peace, to a penalty not exceeding 5,000 rupees recoverable as aforesaid.

XVII. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall not be lawful for any owner or owners of any ship or vessel, to give any name to such ship or vessel other than that by which she was first registered in pursuance of this Act, and that the owner or owners of all and every ship or vessel which shall be so registered, shall, before such ship or vessel after such registry, shall begin to take in any cargo, paint or cause to be painted, in white or yellow letters of a length of not less than four inches upon a black ground on some conspicuous part of the stern, the name by which such ship or vessel shall have been registered pursuant to this Act, and the port to which she belongs in a distinct and legible manner, and shall so keep and preserve the same, and that if such owner or owners, or master or other person having or taking the charge or command of such ship or vessel, shall permit such ship or vessel to begin to take in cargo before the name of such ship or vessel has been so painted as aforesaid, or shall wilfully alter, erase, obliterate, or in any wise hide or conceal, or cause or procure or permit the same to be done or shall in any written or printed paper, or other document describe such ship or vessel by any name other than that by which she was first registered pursuant to this Act, or shall verbally describe, or cause or procure or permit such ship or vessel to be described by any other name to any Officer or Officers of Revenue in the due execution of his or their duty, then and in every such case the certificate of registry shall thenceforth become utterly void, and such owner or owners or master or other person having or taking the charge or command of such ship or vessel shall be liable on information as aforesaid to a penalty not exceeding 10,000 rupees.

XVIII. And it is hereby enacted, that all and every person and persons who shall apply for a certificate of the registry of any ship or vessel shall, and they are hereby required to produce to the person or persons authorized to grant such certificate, a true and full particular under the hand of the builder of such ship or vessel, or in case the want of such certificate can be satisfactorily accounted for, then to produce other sufficient evidence of the proper denomination, and of the time when and the place where such ship or vessel was built, and also an exact account of the tonnage of such ship or vessel, and shall also make and subscribe a declaration before the person or persons hereinbefore authorized to grant such certificate that the ship or vessel for which such certificate is required is the same with that which is so described by the builder as aforesaid.

XIX. And it is hereby enacted, that if the certificate of registry of any ship or vessel shall be lost or mislaid, so that the same vessels when needful, and proof thereof shall be made to the satisfaction of the Registering Officer of the port at which the ship is registered, such Officer shall and may, where the certificate shall have been lost or mislaid, permit such ship or vessel to be registered de novo, and a certificate thereof to be granted, Provided always that if such ship or vessel be absent and far distant from the port to which she belongs, or by reason of the absence of the owner or owners, or of any other impediment, registry of the same cannot then be made in sufficient time, such Registering Officer shall and may grant a license for the present use of such ship or vessel, which license shall for the time and to the extent specified therein, and no longer, be of the same force and virtue as a certificate of registry granted under this Act. Provided always that if the certificate of registry shall at any time afterwards be found, the same shall be forthwith delivered to the proper Officers of Customs to be cancelled, and that no illegal use be made of the same, in default whereof the original certificate and the renewed certificate and license shall thenceforth become utterly void, and any person wilfully detaining the certificate so required to be cancelled, or making any illegal use thereof, shall be liable on conviction before any Justice in a penalty not exceeding 5000 rupees recoverable as aforesaid.

XX. And whereas it is not proper that any person under any pretence whatever should detain the certificate of registry of any ship or vessel, or hold the same for any purpose other than the lawful use and navigation of the ship or vessel for which it was granted, it is therefore hereby enacted, that in case any person who shall have received or obtained by any means or for purpose whatever the certificate of the registry of any such ship or any vessel (whether such person shall claim to be the master or to be the owner or one of the owners of such ship or vessel, or not,) shall wilfully detain and refuse to deliver up the same to the proper Officers of Customs, for the purposes of such ship or vessel, as occasion shall require, or to the person or persons having the actual command, possession, and management of such ship or vessel as the ostensible and reputed master, or as the ostensible and reputed owner or owners thereof, it may and shall be lawful to and for any such last mentioned person to make complaint on oath of such detainer and refusal to any Justice of the Peace residing near to the place where such detainer and refusal shall be, and on such complaint the said Justice shall and is hereby required by warrant under his hand and seal, to cause the person so complained against to be brought before him to be examined touching such detainer and refusal, and if it shall appear to the said Justice on examination of such person or otherwise that the said certificate of registry is not lost or mislaid, but is wilfully detained by the said person, such person shall be subject on conviction before such Justice to a penalty not exceeding 1,000 rupees, recoverable as aforesaid and the said Justice shall, and he is hereby required to certify the aforesaid detainer, refusal, and conviction to the person or persons who granted such certificate of registry for such ship or vessel who shall, on the terms and conditions of law being complied with make registry of such ship or vessel de novo, and grant a certificate thereof conformably to law, notifying on the back of such certificate the ground upon which the ship or vessel was so registered de novo; and if the person who shall have detained and refused to deliver up such certificate of registry as aforesaid, or shall be verily believed to have detained the same, shall have absconded so that the said warrant of the Justice cannot be executed upon him, and proof thereof shall be made to the satisfaction of the Registering Officer of the port at which the ship or vessel was registered, it shall be lawful for the said Officer to permit such ship or vessel to be registered de novo, or otherwise, in his discretion, to grant a license for the present use of such ship or vessel in like manner as is hereinbefore provided in the case where-in the certificate of registry is lost or mislaid.

XXI. And it is hereby enacted, that if any ship or vessel after she shall have been registered pursuant to the directions of this Act, shall in any manner whatever be altered so as not to correspond with all the particulars contained in the certificate of her registry, or if any alteration shall take place in the ownership of any ship or vessel, or of any share or shares thereof, in such cases such ship or vessel shall be registered de novo in manner hereinbefore required as soon as she returns to the port to which she belongs, or to any other port within the territories of the East India Company, on failure whereof such ship or vessel shall be deemed to be a ship or vessel not duly registered, and any person making use of a certificate for the purposes of any ship or vessel which has been granted in respect of the same, after the same ought to have been registered, de novo, shall be liable on conviction before any Justice to a penalty not exceeding 5,000 rupees recoverable as aforesaid.

XXII. And whereas great inconvenience may arise from the Registering Officers being served with subpoenas requiring them to bring with them and produce, on trials in Courts of Law relative to the ownership of vessels, or otherwise the declaration required to be taken by the owners thereof prior to the registering thereof, and the books of registry, or copies or extracts therefrom. And whereas it would tend much to the dispatch of business if the attendance of such Registering Officers with the same upon such trials were dispensed with, it is therefore hereby enacted, that the Registering Officer at any port or place, and the persons acting for them respectively, shall, upon every reasonable request by any person or persons whomsoever, produce and exhibit for his, her or their inspection and examination any declaration made by any such owner or owners, and also any register or entry in any book or books of registry required, and shall upon every reasonable request by any person or persons whomsoever, permit him, her, or them to take a copy or copies, or an extract or extracts thereof respectively, and that the copy and copies of any such oath or declaration, registry or entry, shall upon being proved to be true copy or copies thereof respectively, be allowed and received as evidence upon every trial at law, without the production of the original or originals, and without the testimony or attendance of any Registering Officer, or other person or persons acting for them respectively, in all cases, as fully and to all intents and purposes as such original or originals if produced by any Registering Officer, or other person or persons acting for them, could or might legally be admitted or received in evidence.

XXIII. And it is hereby enacted, that if any person or persons shall falsely make declaration to any of the matters hereinbefore required to be verified by declaration, or if any person or persons shall counterfeit, erase, alter, or falsify any certificate or other instrument in writing required or directed to be obtained, granted, or produced by this Act, or shall knowingly or wilfully make use of any certificate or other instrument so counterfeited, erased, altered, falsified or shall wilfully grant such certificate or other instrument in writing, knowing it to be false, such person or persons shall for every such offence be liable on conviction upon information as aforesaid to a penalty not exceeding 10,000 rupees. And if any such offence be committed by the owner of any ship or vessel, the certificate of such ship or vessel shall henceforth be wholly void.

XXIV. And it is hereby enacted, that when any ship or vessel duly registered under this Act or sailing under the British Navigation Law, shall come to be owned by a Native Prince or State, or by any subject of such Native Prince or State as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the Governor of Fort William in Bengal, or for the Governor in Council of any Presidency, to continue to such ship or vessel the privileges and advantages of a British ship for the purposes aforesaid by a pass to be issued under the Company's Seal and subscribed by a Secretary to Government stating the voyage or voyages for which the same is to have effect, and the period for which it is to last: and it shall be lawful for the Governor of Fort William in Bengal, or the Governor in Council of any Presidency, to issue a similar pass conferring the privileges and advantages of a British ship for the purposes aforesaid under this Act to any ship or vessel built within the dominions of such Native Prince or State, and owned by such Prince or State, or by any of their subjects, provided always, that the ships belonging to Native Princes or States, or their subjects, in respect of which passes may be granted under this Act shall, during the voyage or voyages, or the period for which any such pass shall be granted be commanded by a subject of Her Majesty for whom the Governor General in Council has power to legislate.

XXV. And it is hereby enacted, that the fees demandable in respect of the granting any certificate or pass under this Act shall be fixed from time to time according to the directions of the Governor General in Council, but so that the same shall not exceed the amount of fees now payable for registering or granting passes to ships or vessels at the different Presidencies.

XXVI. And it is hereby declared and enacted, that all ships or vessels registered under this Act, shall be deemed to belong to the ports at which they shall be respectively registered. And all ships or vessels being registered or in respect of which passes may have been granted which are unexpired at this time of passing this Act, shall for the purpose of being deemed British ships be deemed to belong to the ports at which they may have been registered or when passes shall have been granted which are unexpired, at which such passes may have been respectively granted. And such ships or vessels built and owned as required by the Statute 3 and 4 Vict. Ch. 56, shall continue subject to all the rules in force at the respective Presidencies before the passing of this Act, touching the registering, measurement, granting passes or other requisitions in respect of the same, and shall not be subject to the provisions of this Act, or any provisions of the Statute law, a compliance with which may heretofore have been necessary in order that ships or vessels built and owned as aforesaid might be deemed British ships for the purposes of trade.

And if upon the return of such warrant it shall appear that no sufficient distress can be had thereon, then it shall be lawful for any such Magistrate by warrant under his hand and seal to cause such offender or offenders to be committed to prison, there to remain for the space of two calendar months, unless such fines and all reasonable charges attending the same shall be sooner paid and satisfied.

IX. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Post Master to detain any letter or packet in respect of which any party shall become liable to fine for a contravention of sections IX. and X. Act XVII. 1837, or of any of the provisions of this Act, until the fine and all reasonable charges attending the same shall have been duly paid.

GENERAL DEPARTMENT.

The Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council is pleased to publish for general information the following Notification of the Government of India, under date the 17th of January last.

No. 3.

FORT WILLIAM.

GENERAL DEPARTMENT.

THE 17TH JANUARY 1838.

The Government of India having received from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors copy of a Letter addressed by the Secretary to the Post Master General in England, to the Honorable Court, dated 11th September 1837, from which it appears that an Act (1. Victoria, Cap. 76,) had been passed by the British Parliament for regulating the Postage to be levied on Letters transmitted between the United Kingdom and India by Her Majesty's Mediterranean Packets. The President in Council deems it necessary to publish for general information the rates of Postage established thereby in supercession of those established by Clause XXXIV. of Rules for the management of the Post Office Department, passed by the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council on the 30th August 1837.

The following are the Orders contained in the Letter above referred to, which the Post Master General and Post Masters in the different Presidencies of India are hereby required to give attention.

"The Act 1st Victoria, Cap. 76 having authorized a Postage of 1s. single, 2s. double, 3s. treble, and 4s. for an ounce weight, and for every quarter of an ounce beyond that weight the Postage of a single Letter upon all Letters passing between any port in the Red Sea, or Persian Gulf, and the East Indies, which are not conveyed to or from the United Kingdom by Her Majesty's Mediterranean Packets, I am commanded by the Post Master General to request you will move the Court of Directors, to give instructions to their Post Masters in India to demand this rate upon all Letters, which shall not be enclosed in the Mails dispatched from Falmouth for the East Indies, which will be made up in boxes marked 'East India Mail from the United Kingdom by Her Majesty's Mediterranean Packets,' with exception of Letters put into the Post Offices of the United Kingdom, which shall be addressed to India via Marseilles, and upon which, as the Postage alluded to, would have already been paid in this country, no additional rate should be demanded, Letters of this description can be easily distinguished from their having the Post Mark of the Town in the United Kingdom at which they were posted in addition to the address of "via Marseilles." With the exception of these two classes, namely, Letters contained in the Mail Boxes and those addressed via Marseilles, all Letters conveyed to the East Indies by packet, will be liable to the charges in question, which can only be collected by the Company's Post Masters from the persons to whom they are addressed in India."

'With respect to the return correspondence, this rate must not be taken in India on either of two classes of Letters before mentioned, whether they shall be simply addressed to the United Kingdom, or passing through it to countries beyond, or whether directed to it via Marseilles, as the Postage can be collected in this country. On all other Letters, however the rate must be demanded at the time the Letter is posted in India as the only means of securing the charge, the Post Office have no method of collecting it in the countries to which the Letters will be addressed."

Under the above Orders, Inland Postage only will be leviable in India on Letters arriving from, or received for transmission to the United Kingdom via any Port in the Red Sea or Persian Gulph. If letters arrive from, or are addressed to any other place than the United Kingdom, so that the Postage will not be leviable therein; the following rates will be levied in India, as the place of delivery or of receipt for transmission:

Letters or sealed packets of any description.
Single.	Double.	Treble.
Not exceeding 1 Tola weight.	Not exceeding 1½ Tola weight.	Not exceeding 2¼ Tola weight.
8 Annas.	1 Rupee.	1 Rupee. 8 Annas.	Single postage being added for each additional ¾ Tola weight.

Note.—8 Annas has been assumed as equal to 1 shilling.

A scale according to weight has been substituted for the rule regarding single and double Letters for uniformity with the system generally in force in India and because the Post Masters have not the means of discriminating between single and double sheets: 3 Tolas also have been assumed as equivalent to an ounce.

No Ship Postage under Schedule B. Act No. XVII. 1837, will be leviable in India on letters transmitted in the manner provided for in these rules, notwithstanding that they may have been conveyed or may be forwarded between India and the Red Sea or Persian Gulph in sailing Vessels.

The orders received hitherto containing no provision in respect to Newspapers, Pamphlets or other unsealed packets of printed papers transmitted via the Red Sea, or the Persian Gulph, these will be subjected in India to no charge beyond that of Inland postage duty.

By Order of the Hon'ble the President in Council.

(Signed)

H. T. PRINSEP, Secy. to Govt.

By order of the Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council.

L. R. REID, Actg. Chief Secy.

ACT NO. XVII. OF 1839.

Passed by the Hon'ble the President of the Council of India in Council, on the 1st July 1838.

It is hereby enacted, in modification of so much of Section VI. and XIV. of Act No. XVII of 1837, as provides that Postage Duties shall be levied at the rates set forth in Schedules A and B appended to the said Act, that it shall be competent to the Governor General of India in Council, by an order and notice to be published in the Government Gazettes of the several Presidencies of India, to authorize the levy of Postage Duties at rates different from those severally specified in the Schedules A. and B. annexed to Act XVII 1837, and to publish revised schedules from time to time to give effect to such modification; provided always there be no increase made thereby in any particular of the rates prescribed in the said Schedules A. and B; and likewise to fix the time when the levy shall commence to be made to such modified rates, and to cancel or modify any order and notice to issue by further similar order and notice and the said revise schedules of rates shall, for so long as may be so ordered and notified be of the same effect and validity as the schedules annexed to the said Act.

Rules for the Posting of Palkee Bearers.

NOTIFICATION.

The following Rules approved of by Government respecting the Posting of Palkee Bearers are published for the information of the Public, and for the guidance of the several Post Masters under this Presidency :

I. Travellers may be furnished with Dawk Bearers on application at the different Post Offices, where they will obtain all the requisite information as to the estimated distances between known stations, to which only Dawk bearers can be laid by any Post Master.

II. A set of Dawk Bearers comprises twelve, and one Mussalchee for which is charged, payable in advance, at the rate of eight annas per Mile, but as in many instances, owing to the delay caused by Travellers remaining longer on the road than the stipulated time, this sum is found unequal to the expense, a further sum of four annas per Mile is required to be paid as a deposit to cover any eventual expense or demurrage caused by delay on the part of the Traveller.—Should none occur, the full amount of the sum deposited is refunded, upon the traveller furnishing a certificate from the Deputy Post Master at the place where his journey finished, that he arrived there without having incurred demurrage. It is the duty of the Deputy Post Masters to furnish Travellers with certificates specifying according to circumstances whether or otherwise they had come on demurrage ;—such certificate must however be understood, is only applicable to the Deputy Post Master's Division, who grants it, for it sometimes happens that a Traveller having incurred demurrage on part of the road, by travelling subsequently during those hours originally appointed for halting, reaches the last Division within the given time.

N. B. It is to be particularly observed, that in some Districts, Bearers are with difficulty procured, and where they have to be sent a considerable distance to take up the Traveller, and in like manner to return home, for time so occupied they are paid additionally, and in all such cases Post Masters are authorized to charge the actual cost for the Travellers Bearers.

III. When it is reported that a Traveller come on demurrage, on any part of the road the adjustment of the amount deposited to cover such expenses will be postponed until the receipt of the Bills for the Dak, from all the Post Masters through whose Divisions the Traveller may have passed.

IV. Travellers whether proceeding from the Presidency, or from Out-stations are provided with a Form, in which they are requested particularly to note any cause of dissatisfaction they may meet with on their journey, and the places where they meet with obstructions, or irregularities on the part of the Bearers or Subordinate Post Office Servants, this Form being affixed to the certificate which the Travellers has to present for signature, secures its being noticed.

V. When Dak has been ordered and circumstances may render it expedient for the Traveller to postpone his journey, or to withdraw the Bearers entirely, he will of course be held liable for any expense which may have been incurred on his account. The amount paid for the Dak and the account deposited to cover demurrage will therefore remain unadjusted until reports are received from the General Post Master on the line of route upon which the Dak was ordered.

VI. Travellers Baggage must not exceed for each Banghy Burdar, twenty-four seers, and this must be divided into two Parcels, or Pattarahs of such dimensions as to render them conveniently portable when slung as Banghies.

VII. It is to be generally understood, that although Government permits their servants to lay Dak Bearers for the convenience of the Public, the state derives no benefit from this source, and that neither Government nor any of their Officers are in any degree responsible to the Traveller for the misfortunes and disappointments which are inseparable from Dak travelling, thus every Traveller travels at his own risk, and is liable to the losses and increased expenses incidental to delays, and accidents, and that Government can in no instance be considered liable to make good any losses whatever.

VIII. When irregularities and consequent inconvenience occur to Travellers, the Post Master General on being applied to, will immediately investigate the complaint brought to his notice, but this can only be done in the same manner, and to the same end as a superior in any other Department would interfere to enquire into complaints preferred against his subordinates.

IX. In case of surcharge alone, or charges which to the Parties complaining might appear unjust because arising out of some positive neglect, or error on the part of the Deputy Post Master who lays the Dak, it would be the duty of the Post Master General to investigate the matter with a view to afford pecuniary redress.

X. In every case of refusal to make good demands on account of laying Dak Bearers, Post Masters are authorized to detain all Letters, Parcels, &c. for the person from whom demands are due in the same manner as is authorized to act under clause IX of the General Rules.

XI. Any decision pronounced by the Post Master General in all references relative to Dak Bearers, to be considered final.

FORT WILLIAM, THE 17TH MAY 1841.

ACT No. IV. OF 1841.

An Act for regulating public conveyances in the Islands of Bombay and Colaba, and the Harbour of Bombay.

I. It is hereby enacted, that all Hackney Carriages, Carts, Palankeens and other vehicles let to hire for the purpose of conveying persons or goods within the Islands of Bombay and Colaba, and all Boats let to hire for such purpose within the Harbour of Bombay shall bear upon them, in manner as directed by the Superintendent of Police, on each side, in large English and Native figures or characters, a certain number to be indicated for every such public conveyance in manner hereinafter mentioned; and every person who shall let out to hire any such public conveyance after the expiration of two months from the day of passing this Act which shall not bear such number in manner aforesaid, or which shall bear any number not indicated as aforesaid, or after notice as hereinafter mentioned to withdraw the same, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate of Police, to a fine not exceeding Thirty Rupees.

II. And it is hereby enacted, that the numbers to be used for public conveyances shall be indicated by the Superintendent of Police on application of the owners of such conveyances, and it shall be lawful for the Court of Petty Sessions on proof of the breach of any provision of this Act by the owner of any such conveyance as aforesaid, to give such owner notice to withdraw the number which may theretofore have been indicated to him in manner aforesaid.

III. And it is hereby enacted, that every Teeka-bearer, Boatman, or other person employed in the conveyance of persons or goods as aforesaid by the owner of any such public conveyance shall wear, in manner as directed by the Superintendent of Police, a Badge on the upper part of his right arm with the number of the public conveyance to which he belongs, which Badge shall be indicated by the said Superintendent, in default whereof every person so employed and not having such badge as aforesaid, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate of Police, to a fine not exceeding Twenty Rupees.

IV. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Court of Petty Sessions from time to time to settle the rates for the hire of such public conveyances as aforesaid, and the rates so settled, if sanctioned by the Governor of Bombay in Council shall be published twice in the Government Gazette. And after such publication, if the owner or other person in charge of any such public conveyance as aforesaid shall receive or require any higher rate for the hire thereof, or shall refuse a fare upon tender of the prescribed rate, the person or persons on whose application the number of such public conveyance shall have been indicated as aforesaid, or the person receiving or requiring such higher rate or refusing fare, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate of Police, to a fine not exceeding Twenty Rupees. Provided always, that no person shall be deemed to be liable to the penalty in this Section unless the settled rate of hire shall have been duly tendered. And any person refusing to pay the money due from him for the hire of any such conveyance according to the rate settled as aforesaid, shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate of Police, to a fine not exceeding Twenty Rupees, and no contract for hire under the settled rate shall be valid or binding on any owner of a public conveyance.

V. And it is hereby enacted, that the Superintendent of Police shall keep a Register containing a full description of applicants receiving numbers under this Act, and of every conveyance for which any number is obtained, and of every person for whom any Badge is obtained, and every offender using or authorizing the use of any Number or Badge otherwise than for such particular conveyance or person, shall be liable, on summary conviction, before the Court of Petty Sessions, to a fine not exceeding One Hundred Rupees.

VI. And it is hereby enacted, that it shall be lawful for the Court of Petty Sessions from time to time, to appoint stands for public Carriages and Palkees. And every person in charge of any Carriage or Palkee found loitering off any such stand for the purpose of hire, shall be liable, on conviction before the Magistrate of Police, to a fine not exceeding Ten Rupees.

VII. And it is hereby provided, that nothing in this Act contained shall extend to prevent any person from letting to hire any conveyance for a month or longer period without any such number being applied for as aforesaid.

VIII. And it is hereby enacted, that all fines imposed by virtue of this Act shall be recoverable in manner provided for by Act II. of 1839.

THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY IN COUNCIL.

Whereas by an act Passed in the fourth year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled 'An act for the better administration of justice in His Majesty's Privy Council, it is amongst other things enacted, that 'it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council from time to time to make any such rules and orders as may be thought fit, for the regulating the mode, form, and time of appeal to be made from the decisions of the Courts of Sudder Dewanny Adawlut, or any other Courts of Judicature, in India or elsewhere, to the eastward of the Cape of Good Hope (from the decisions of which an appeal lies to His Majesty in Council), and in like manner from time to time to make such other regulations for the preventing delays in the making or hearing such appeals, and as to the expenses attending the said appeals, and as to the amount or value of property in respect of which any such appeal may be made.' And Whereas His said late Majesty did, by his order in council, on the 16th day of January 1836, approve certain rules and orders for regulating the mode, form, and time of appeal from the decisions of the said Court of Sudder Dewanny Adawlut, and also certain regulations for the preventing delays in the making or hearing of such appeals, and as to the expenses attending such appeals; and the said rules, and orders, and regulations, were set forth in certain Schedules, A. and B. to and by the said order in council of the 16th of January annexed and approved. And whereas His said late Majesty did, by his further order in council made on the 10th day of August 1836, alter and amend the said Schedule B. by cancelling the rule No. 5 of the said Schedule B. so approved as aforesaid, and ordering that, in lieu of the said fifth rule thereof, a certain other rule in such last-mentioned order set forth should be substituted. And whereas the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council hath deemed expedient to cancel and rescind all the said rules, orders, and regulations, and to make and substitute others in lieu thereof

Her Majesty is therefore pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council to cancel and rescind all the said rules, orders, and regulations in the said recited orders in council of the 16th day of January 1836, and 10th day of August 1836, respectively contained, and thereby or by either of them approved, and to approve of the several rules, orders, and regulations contained in the Schedule hereunder written or hereunto annexed, and to order, that the same be respectively observed by Her Majesty's Supreme Courts of Judicature at Fort William

THE SCHEDULE ABOVE REFERRED TO.

1. That from and after the 31st day of December next, no appeal to Her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors in Council, shall be allowed by any of Her Majesty's Supreme Courts of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal, Fort St. George, Bombay, or the Court of Judicature of Prince of Wales' Island, Singapore and Malacca, or by any of the Courts of Sudder Dewanny Adawlut, or by any other Courts of Judicature in the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, unless the petition for that purpose be presented within six calendar months from the day of the date of the judgment, decree, or decretal order complained of, and unless the value of the matter in dispute in such appeal shall amount to the sum of ten thousand Company's Rupees at least; and that from and after the said 31st day of December next, the limitation of five thousand pounds sterling heretofore existing in respect of appeals from the Presidency of Fort William in Bengal, shall wholly cease and determine.

2. That in all such cases in which any of such Courts shall admit an appeal to Her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors in Council, it shall specially certify on the proceedings that the value of the matter in dispute in such appeal amounts to the sum of ten thousand Company's Rupees or upwards, which certificate shall be deemed conclusive of the fact, and not be liable to be questioned on such appeal by any party to the suit appealed.

3. Provided nevertheless, that nothing herein contained shall extend, or be construed to take away, diminish, or derogate from the undoubted power and authority of her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors in Council, upon the petition at any time of any party aggrieved by any judgment, decree, or decretal order of any of the aforesaid Courts, to admit an appeal therefrom upon such other terms, and upon and subject to such other limitations, restrictions, and regulations, as Her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors, shall in any such special case think fit to prescribe.

4. That on the arrival of the transcripts of proceedings and an appeal to Her Majesty, her Heirs and Successors in Council, from any of the said Courts of Sudder Dewanny Adawlut, or any other Courts in the East-Indies constituted by the East India Company, or any of their Governments from which an appeal lies to Her Majesty in Council, such Officer of the East-India Company as the Court of Directors of the said Company shall from time to time appoint, shall forthwith give notice to the Clerk of the Council thereof, stating at the same time the names of the parties to the appeal, and the date of the decree appealed from, and that such notice shall be duly registered in the Council Office.

5. That the said transcripts of proceedings shall be kept at the East India House, or at such other convenient place within the Cities of London or Westminster as the said Court of Directors shall from time to time appoint: the agents respectively conducting and defending such appeals in this country, being at liberty to take all the necessary copies and extracts from the said proceedings and to examine the same from time to time; and it shall be the duty of such Officer, by himself or his sufficient deputy, to produce the original transcripts before the Judicial Committee, upon the hearing of such appeal, upon the notice for that purpose previously given, and upon all other occasions when thereunto required by the Privy Council or the Judicial Committee.

6. That in default of the petition of appeal of the applicants being lodged in the Council Office within three calendar months from the registrations of the arrival of such transcripts or in default of the appellant's case being carried within one year from the time of such registration, the respondent shall be entitled in either case to move to dismiss the appeal for want of prosecution; and in the event of the respondent's not bringing in his case within one year from the time of such registration, the appellant shall be entitled to have the case heard ex parte.

ABSTRACTS OF PARLIAMENTARY ACTS. RELATING TO THE EAST INDIA CIVIL SERVICE.

ACT XXXIII. OF GEORGE III. CHAPTER LII.

DEPARTURE FROM INDIA OF ANY GOVERNOR GENERAL, GOVERNOR, COUNCILLOR, OR COMMANDER IN CHIEF, WITH INTENT TO RETURN TO EUROPE, DEEMED A RESIGNATION, &c.

XXXVII. And be it further enacted that the Departure, from India of any Governor General, Governor, Councillor, or Commander in Chief, with intent to return to Europe, shall be deemed in law a Resignation and Avoidance of his office or Employment; and that the Arrival in any part of Europe of any such Governor General, Governor, Councillor, or Commander in Chief, shall be sufficient indication of such intent; and that no act or declaration of any Governor General, Governor, Councillor, or Commander in Chief, during his continuance in the Presidency whereof he was Governor General, Governor, Councillor, or Commander in Chief, except by some Deed or Instrument in writing under his hand and seal, delivered to the Secretary, in the Public Department of the same Presidency, in order to its being recorded, shall be deemed or held as a Resignation, or Surrender of his said office; and that the Salary and other Allowances of any such Governor General, or other Officers respectively, shall cease from the day of such his departure, Resignation or Surrender, and that if any such Governor General, or any other Officer whatever, in the Service of the said Company, shall quit or leave the Presidency or Settlement to which he shall belong, other than in the known actual Service of the said Company, the Salary, and Allowances appertaining to the Office shall not be paid or payable during his absence to any agent or other person for his use, and in the event of his not returning back to his Station at such Presidency or Settlement, or of his coming to Europe, his Salary and Allowances shall be deemed to have ceased from the day of his quitting such Presidency or Settlement, any law or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

FILLING UP VACANCIES IN THE CIVIL LINE.

LVII. And be it further enacted, that all Vacancies happening in any of the Office, Places, or Employments in the Civil line of the Company's Service in India, (being under the degree of Councillor,) shall be from time to time filled up and supplied from amongst the Civil Servants of the said Company, belonging to the Presidency wherein such Vacancies shall respectively happen, subject only to the restrictions in this Act contained, and not otherwise (that is to say,) that in the filling up and supplying such Vacancies, no Office, Place, or Employment, the Salary, Perquisites, and Employments whereof shall exceed five hundred pounds per annum, shall be conferred upon or granted to any of the said Servants who shall have not been actually resident in India as a Covenanted Servant of the said Company for the space of three years at the least in the whole, antecedent to such Vacancy, and if the Salary, Perquisites and Emoluments of any Office, Place, or Employment, shall exceed three thousand pounds per annum, the same shall not be granted to or conferred upon any of the said Servants who shall not have been actually resident in India in the said Service for the space of nine years at the least in the whole, antecedent to such Vacancy; and if the Salary, Perquisites, and Emoluments of any Office, Place, or Employment shall exceed three thousand pounds per annum, the same shall not be granted to or conferred upon any of the said Servants, who shall not have been actually resident in India in the said Company's Service for the space of nine years at the least in the whole; and if the Salary, Perquisites, and Emoluments of any Office, Place, or Employment shall exceed four thousand pounds per annum, the same shall not be granted to or conferred upon any of the said Servants, who shall not have been actually resident in India in the Company's Service for the space of twelve years at the least in the whole, antecedent to such Vacancy; and that all Appointments, Advancements and Promotions which shall be made for supplying any such Vacancies, other than as aforesaid, shall be null and void.

EXTRACT FROM A PUBLIC GENERAL LETTER FROM THE HONORABLE COURT OF DIRECTORS, DATED THE 12TH OF JUNE, 1816.

PAR. 20. We perceive by the Abstract of Act LIII. of His present Majesty Chapter 155, annexed to your List of the Civil Servants dated the 31st of May 1814, that according to your construction of that Act, a Civil Servant may upon his arrival, in India, receive £1,500 a year, but this is most assuredly a mistake. The Act above mentioned, has shortened the period two years which it was required previously to the passing of that Act for a Servant to have resided in India, to enable him to receive more than £1,500, 3,000 or 4,000 a year, but it has not shortened the period which it was required, previously thereto for a servant to have resided above mentioned, to enable him to receive more than £500 a year, consequently that remains the same as it was before the said Act was passed, namely three years, allowing with respect to the Servants educated at Hertford College, the time not exceeding two years passed in that Institution, after they were seventeen to be considered as time passed in India; and this will be your future guidance.

ACT LIII. OF GEORGE III CHAPTER CLV.

LXXXII. And whereas a strict adherence to the Provisions contained in the said Act made in the thirty third Year of His present Majesty's Reign in respect to the filling up and supplying Vacancies in the Civil Service of the said Company has been found impracticable without detriment to the Public Service, or injury to the just claims and meritorious exertions of Individuals; and whereas a modification of the said Act has been in part, adopted in the Act of the forty-seventh Year of His present Majesty relative to the Scholars educated at Hertford College; be it therefore enacted, that from and after the passing of this Act any Office, Place, or Employment, the Salary and Perquisites whereof shall exceed the sum of fifteen hundred pounds, may be granted to and conferred upon the said Servants who shall have been actually resident in India in the said Company's Service for the space of four years at the least in the whole antecedent to such Vacancy; and if the Salary, Perquisites, and Emoluments of any Office, Place, or Employment shall exceed the sum of three thousand pounds per annum, such office may be conferred upon any of the said servants who shall have been actually resident in India seven years at the least in the whole; and if the Salary, Perquisites and Emoluments of any Office, Place or Employment, shall exceed four thousand pounds per annum, such Office, including that of the Council, may be granted to or conferred upon any of the said Servants who shall have been actually resident in India in the Company's Service for the space of ten years at least in the whole.

RANK OF CIVIL SERVANTS RETURNING TO INDIA AFTER FIVE YEARS ABSENCE IN EUROPE.

LXXXV. And be it further enacted, that when and as often as any person having held any Civil Situation in India, in the Service of the said Company, and having departed from India by leave of the Governor General in Council, shall be restored to the said Company's Service after an absence of Five Years from the time of such departure; such person from and after such restoration shall take Rank and Precedence only according to the time he shall have passed in the Service of the said Company at the period of his departure from India, and, on his return to India, if any other Civil Servant or Servants, at the Settlement to which he shall belong, shall have then passed a greater or the like length of time in the Service of the said Company, as the person so restored had passed when he left India, the person so restored shall be placed and take Rank immediately below such other Civil Servant or Servants; any matter or thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

PRECEDENCE IN THE CIVIL SERVICE IN INDIA.

LXXXVI. And whereas by the said Act of the Parliament of Great Britain of the Thirty-third Year of his present Majesty's Reign it is enacted that all the Civil Servants of the said United Company in India, under the Rank or degree of Member of Council shall have and be entitled to Precedence in the Service of the said Company at their respective Stations according to the Seniority of their Appointment. And whereas the several Governments of the said Company are often prevented from appointing meritorious Servants of the said Company to be Members of Courts, Boards, and other Official Establishments, where Offices or Employments are exercised by several servants of the said Company collectively, lest by such Appointment one or more Members of such Court, Board, or other Establishment should be superseded; be it therefore enacted that it shall and may be lawful for any Governor General, or Governor in Council of the said Company, if he shall think proper, upon application in writing for that purpose by any Civil Servant of the said Company desirous of being appointed a Member of any such Court, Board, or other Establishment, by special order to direct that such Servant of the said Company on being appointed to any Office or Employment in any such Court, or other Establishment, although such Civil Servant, in respect of whom such order shall be made, may hereby not take Precedence at or in such Court, Board, or other Establishment, according to the Seniority of his Appointment to the Service of the said Company; and such Civil Servant shall thereupon take Precedence at such Court, Board, or other Establishment accordingly; the said Act or any other matter or thing to the contrary notwithstanding.

ACT VII. OF GEORGE IV. CHAPTER LVI.

Extract from an Act to suspend the Provisions of an Act of His late Majesty respecting the Appointment of Writers in the Service of the East India Company, and to authorize the Payment of the Allowances of the Civil and Military Officers of the said Company dying while absent from India.

[20th May 1826.]

III. And whereas by an Act passed in the thirty-third year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled an Act for continuing in the East India Company for a further term the Possession of the British Territories in India, together with their exclusive Trade, under certain limitations; for establishing further Regulations for the Government of the said Territories, and the better administration of justice within the same; for appropriating to certain uses the revenues and profits of the said Company, and for making provision for the good order and government of the Towns of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay; it was enacted, that if any Governor General, or any other Officer whatever in the Service of the said Company, should quit or leave the Presidency or Settlement to which he should belong, other than in the known actual Service of the said Company, the Salary and Allowances appertaining to his Office should not be paid or payable during his absence to any agent or other person for his use; and in the event of his not returning back to his station at such Presidency or Settlement; or his coming to Europe, his Salary and Allowances should be deemed to have ceased from the day of his quitting such Presidency or Settlement, any law or usage to the contrary notwithstanding. And whereas it hath happened that Officers, as well Civil as Military, in the Service of the said Company, who have quitted the Presidencies or Settlements to which they respectively belonged in consequence of ill health, with the intention of returning to their Stations at such Presidencies or Settlements without proceeding to Europe, have died during such temporary absence within the limits of the said Company's Charter, or at the Cape of Good Hope. And whereas it is just and reasonable that the representatives of such Officers should be entitled to the Salaries and Allowances of such Officers from the time of quitting their Stations. Be it therefore enacted, that it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Company to cause payment to be made to the representatives of Officers in their Service, Civil or Military, who having quitted or left their Stations, and not having proceeded or intended to proceed to Europe, but intending to return to their Stations, have died, or may hereafter happen to die, during their temporary absence within the limits of the said Company's Charter, or at the Cape of Good Hope, of such Salaries and Allowances, or such portion of Salaries and Allowances, as the Officers so dying would have been entitled to, if they had returned to their Stations.

IV. And whereas certain payments have heretofore been made under the circumstances aforesaid; be it further enacted, that all such payments so made shall be deemed and taken to have been legally made; any thing in the said recited Act of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding; Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to authorize the said Company to make any such payment to the representatives of any such Officer who shall have quitted or left his Station prior to the Second Day of May, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Twenty One.

ACT X. OF GEORGE IV. CHAPTER XVI.

An Act to continue the operation of an Act of the seventh year of His present Majesty for suspending the Provisions of an Act of His late Majesty respecting the Appointment of Writers in the Service of the East India Company, and to amend the Provisions of an Act of the forty-seventh Year of his late Majesty, so far as they relate to the period of Residence at Hertford College as a qualification for certain offices. [14th May, 1829.]

Whereas an Act was passed in the seventh year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled an Act to suspend the Provisions of an Act of His late Majesty respecting the Appointment of Writers in the Service of the East India Company, and to authorize the payment of the Allowances of the Civil and Military Officers of the said Company dying while absent from India. And whereas it is expedient to continue, for a time to be limited, the provisions of the said Act of the seventh year of His Majesty, so far as the same relate to the Appointment of Writers in the Service of the East India Company, and to the Establishment of Rules and Regulations respecting their qualifications. May it therefore please your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, that the Provisions of the above-mentioned Act of the seventh year of His present Majesty, so far as the same relate to the Appointment of Writers in the Service of the East India Company, and to the Establishment of proper Rules and Regulations, respecting the qualifications of such Writers, shall continue and be in force until the Tenth Day of April, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Thirty-Four.

And whereas by virtue of an Act passed in the forty seventh year of the Reign of His said late Majesty all such time as shall be bona fide spent in the College established in England by the East India Company for the Education of their Civil Servants, by any persons after they shall respectively have attained the age of seventeen years is accounted, as to certain Offices, Places and Employments which such persons are entitled to hold in India, as so much time actually spent in India, provided that such persons shall either before or after seventeen years of age have spent two years at the least in the said College. And whereas it is expedient that the privileges so granted should under certain circumstances, be extended to young men who may have spent less time than two years in the regular course of Education at the said College; be it therefore enacted, that all such time not exceeding two years as shall have been or shall be bona fide spent in the said College in the regular course of such Education as aforesaid by any person after they shall respectively have attained the age of seventeen years, who shall have proceeded or shall hereafter proceed to India in the Civil Service of the said Company, shall be accounted as to all Offices, Places and Employments to which such persons are entitled to be appointed and to hold, the Salary, Perquisites and Emoluments whereof shall not exceed the sum of One Thousand Five Hundred Pounds, per annum, as so much time actually spent in India; any law or usage to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

* The Rules of 29th January 1840 supersede those of 4th June 1833; the latter have also been published in order to facilitate references. (vide page 86.)

FORT WILLIAM.
FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.
THE 29TH JANUARY, 1840.

The following Rules for the grant of leave of absence and for regulating deductions from Salaries and Deputation Allowances having been approved and passed by the Hon'ble Court of Directors are published for general information and will take effect in all the Presidencies, Settlements and Stations under the Government of India from the date of the arrival of the Gazette containing them in respect to all leaves of absence granted after that date. The notes show the interpretation put by the Council of India upon the rules in their application to cases not specifically mentioned.

Rules for application for leave of absence and for fixing the local limits within which it may be granted.

Sec. I. No leave of absence from any Officers of Station can be granted, but Note.—This rule must be considered as superceding the rule under which Commissioners of the Land Revenue and other Officers have heretofore been allowed to grant leave of absence in Bengal. by the Government of the Presidency under which the employment is held, and in the application of the party requiring such leave, saving in such cases as may hereafter be specially excepted. The application must be made publicly through the regular channel in the Department to which the applicant may belong.

Sec. II. The allowances of the holder of a Civil Office quitting his Station without leave will entirely cease from the date of his quitting until his return, or in the event of his subsequently obtaining leave to the date of such leave being granted to him.

Sec. III. No leave of absence shall have any retrospective effect except in cases of severe illness, to be attested by Medical Certificate, conforming in every respect to the directions contained in Section V.

Sec. IV. Upon application duly made, the Government of each Presidency may grant leave of absence to any place or places in the Continent of India, whether within the Territories subject to the Government of the East India Company or not, to any Civil or Military Servant holding a Civil appointment, subject to all the conditions prescribed in the rules that may be applicable to his case. Upon similar application the Government of each Presidency may also grant leave to such persons subject to the like conditions, to proceed to the Island of St. Helena, the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, or to any place situate between the 36th Degree of North Latitude and the 59th Degree of South Latitude, such place being likewise between the 30th and the 180th Degrees of Longitude East of Greenwich, excepting however, any Islands in the Mediterranean or Levant, and excepting all places within the said Geographical limits which may form part of Europe, Provided also, that if at any time the Government of India shall deem it expedient to exclude any place or places, within the limits above described from the operation of these rules, such exclusion shall be officially communicated to the subordinate Governments, and all leave subsequently granted shall be regulated accordingly. A Servant passing the limits herein prescribed will incur the immediate forfeiture of his office or employment, and of all official allowances whatever from the date of his quitting India.

CHAPTER II.

Rules for Sick Leave.

Sec. V. When an application for leave of absence is made on the ground of ill health, it must be accompanied by a Certificate from the Medical Officer by whom the applicant has been attended, distinctly stating from his personal observation the nature of the disease, the symptoms by which it is manifested, the period during which it has existed as far as the knowledge of the Medical Officer extends, and the necessity for temporary removal to some other place either within the Territories subject to the Government of the East India Company or beyond them, but within the limits laid down in Section IV. as the case may be, and such Certificate must be submitted to the consideration of the Medical Board, and if satisfactory, shall be countersigned by one of its Members. An application for an extension of leave must, if the applicant be in India, be accompanied by a Certificate from the Medical Officer by whom the applicant is attended shewing sufficient reason for the extension solicited, and such certificate like the former must be examined, and countersigned by a Member of the Medical Board. If the applicant shall have proceeded beyond the Territories under the Government of the East India Company, he must furnish a Certificate to the required effect from a Surgeon or Physician at the place of his temporary residence by whom he has been attended, such attendance and the period of it to be stated, and the Certificate to be countersigned by the principal Medical Authority of the Colony or Country. When any of the required particulars are neglected leave will be refused.

Sec. VI. Civil Servants absent from their Stations under medical Certificate will be entitled to the Salaries of their respective Officers subject to the following deductions: If the Salary exceed Rupees 2,000 per mensem, one-sixth for the first year, and for the second year one-fourth. If the Salary do not exceed Rupees 2,000 per mensem, one-eighth for the first year, and one-sixth for the second. But if the Salary of Office be not more than Rupees 500 per mensem no deduction shall be made for the first year, and if it be only so much more than the prescribed deduction of one-eighth would reduce the allowance below Rupees 500 per mensem, only the excess beyond Rupees 500 shall be deducted. For the second year the absentee shall become liable to the deduction of one-eighth. An absent servant shall in no case retain any office or employment, nor be permitted to draw any portion of Official Salary for a longer period than two years, but a Civil Servant who may on account of sickness, duly certified, obtain an extension of leave beyond two years will, if below the rank of a Senior Merchant, be allowed to draw the subsistence allowance of his rank; but if he continue absent in disobedience of an order to return or without sufficient cause shewn, that allowance also will be forfeited. The period of absence shall be computed from the date at which the absentee shall quit the limits of the Territories subject to the Presidency to which he may belong, to the date of his return within such limits, or if he shall proceed beyond sea, from the date of his embarking at any place or port in India which is not more distant from his Station than the ports of his own Presidency; but if the place to which he shall proceed shall be within the Territories subject to such Presidency, his period of absence shall be computed from the date of his quitting his Station to the date of his return thereto.

Sec. VII. Civil Servants absent on leave on account of sickness duly certified, if they proceed to England without returning to their Presidency, may as heretofore, apply to be admitted to Furlough by the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, and the Furlough will in such cases take effect from the date of leaving their Presidency, consequently the allowances of office that may have been drawn by themselves or by their Agents after their departure, must in that case be re-adjusted, and the difference refunded.

Note -- This rule applies to all descriptions of leave on account of health excepting those granted under Sec. XII.

Thus a second leave within the Presidency, no less than a second leave to sea will be computed as forming part of the period of two years, if taken before three years have elapsed since returned from the first leave, and the deductions will be made upon computation of the accumulated period of absence under all such leaves taken without the intervention of three years of consecutive service.

Sec. IX. Military Officers employed in the Civil Department and drawing a Civil allowance may obtain leave under Medical Certificate on precisely the same conditions as Civil Servants except as to allowances. Such Officers, in common with those holding Staff Situations in the Military Department, will draw the Military Pay and Allowances of their rank while absent on leave under Medical Certificate, in the form and manner prescribed in General Orders in the Military Department, and likewise one half of the difference between such Allowances and the Civil Pay of the Officers to which they stand appointed.

Sec. X. Civil or Military Servants holding Civil appointments who may desire to avail themselves of the benefit of the Act I, Vic. Cap. 47, and to draw their allowances while absent on account of sickness under the above rules, will be re-

SEC. VIII. No second leave will be granted to any Civil or Military Servant, holding a Civil Appointment who has been absent under the above rules for two years, until three years at the least shall have passed after the date of such Servant's return, but if such a Servant is compelled by sickness again to absent himself from his Station within three years after having been absent under the above rule for less than two years, he will be allowed to complete that period, subject to the limitations and conditions heretofore prescribed, drawing the proportion of Salary allowed for the remaining time as if the leave had been continuous.

quired to give security in such amount and form as may be fixed by the Government for the refund of any excess that may be drawn, either by the Agents at the Presidency or by themselves in case of their proceeding to Europe on Furlough or otherwise coming under retrenchment.

Sec. XI. The Government of each Presidency may grant to Civil or Military Servants holding Civil appointments leave of absence for one month in each year without deduction from the Salaries and Emoluments drawn by such Servants. Such leave however, will only be granted when the Government is satisfied that no inconvenience will arise from the departure of the officer seeking it. No second leave can be granted under this rule until the completion of eleven months from the expiration of the last leave, but Servants not availing themselves of the indulgence in any one year may obtain, under the like conditions leave of absence for two successive months, to commence at or after the expiration of 22 months from the termination of their former leave, and if two years elapse without enjoyment of the privilege, leave for three months may in like manner be granted at the expiration of 33 months from the termination of the last preceding leave. But no leave shall be granted under this rule for any period exceeding three months. If an Officer shall not return at the expiration of the period of leave granted him under this rule, he shall, if absent on private affairs, be subjected to the deduction of one third of his Salary and Allowances for the entire term of absence, and if he shall continue absent for more than one month beyond the term granted, his Office shall become vacant. If his protracted absence be occasioned by sickness, the case must be determined under the provisions of Chapter II.

Sec. XII. The Government of each Presidency may on sufficient cause being shewn, grant to a Civil or Military Officer holding a Civil Office, special leave of absence on private affairs. Provided, however, that if any Officer to whom such leave shall be granted shall be absent from his Station for any period exceeding that to which under the last rule he may be entitled without deduction, the absentee, if a Civil Servant, shall for the period, in excess draw no more than one half of his Salary and allowances, and if a Military Officer only so much of the Salary and Allowances of any Civil Office to which he may stand appointed as added to the Military Pay and Allowances which he may be entitled to draw shall equal one-half of the emoluments of such Civil Office. After an absence of three months (exclusive of any period which may be granted under Sec. XI.) any office held by the absentee shall become vacant. No second leave under this rule can be granted until after the expiration of five years from the termination of the former leave, and the Government is specially to report each case with all the attendant circumstances to the Court of Directors.

CHAPTER IV.

" Rules for leave preparatory to embarkation and for joining Stations."

Sec. XIII. For embarkation to Europe on furlough, or with leave under Medical Certificate, or preparatory to retirement from the Service, a Civil or Military Servant holding a Civil appointment may take leave under such of the preceding Rules as may apply to his case. If an Officer desirous of retiring or about to proceed to Europe on furlough, shall not under the previous rules be entitled to any leave of absence, special leave may be granted him for one month if the distance of his Station from the Presidency or the Port at which he shall intend to embark shall not exceed 300 miles—for two months if the distance be more than 300 and less than 600 miles, or if for three months if it shall exceed 600 miles, but such leave can only be granted under Medical Certificate—and the Absentee, if a Civil Servant, shall be subjected to the deduction of one-third of his Salary and Allowances if not more than 2,000 Rupees per month, and of one-half if they exceed that sum. At the expiration of such special leave it may be renewed for one month, subject to the same deductions on satisfactory evidence being produced that the Servant has been prevented leaving India either by severity of illness or by the difficulty of procuring a passage, but no further leave can under any circumstances be granted. A Military Officer holding Civil employment who may obtain special leave under this Rule shall draw only so much of the Salary of his Civil Office as added to his Military Pay and Allowances will equal one-half of his Civil emoluments. If a Civil or Military Servant holding Civil Office who may have obtained leave with the intention of embarking for Europe on Furlough, or retiring from the Service, shall subsequently abandon the intention and return to his Station, his absence will be regulated under such of the Rules in Chapters 2nd as may be applicable.

This rule is only applicable to Civil Servants. Military Officers, will draw Salary only from the date of joining as heretofore, the rule in force in respect to Staff Situations being applicable to them.

Sec. XIV. There shall be allowed to Officers appointed to any new office, the periods of one month, two months or three months for joining accordingly as the distance may not exceed 300 or 600 miles, or be in excess of the last mentioned distance. Officers not joining their Station within the said periods respectively shall forfeit their salary for the time delayed in excess of the above periods, and if such excess shall exceed one month, the Office shall be vacated unless otherwise especially ordered by Government.

Sec. XV. Upon the first appointment of any Civil Servant who shall be reported qualified for the Public Service by the Examiners appointed by the Government to any Civil situation, there shall be allowed for travelling expenses to the Station an allowance at the rate of 8 Annas per mile by the direct Post road according to the Polymetrical Tables of the Post Office, the Bill for which allowance will be passed by the Civil Auditor after the Officer shall have joined the Station; if required in advance an order of the Government shall be necessary.

Sec. XVI. The Salary of Office will be payable from the date only of the Officer joining, but in the case of Junior Civil Servants the Salary of Assistant will be payable from the date of their being reported qualified for the Public Service, unless forfeited under the preceding rule through delay in joining the Station to which they may be appointed.

This rule also is only applicable to Civil Servants. Military Servants drawing as in the case of Staff Situations no Civil Salary from the time of leaving one Office till the date of joining the other.

Sec. XVII. In case of a change of Office when an Officer is appointed to a higher situation, he shall not draw the higher salary until he joins. For the period occupied in travelling, the Rule No. XIV. regulating the time and distance for joining Station shall be applicable, and the Officer will, for the periods allowed in that rule respectively, draw out of the salary of the office he is about to join a sum equal to that of his previous situation.

CHAPTER V.

"Rules for Deputation Allowances."

Sec. XVIII. The sum of Company's Rupees 52,200 per annum, having been fixed under the orders of the Court of Directors as the Maximum Salary of Civil Office for the Officers of Government under the situation of Member of Council—Civil and Military Servants holding Office in the Political Department, who may draw larger Allowances than this annual sum as a consolidated personal and sumptuary allowance in consideration of the necessary expences of their position, will

This rule will equally apply in case of Political Resident taking a leave of three months for which in other cases he would suffer no deduction.—The excess above the maximum monthly salary will in that case be enjoyed by the person in charge.

in all cases of absence be treated in respect to deductions as drawing only the Allowance thus limited, and the excess above the monthly salary yielded by that annual sum shall remain as a local addition to the usual Deputation Allowance to be drawn by the Officer performing the duties to meet the necessary expences of his position.

Sec. XIX. Deputation Allowances shall be granted to Civil Servants temporarily performing the duties of an office according to the following scales, and subject to the limitations and conditions hereinafter laid down:

To Civil Servants out of Employ.

When the Salary of the Officer does not exceed.	Per Mensem.

Military persons acting for other Military persons holding Civil Office, will, as in the case of Staff, draw half the difference between the incumbent Military Allowances and the consolidated Civil Salary as at present, that is will draw the amount retrenched from the absentee, but when acting for a Civil Servant, they will draw at the rates of this table and under the same rates as Civil Servants.

A Civil Servant acting for another will have no claim to Commission or Fees, where any such sources of emolument exist. These will be regarded as forming part of the income of the Officer to be relieved by the occupant, subject to the prescribed deductions. The grant of special Allowances—of Allowances to Commissioners, and other Officers for travelling expenses, and to officers of Districts or Assistants when employed on Settlement or special Police Duties, will be regulated by a supplemental set of Rules.

Sec. XX. No Civil Servant temporarily Officiating for another shall draw any amount larger than the entire emoluments of the office in which he is Officiating, and if the amount of the Deputation Allowance according to the prescribed scale added to the permanent emoluments of the Officiating Servant, would exceed the emoluments of the office in which he is temporarily acting, the excess shall not be drawn. But this provision shall not apply to the case of any Officer deputed for special reasons to act in an office of inferior emolument to his own. In cases where an Officer holding two appointments on being deputed to Officiate for another shall be relieved only from one, he shall receive no Deputation Allowance unless the emoluments of the office in which he is deputed to act, exceed the united emoluments of his permanent appointments, and in that case the Deputation Allowance shall be limited to the difference.

Sec. XXI. No Subordinate Officer acting for his Principal or for any other person holding a superior appointment in the same Office or Establishment, at the same Station, shall be entitled to any Deputation Allowance until after the expiration of three months, and then the Allowance is not to be drawn in arrear. But a Servant previously out of employment, or who may be deputed to act from a different Station, shall be entitled to deputation Allowance from the date at which he may enter upon the discharge of the duties to which he has been temporarily appointed.

Sec. XXII. A Civil Servant out of employment, if deputed to act at a distance, and Civil Servants having permanent employment, who may be so deputed and who may be restricted by any provisions in these rules, to the allowance of their own office, shall be permitted to draw travelling allowances at the rate sanctioned in the case of a first appointment. When the entire sum received as Deputation Allowance may fall short of that which, according to the distance would be allowed for travelling expenses, the difference may be drawn. In all cases of absence under Medical Certificate, and in cases of absence on private affairs, when the absent officer shall not be subject to deduction such payments shall be made at the charge of the Government.

CHAPTER VI.

"Rules for Chaplains and Assistant Chaplains."

Sec. XXIII. Chaplains and Assistant Chaplains may under Medical Certificate obtain leave of absence subject to all the deductions, conditions and limitations prescribed in the case of Civil Servants, but no Chaplain or Assistant Chaplain can be permitted to draw any allowance, when his period of absence shall have exceeded two years.

Sec. XXIV. The Government of each Presidency may grant to Chaplains and Assistant Chaplains special leave of absence on private affairs, but if such absence shall exceed the period to which the Absentee may be entitled under the following Rule, they shall for the period in excess be subjected to the deduction of one-half of their Allowances, and after an absence of six months (in addition to any leave granted under the succeeding Rule) all Allowances shall be discontinued.

Sec. XXV. Leave of absence for one month in each year, or for two or three months as the case may be, under the principle sanctioned in Sec. XI. may be granted to Chaplains or Assistant Chaplains by the Bishop of the Diocese, or when the Diocese may be vacant (but not otherwise) by the Archdeacon or other Ecclesiastical functionary performing the duties of an Archdeacon or Commissary: and such leave being consistent with the rule will be recognized by the Civil Auditor after it has been published in the Government Gazette of the Presidency with the authority of Government. Information of every leave so granted by the Bishop or other Ecclesiastical officer abovementioned, shall be immediately transmitted to the proper Secretary to the Government for the purpose of notification in the Gazette.

Sec. XXVI. For embarkation on furlough, or sick leave, or with the intention of retiring from the Service, Chaplains and Assistant Chaplains are entitled to the benefits of Sec. XIII. on the same conditions on which they are enjoyed by Civil Servants.

Sec. XXVII. On joining a Station in the interior after arrival in India, a Chaplain or Assistant Chaplain will be allowed the same rate of travelling charges, and be subjected to the same rules in respect to joining his Station as a Civil Servant. On any subsequent transfer from one Station to another, the same allowance will be made if the transfer take place not at the desire of the Chaplain removed, but by order of Government.

Officers of the Assay Department.

Sec. XXVIII. The Assay Master and Deputy or Assistant Assay Master of any Mint in India may obtain leave of absence under Sick Certificate, or on private affairs, subject to the conditions in the Rules forming Chapters I. to V. The absentee if in the enjoyment of any Military Pay or Allowance will, during his absence, be subject to the deductions prescribed in the case of Military Officers holding Civil employments. If not a Military Officer, the Absentee will be subject to the same deductions as a Civil Servant under similar circumstances but no Officer of the Assay Department can be permitted to draw any portion of Salary for a longer period than two years if absent under Sick Certificate nor for a longer period than three months (exclusive of any period granted under Sec. XI.) if absent on private affairs.

Civil servants whose period of absence (a) exceed eighteen months, are not under any circumstances to receive for the period of excess a higher allowance than that which a civil servant of his rank out of employ is entitled to receive, except the individuals is a factor, or writer, in which case he is to receive the allowance of a junior merchant out of employ, vizt. 244 rupees per mensem.

4th. The Governor in Council reserves to himself the direction of making exceptions to the foregoing rule as effecting military officers removed from one civil appointment to another in case where the transfer shall be made by the order of Government and not at the request of the individual himself.

By order of the Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council,
Bombay Castle, 2d June, 1834. C. NORRIS—Chief Secretary.

General Department.

The Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council is pleased to establish it as a rule that where an officer, appointed to a new station, is detained at his old station under the operation of the circular of 23rd February 1833, which prohibits officers from delivering over charge, except to their successors or others specially appointed by Government to receive such charge, the period allowed by section XXXIV of the absentee regulation for travelling from one station to another shall be computed from the date on which such officer may be relieved, and not from the date of appointment, as prescribed in section XIV of that regulation.

By order of the Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council,

The Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to add the following rule, to the absentee regulations of this presidency :

General Department.

In order to assimilate the practice of this presidency with that of Bengal the Right Hon'ble the Governor in Council, is pleased to direct that the extra allowance granted to a civil servant appointed to an acting situation under the provision of section XIX. or XX. of the absentee regulations shall commence on the day after the date of taking charge, and shall cease on the day after that of delivering over charge. Travelling allowance will not be granted to an acting officer either on proceeding to join or returning from an acting appointment.

The foregoing resolution rescinds the exception in XXXI. in favor of all civil servants returning to "their original station at other places, but this rule is not to operate retrospectively to the prejudice of those who now hold acting appointments on returning to their original station.

In the event of a civil servant being appointed while acting to a permanent office, the salary of which equals or exceeds that of his former office and the extra allowance together he shall cease to draw the latter emolument, but if the salary to the new office be less than those allowances, he shall receive the difference of extra allowances so long as he continues to officiate.

It appearing that the rules by which extra allowance is regulated in the Bengal and Agra presidencies do not make any distinction between officers acting for incumbents absent from their appointment at the call of Government, and those acting for incumbents absent on ill health or on private affairs, the Right Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to order that the distinction shall cease under this presidency, and that officers acting for others shall in all cases, receive the allowances as assigned by the absentee rules.

Read Proceedings in this Department, No. 235, dated 31st ultimo

Read do do No. 234, do.

Read Extract from Judicial Department, No. 14, dated 29th ultimo.

Resolution—With a view to uniformity of practice at all the Presidencies the following Constructions of Rules of the Absentee Regulations, dated the 29th January, 1840, are ordered to be published for general information and guidance.

SECTION III.

1st.—The leave with retrospective effect referred to in this Section is leave extending to absence antecedent to the permission of the Government—that is, to absence in anticipation of original leave without the excuse of sickness.

SECTION VI. AND VIII.

Civil Servants absent from their Stations under Medical Certificate will be entitled to the salaries of their respective offices subject to the following deductions. If the Salary exceed Rupees 2,000 per mensem, one sixth for the first year and for the 2nd year one-fourth. If the Salary do not exceed Rupees 2,000 per mensem, one-eighth for the first year and one-sixth for the second. But if the salary of office be not more than Rupees 500 per mensem, no deduction shall be made for the first year, and if it be only so much more that the prescribed deduction of one-eighth would reduce the allowance below Rupees 500 per mensem only the excess beyond Rupees 500 shall be deducted. For the second year the absentee shall become liable to the deduction of one-eighth. An absent Servant shall in no case retain any office or employment nor be permitted to draw any portion of Official Salary for a longer period than two years; but a Civil Servant, who may, on account of sickness, duly certified, obtain an extension of leave beyond two years, will, if below the rank of a Senior Merchant, be allowed

2.—A. Servant is not allowed to be absent, retaining "Office or Employment," or "portion of Official Salary," for a period exceeding two years; but extension of leave may be obtained on account of sickness duly certified, and during such extension the Absentee is authorized to draw the subsistence allowances of his rank. If the absence beyond the Territories of the Presidency to which the servant belongs, it is to be computed from the date of his quitting the limits of his presidency to the date of his return within those limits; if beyond sea, from the date o

ed to draw the Subsistence Allowance of a Junior Merchant, and if a Senior Merchant the Subsistence Allowance of his rank, but if he continue absent in disobedience of an order to return, or without sufficient cause shewn, that Allowance also will be forfeited. The period of absence shall be computed from the date at which the Absentee shall quit the limits of the Territories, subject to the Presidency to which he may belong, to the date of his return within such limits, or if he shall proceed beyond Sea from the date of his embarking at any place or port in India, which is not more distant from his station than the Ports of his own Presidency; but if the place to which he shall proceed shall be within the Territories subject to such Presidency his period of absence shall be computed from the date of his quitting his Station to the date of his return thereto.

SECTION VIII.

NOTE.—This Rule applies to all descriptions of leave on account of health, excepting those granted under Section XII.

Thus a second leave within the Presidency no less than a second leave to Sea will be computed as forming part of the period of two years if taken before three years, have elapsed since return from the first leave and the deductions will be made upon computation of the accumulated period of absence under all such leaves taken without the intervention of three years of consecutive service.

No second leave will be granted to any Civil or Military Servant holding a Civil appointment, who has been absent under the above rules for two years until three years at the least shall have passed after the date of such Servant's return but if such Servant is compelled by sickness again to absent himself from his Station within three years after having been absent under the above rule for less than two years, he will be allowed to complete that period, subject to the limitations and conditions heretofore prescribed, drawing the proportion of Salary allowed for the remaining time as if the leave had been continuous.

his embarkation from the port of his Presidency, or from any port not more distant than the port of his Presidency to the date of his return within the limits of his Presidency. If the place to which he shall proceed be within the Territories subject to his Presidency, his period of absence shall be computed from the date of his quitting his station to the date of his return thereto.

A second leave of this kind cannot be granted until three years at the least shall have passed after the date of such servant's return, but any time short of two years in a previous absence may be subsequently allowed in completion of two years. The Note attached to Section VIII. specifies that this Rule applies to all descriptions of leave on account of health excepting those granted under Section XII.

After two years of absence, continuous or accumulated, under these Rules, if a servant obtain leave of absence on sick certificate before an interval has passed of three years, he cannot retain office or employments, or any portion of official salary, but he is entitled to the subsistence allowance of his rank. The Rule (a) in section VI. if literally interpreted, would require the servant returning from beyond sea, whose full period of two years had expired between the date of his embarkation, and the date of his return within the limits of his Presidency to be re-appointed to his office. For the time spent in joining his station in excess of two years, he is entitled to draw only the subsistence allowance of his rank.

It is not provided that in cases in which the full period of two years absence is composed of accumulated leaves, the intervals of time passed in the performance of duty shall be reckoned in part of the three years which must expire before a servant is eligible to a new series of leave.

But if this were not allowed the operation of the Rule might be unintentionally severe on a servant, whose health should compel him to obtain leave of absence for a portion of the two years, say for only a month at the extremity of the three years after the date of his return, the same servant having been already absent for 23 months either all at once, or his absences at different times having accumulated to 23 months: it would not have been intended by the Rule that after 35 months of duty, being entitled to one month on account of the old score, a new series of leave or a single instance of leave on sick certificate should not be obtainable for three years from the expiration of that one or 36th month.

α "An absent servant shall in no case retain any offices or employment, nor be permitted to draw any portion of official salary for a longer period than two years."

The Rules do not prescribe any different rate of deduction from allowance during absence on sick certificate within the Territories of the East India Company and during similar absence at the Cape of Good Hope, or within the limits out of the Territories of the East India Company declared in Section IV. But they fix the computation of the servant's absence beyond the Presidencies to be from the date of leaving to the date of returning to the port of his Presidency.

The Rules provide sufficiently for the Audit of his allowances after two years absence beyond sea, until the servant rejoins his station, but they do not specify what rate of deduction is to be made from the Absentee's Allowance for the time elapsing after departure from station and before embarkation. This therefore has required to be provided for by a new Regulation, or by some exposition of the existing rules.

The Rule that admits of an absence of two years enables a sick servant to reside sufficiently long in another climate under ordinary circumstances to re-establish his health; for which object that protracted absence is permitted, when certified to be necessary. Forfeiture of appointment therefore does not take place till a full two years have transpired between embarkation and return to port. If the latter part of the Section VI. be taken to apply only to computation of absence as respects appointment the course of the Audit will be easy. For two years, reckoning from departure, from station to return to station, the deduction will be as laid down at the commencement of the Section, and for any excess whether occasioned by the time elapsing before embarkation or after return to port until return to station, the servant will be entitled to subsistence allowance without losing his appointment.

SECTION XI.

The Government of each Presidency may grant to Civil or Military Servants holding Civil Appointments, leave of absence for one month in each year, without deduction from the salaries and emoluments drawn by such servants. Such leave, however, will only be granted when the Government is satisfied that no inconvenience will arise from the departure of the Officer seeking it. No second leave can be granted under this rule until the completion of eleven months, from the expiration of last leave, but the servants not availing themselves of the indulgence in any one year may obtain under the like conditions leave of absence of for two successive months, to commence at or after the expiration of 22 months, from the termination of their former leave, and if two years elapse without enjoyment of the privilege, leave for three months may in like manner be granted at the expiration of 33 months from the termination of the last preceding leave. But no leave shall be granted under this rule for any period exceeding three months. If an Officer shall not return at the expiration of the period of leave granted him under this rule, he shall if absent on private affairs be subjected to the deduction of one-third of his salary and allowances for the entire term of absence, and if he shall continue absent for more than one month beyond the term granted, his office shall become vacant. If his protracted absence be occasioned by sickness, the case must be determined under the Provisions of Chapter II.

SECTION XI.

3d.—The design of this Rule is to grant one leave of absence without loss of salary to the servant who is present at his duty for the periods specified.

The Hon'ble the Governor in Council is pleased to publish for general information, the following Extract from a Resolution passed on the 16th ultimo, by the Right Hon'ble the Governor General of India in Council, on the subject of the Allowances of Officers appointed to new Situations, but who by the express order of Government may be prevented from entering immediately upon the duties thereof.

FORT WILLIAM.

Financial Department, 16th June 1841.

RESOLUTION.

The Governor General in Council remarks, that the Rule referred to No. XVI. of the Regulations of the 26th January 1840 requires, in case of a change of office when an Officer is appointed to a higher situation, that he shall not draw the higher Salary until he joins.

His Lordship in Council considers it expedient strictly to maintain this Rule as one of general practice, and that no exception ought to be allowed otherwise than under special circumstances and exigencies of the public service.

His Lordship in Council is further of opinion, that as a general rule, Officers ought not to be appointed to situations for the duties of which they are not immediately available.

When an Officer for the convenience of the public service has been detained by an order of the Government in a situation of inferior emolument after he has been promoted, in such case the practice under the Bengal Presidency is to pass to him the higher Salary of his new appointment, during the period of his being so detained. This exception to the Rule XVI corresponds with the exception provided for in Rule XX under the Chapter for Deputation Allowances, in which it is declared that no Civil Servant temporarily officiating for another shall draw an amount larger than the entire emoluments of the office in which he is officiating, but that the prohibition does not apply to the case of an Officer who may be deputed for special reasons to act in an office of inferior emoluments to his own.

In order to ensure uniformity of practice at all the Presidencies in the application of Rules XIV, XVI and XVII, it is hereby explained, that Rule XIV refers to the appointment of Civil Servants previously not holding any permanent situation, such as Servants for the first time appointed to a fixed situation after their return from furlough.

These Servants are entitled under Rule XIV to the allowances of their new office from the day of appointment, provided they do not come under forfeiture by exceeding the time prescribed for joining their station.

And Rules XVI and XVII are to be construed as applying to cases where there is a change of office, with increase of salary, a special course being prescribed with regard to Junior Civil Servants; they under Rule XVI are authorized to draw the salary of Assistant from the date of their being reported qualified for the public service, unless forfeited through delay in joining the station to which they have been appointed.

By order of the Honorable the Governor in Council.

Extract from a letter from the Honorable the Court of Directors, in the Public Department (No. 19) dated the 2nd July 1841.

Para. 2nd. We have to remark, that the Absentee Regulations, sanctioned by our dispatch in this Department dated the 31st December 1821, never intended that a Civil Servant having once drawn the furlough allowance of £ 250 per annum should be again allowed, under any circumstances, to receive an allowance from the Company if he should come to this country a second time before completing an actual residence in India of ten years.

The rate of allowance to the several ranks, is fixed as follows, viz:—

2. The Passage money for the outward voyage will, in all cases, be paid in this country, and that for the homeward voyage, in India.

GENERAL ORDERS BY THE HONORABLE THE PRESIDENT IN COUNCIL.

Fort William, 9th December 1837.

The Honorable the President in Council, has much pleasure in publishing to the Army, the following Extract Paras. 2, to 5, of a Letter from the Court of Directors, to the Government of India, No. 5. dated 20th September 1837, announcing the grant of additional advantages to the Senior Officers of the Army, in respect of Retiring Pension.

In our letter of the 23d December 1835 we announced to you, that as we considered it hopeless to expect, that any military retiring fund could be successfully formed, we had thought it right, so far as we could feel justified in doing so, to provide for the object contemplated in schemes of that nature, by an enlargement of the Retiring Regulations, and that we had in consequence, resolved to grant the full Pay of Captain to every Officer who should have served in India 23 years (3 years furlough), whether he had attained that rank Regimentally or not, and the full pay of each of the superior ranks of Major, Lieutenant Colonel, after the completion of an additional period of five years service for each of those ranks in succession viz.

For Major's pay 28 years service, including 3 years for a furlough.

For Lieutenant Colonel's pay 33 ditto ditto

For Colonel's pay 38 ditto ditto

2d. Being now of opinion, that some additional advantage in respect to the periods of retirement, may properly be granted to the senior officers who would have been more especially the immediate objects of benefit from a retiring fund, had such a fund, been established, we have resolved, that the period of service to qualify an officer for the pay of each advanced rank after that of Captain, shall be reduced from five to four years; the periods of service in India required for each rank, being consequently hereafter as follows, vizt.

Every officer who shall have served 23 years (3 years furlough included), shall be allowed to retire on the pay of Captain, whether he shall have attained that rank Regimentally or not.

Every Officer who shall have served 31 years (3 years furlough included,) shall be allowed to retire on the pay of a Major, whether he shall have attained that rank or not.

Every officer who shall have served 35 years, (3 years furlough included,) shall be allowed, to retire on the pay of a Lieutenant Colonel, whether he shall have attained that rank or not.

4th. These arrangements to have effect without prejudice to any claims arising out of the Retiring Regulations as established in the year 1796.

5th. We desire that it may be distinctly understood, that the present is a final measure. You will accordingly decline to forward to us any application which may have in view a further extension of the Regulations now established with regard to the retirement of our military servants.

We are, &c.

Offy. Secy. to the Govt. of India, Military Department

London, 20th Sept. 1837.

Officers coming to England on furlough, are immediately to report their arrival by letter to the Secretary, stating the name of the ship in which they came and their address, forwarding at the same time the certificates they received in India.

The period of furlough is three years, reckoning from its date to the day of the return of the Officer to his Presidency.

Officers are required to join the establishment to which they belong at the expiration of three years furlough, unless they shall have obtained an extension of leave from the Court, six months before the expiration of that period. No furlough will be extended, except in cases of sickness, certified in the manner hereafter mentioned, or in cases which it shall be proved to the Court that a further residence in Europe is indispensably necessary.

All officers finding it necessary to solicit a further leave of absence on account of sickness must, if resident in London or its vicinity, appear before the Company's examining physician who will report to the Court of Directors his opinion on the state of such officer's health. And if resident in the country in any part of the United Kingdom, they must transmit, with their letter of application for such leave a certificate of the following form, signed by at least two gentlemen, eminent in the medical profession:—

I hereby certify, that I have carefully examined (state the nature of the case as well as the name of the party) and I declare, upon my honor, that, according to the best of my judgment and belief—is at present unfit for Military duty, and it is absolutely necessary for the recovery of his health, that he should remain at least—longer in this Country.

Also, previously to such extension of furlough being granted, such further proof shall be adduced by personal examination, or by such other evidence as shall be deemed satisfactory.

Officers abroad in any part of Europe applying to remain a further time from their duty, on account of sickness, are to furnish a certificate of two eminent physicians, in the above form with the attestation of a Magistrate that the persons who signed the certificate are physicians.

Officers having obtained an extension of furlough to a given period, must, at its expiration, apply for permission, either to return to their duty, or to reside a further time in England.

No Officer who has failed to obtain an extension of furlough will be considered eligible to return to the service after five years absence, under the act of the 33d Geo III, cap. 52, sec. 70.

Every Officer upon leaving India will receive a printed copy of the General Orders on this subject, published agreeably to the Court's instructions, and the plea of ignorance of the regulations will not be admitted as any justification of the breach of them: officers, therefore, who shall come home on furlough, and who shall not in due time apply, as to effect their return to the Presidency to which they belong within the period of three years, from the commencement of their furlough will subject themselves to the loss of the service, unless they shall be permitted by the Court to remain a further time in Europe.

No Officer on furlough can receive pay for more than two years and half from the period of his quitting India, excepting Colonels of Regiments, and those of the rank of Lieutenant Colonels regimentally, when promoted to that of Major Genl.: they are then allowed to draw the pay of their rank beyond the above period.

All Officers who quit India on Furlough, shall, for the period during, which by existing regulations they receive pay, be allowed at the following rates.

Per diem	Cavalry.	Infantry.	Artillery and Engineers.
Lieutenant Colonels.....	£ 1 3	1	1

This arrangement is not to occasion any alteration in the issue of pay or allowances in India except in payment of the regulated advances to officers quitting India on Furlough.

Regulations as to the charge of Recruits.

At the Court of Directors 22nd December, 1820.—Resolved, that whenever a detachment of Company's Recruits, to the extent of thirty men shall be embarked in any one ship, they be placed in charge of the senior company's officer, not exceeding the rank of field officer, who shall have obtained permission to return to his duty in the ship, within at least seven days of the period, fixed for her leaving Gravesend,—that the officer proceed with the men from the depot; that as a remuneration for this service he be granted the passage money of his rank;—and that the commander of the ship be authorized to draw on the Company's paymaster for the same.

19th. As soon as the Superintendent of the Indian Navy shall have been satisfied by the report of the Inspecting officer, these regulations have been complied with he shall countersign the Port Clearance as the authority for departure, as far as regards his department.

The object of this regulation is to prevent persons of any description, whether British or Foreigners, being left in this country, which besides other inconvenience, has frequently been attended with expence to the public.

3d. In case of vessels proceeding to England, the attention of the Inspector of the Port and his assistants is called to the following notice:—

4th. No Native servant can be allowed to proceed to England in attendance on any passenger, without a deposit being previously made in the Hon'ble Company's Treasury of the sum of (800) eight hundred Rupees for the return to India of such servant, free of any expense to the Hon'ble Company.

REGULATIONS FOR THE DOCK YARDS OF THE PRESIDENCY OF BOMBAY.

General Rules.

1st. No building or repair is to be effected without the sanction of Government except in emergent cases, when a report is to be made, without delay, to Government in each instance. A statement of all work showing in a condensed form the description of work done, and the gross amount expended in each case, is to be submitted monthly for the information of Government.

2nd. No Work is to be entered on in the dock yard, on account of Government except in cases of emergency without a survey, the report of which is to specify every description of alteration or repair required, and in the event of other work being ascertained to be necessary, in the progress of repairs the Controller is to apply to the Superintendent for an additional survey.

3rd. The Controller or one of his assistants with an assistant builder, is to inspect and measure the quantity of plank expended, and to see that the iron work and stores mentioned in the survey report, have been properly replaced and repaired.

4th. While a ship or vessel is in Dock, nothing is to be put on board of her without permission of the Master attendant.

5th. When the Superintendent orders repairs on emergent service, the Controller is to inspect the work, and to see that the entries of expenditure of materials and labours are correctly made in the day book.

6th. The Controller, or his assistant, is to inspect all timber expended, and see that the logs are as nearly as possible the size of the moulds, in order that the least loss in wastage may be sustained.

7th. When timber, plank, or spars, are either received or delivered the Controller or one of his assistants, is to attend with the storekeeper and master builder, or their assistants to inspect the measurement of the length and girth, so as to prevent an incorrect classification of the logs.

8th. When timber is required by the master builder's department, the naval storekeeper will (on requisition being made) direct a trust worthy person to attend with one from the Controller's office to take the number and dimension of such timber, in order that it may be brought to account on the office books.

9th. The storekeeper is to have charge of all boats, masts, yards, oars, or others stores, after the master builder has either made or repaired them.

10th. All explanations required by the storekeeper, in the adjustment of his office books, referred to in various articles under that head, are to be applied for, in the first instance, to the controller.

11th. The value of all stores, such as masts, yards, boats, &c. which it is not usual to sell by auction, is to be fixed by the controller and builders, before they are sold to individuals.

12th. After all surveys, builder's stores condemned or returned are to be delivered to the storekeeper by indent, and new articles are not to be issued unless the old are returned or unless a satisfactory explanation is given of the cause of their not being forthcoming.

13th. To prevent any articles being destroyed by decay, a quarterly committee is to be held on all returned stores, and such as are not likely to be again brought into use, are to be sold by auction on account of Government.

15th. The gates of the dock yards at Bombay and Mazagon, with the stablish-ments therewith connected are to be under the controller, and no articles of any kind are to pass out of, or into the yards, without a Permit signed by the controller or one of his assistants, or by the master or second builder. The gates of the yards are to be open to the controller or his assistants at all hours, and the other officers of the yard are to be allowed free ingress, and egress, from the time of opening the gates at gun-fire, until eight at night, when the gates are to be locked and they are not afterwards to be opened during the night to any of these officers, except upon an emergency.

16th. The docks, steam engines and establishments thereunto belonging, are to be under the controller of the yard as also all ships or vessels in dock, from the period which they are placed on the stocks, until such time as they are afloat. They are then to be under the charge of the master attendant, to whom the master builder should previously intimate the probable draught of water of all new ships; and other matters on which it is necessary that he should be informed.

17th. The master attendant will render such assistance (on application from the controller) for clearing out, and removing the mud from the docks, as may requisite, and also for removing and piling timber, when his establishment is not otherwise employed.

ALTERATIONS IN THE SERVICE.

Superintendent's Office, Bombay, 19th July 1839.

The Superintendent publishes for the general information of the Service, the following extracts from the letters of the Hon'ble the Court of Directors under dates the 28th February and 9th of May last, relative to the substituting Steam for Sailing vessels in the Indian Navy.

"The Conveyance of Mails for packet Service being already provided for, the remaining purposes for which the Indian Navy would be required, are against an enemy in case of War, for the transport of Troops, Stores, and Treasure, the protection of the trade from piracy and for Surveying, and as we have no doubt that all these objects would be attained more effectually by Steam than by Sailing Vessels it is our intention to effect the arrangement with the least possible delay, and as a first step towards it we have resolved to build two suitable Steam Vessels of War."

We shall hereafter take into consideration the alteration which may be necessary in the establishment of Officers, consequent on the substitution of Steam Vessels for sailing in the Indian Navy, in the mean while, we think it desirable that an opportunity should be afforded to the officers if possible of obtaining information and experience upon the subject of Steam Navigation and Marine Engineers which will in the altered state of the Service to which they belong be expected of them in addition to the ordinary professional acquirements of Naval Officers, and you have our authority to make such arrangement as may appear to you calculated to encourage and facilitate the attainment of the desirable qualification."

"The Establishment for our Steamers employed as vessels of War, must of course differ in grade as well as in number from the Establishments of your Steamers employed as Packets under the same difference existing in the Royal Navy. The accommodations for the officers in the Packets, cannot consistently with the purpose of such Vessels be so convenient as they are in Vessels of War, but so long as the officers employed are all members of the same Service and have relative rank, according to seniority in the list of the Indian Navy, there can be no distinction between the commander and officers of a War Vessel and of a Packet, except that which naturally arises from the dates of their respective commissions; but in order to remove any ground of complaint upon that head we direct that the command, of the Steam Vessels when employed as Packets, be restricted to Lieutenants, unless an officer holding the rank of Commander shall be desirous of such command, and that in selecting the officers for the command due regard be had in all cases to seniority when combined with efficiency: we however positively interdict the employment of mates of merchantmen or any other than commissioned or Warrant officers of the Indian Navy in any situation of Command or responsibility on board any of our Vessels excepting in the Engine room."

"In the event of any of the officers being desirous of quitting the Indian Navy, in consequence of the altered condition of that service, we have resolved to permit them to retire from it upon the following scale of Pensions, provided however that the total number of the officers who may be desirous of availing themselves of this permission do not exceed one-third of the present strength of the Indian Navy, and that preference given to the Senior grades, viz:—

To the Captain £360 per annum, the amount of the retired Pay fixed for that rank by the regulation without prejudice, however, to succession to the Pension of the Senior List as vacancies occur therein.

The Commanders £360 per annum (the present retiring pay of Captain) but without further prospect.

To Lieutenants who have actually served 15 years in India £290 per annum (the present retired pay of Commander) but without further prospect, and to Lieutenants who have not served actually 15 years India £190 per annum being the retiring pay of Lieutenant after 22 years service without further prospect.

"The offer of retirement is to be made to each Captain, Commander and Lieutenant who must signify his determination thereon within three calendar months from the receipt of such offer.

"You will forthwith promulgate this arrangement, but you are not to make any promotion on the vacancies occasioned by its operation until you shall have received our further instructions."

BY THE SUPERINTENDENT OF THE INDIAN NAVY.

Superintendent's Office, Bombay 9th November 1839.

The Superintendent desires to notify to the service that in pursuance of an order from the Hon'ble the Court of Directors, the Hon'ble Governor in Council is pleased to direct that the measure of placing the Steam Packet Vessels on the footing therein ordered be carried into effect viz:—that Lieutenants shall be appointed to command them unless a commander shall specially apply for the appointment.

This arrangement to be accomplished by placing passed Midshipmen in charge of watches.

The assistant Surgeon is by the Regulations of the service entitled to mess with the Lieutenant and to be admitted to the commander's Table, on the sum denominated subsistence or net pay.

The Hon'ble the Governor in Council is pleased to sanction the following scale of pay to passed Midshipmen and Clerks in charge on board the Steam Packet Vessels.

Passed Midshipmen the usual Batta viz:—Two Rupees per diem in addition to their pay.

Clerks in charge performing the duties of Purser to receive the same rate of pay as at present.

To the Midshipmen who have not passed Rupees (20) Twenty per month in addition to their pay.

The Parents or Guardians of Children born previous to the 1st January 1839 were allowed to secure for them the increased benefits by paying the additional donation ; but the children of such Subscribers as may not have availed themselves of this opportunity agreeably to the terms of the Circular No. 74, will not be entitled under any circumstances hereafter to receive the highest scale of benefits.

9. But although a period of one year is allowed for completing the above donation, notice of the intention of the parent to discharge it, must be given to the Secretary in India or to the Agents in London within the month subsequent to that, in which the child was born. In failure of such intimation and unless it shall have been proved to the satisfaction of the Directors that the delay arose from unavoidable circumstances, no child shall be admitted to the benefits above specified, although the donation may have been paid on its account."

10. Persons being Members of the Fund and having Children, for whom they may desire to pay the additional donation shall, on giving immediate information thereof be required to pay the prescribed sums with compound interest at 9 per cent. calculated from one year after the date of each child or from the establishment of the original regulations on this subject in September 1824; and in the event of their having lost any children by death between either of the above dates, and that of their becoming members, they shall also pay the additional donations with similar interest on their account.

11.—Subscribers on being promoted shall pay the difference of Subscription and Donation between their former and increased ranks, as married or unmarried subscribers, agreeably to the rates specified in the 4th and 5th articles of this section.

12. The Donations payable by unmarried Subscribers may be paid either at once, or by instalments not exceeding eighteen. Those by married Subscribers on promotion, or by single members on marriage, by instalments not exceeding twenty-four.

13. An unmarried Subscriber shall, in case of contracting marriage, make the Secretary acquainted with the circumstance within six months after such marriage, and shall pay the difference between the Donation of a married and unmarried Subscriber, and monthly subscription as a married Subscriber, from the date of his marriage.

14. Widowers, on re-marriage, shall pay the difference of donation between married and widowers with or without offspring, notwithstanding that they may have discharged the amount required of them in virtue of a former marriage.

15. Widowers with offspring shall, on making known their wishes to contribute at the unmarried rates, be allowed to do so, provided at the same time they relinquish all claim to the benefits of the Fund on behalf of their children.

16. Persons becoming Subscribers to the Military Fund on entering the Service shall, if married or widowers, and having legitimate offspring, be required to pay, in addition to the prescribed Donation and Subscription, an extra Donation equal to the amount of the Subscription of their rank, calculated from the date of birth of the eldest surviving child, or from the date of birth of the eldest of the children to whom, in case of the father's death, it is wished that the benefits of the Fund should be extended.

17. But if such information be not given, the Subscriber shall pay double the amount of the difference between Donation as a married and unmarried Subscriber, with interest at 8 per cent. added half yearly; and if he do not pay this amount, and his subscription as a married subscriber from the date of his marriage, his widow and children shall forfeit all claims to the benefits derivable from the Fund; but such benefits as are personal, shall continue to be available to him as an unmarried Subscriber.

19. Subscribers who may retire from the Service, or who may return permanently to Europe, and who shall continue to pay a monthly subscription equal to one day's pay of the rank which they had attained at the period of retiring, if unmarried, or to one and a half if married shall continue entitled to the benefits of the Fund.

20. Subscribers who may have been dismissed, and afterwards restored to the Service, shall be re-admitted to the benefits of the Fund on their recommencing their subscriptions from the date on which they shall again receive pay, and on paying back the amount of subscription which may have been returned to them, in conformity to section III, article 27.

21. All Subscribers, above the rank of Subaltern, who may proceed to England on sick certificate, shall pay their subscription in the same manner as those who proceed on Furlough.

22. Subscribers who may be prevented by any temporary cause from drawing pay, shall be exempted during such period, from the payment of monthly subscription, but upon the removal of such incapacity, the amount of arrears due to the Fund shall be made good either at once, by instalments not exceeding eighteen.

23. Cornets and Ensigns shall be required to commence payment of their Donations from the month succeeding that of their arrival in the country, by 30 regular monthly instalments.

24. If a Subscriber falls in arrear with his Donation or Subscription of instalments for six months, he shall pay double the amount of the arrears, unless he makes it appear to the satisfaction of the Directors that such arrear was occasioned by unavoidable circumstances.

25. In all cases when a Subscriber dies in arrears to the Fund in consequence of his paying the sums due by him by instalments, agreeably to the regulations, whether on account of loans, or from any other cause, such arrears must be paid up, or otherwise his widow and children will be deprived of all claims to the benefits derivable from the Fund. But in the adjustment of such arrears, it shall be optional with the parties, to pay up the sum at once, or by a deduction from the benefits of one half, until the amount be liquidated; no extra deduction being made on account of minimum until the arrears are paid up with interest.

8. The Guardians of female annuitants shall declare, six months previous to their attaining the age of 18 years, whether they wish to receive the final portion, or to continue as annuitants, and the receiving any annuity after that age, forfeits all right to the payment of portion.

9. Widows, who are annuitants on the Fund, and who may hereafter marry, are allowed to retain one-half of the annuity formerly granted to them; and if her second husband be a Subscriber, it shall be optional with the widow on her again becoming a Widow, to claim the annuity prescribed for the rank of either the first or second husband; but she is not to receive more than one full annuity.

India, shall, on making application to that effect, receive £15 per annum for his wife, and £7-10 for each of his children, if the number does not exceed two, in addition to his own income allowance from the Fund; commencing from the date of arrival in England, and ceasing on embarkation for India. But the total sum payable on their account shall not exceed £30 per annum.

15. A married Captain (or widower having offspring) at home on sick certificate, shall, on application, receive the same allowance for his wife and children as a Subaltern, subject, however, to a deduction of any yearly income he may possess beyond his pay.

21. Articles 12, 13, 14, 16, latter part of 17 and 18, of Section IV of the former Regulations, were rescinded by the decision on the 5th proposition of the 33 circular; * but as this Resolution was not to have a retrospective effect, as all annuitants on the Fund previous to the 23d September 1824, remain subject to the former Regulations, and consequently, such annuitants shall continue to furnish, every half year, affidavits specifying whether they possess any property or not, and in the former case its actual amount, drawn up in the form in the appendix marked A.

22. In the same manner, the next of kin or guardian of children, annuitants on the fund prior to the 23d September 1824, shall furnish half yearly affidavits in the form in the appendix marked B.

But female annuitants receiving the extended annuity shall still furnish after their eighteenth year, half yearly affidavits, specifying whether they have any and what income or property, besides that derived from the Fund, and these affidavits shall be drawn up in the form in the appendix marked C.

SECTION IV.

CAUSES OF EXCLUSION FROM THE BENEFITS OF THE FUND.

1. A Subscriber prior to the orders of the Hon'ble Court, withdrawing from the Fund, forfeits ipso facto, all claims to the benefits derivable from it, as also the amount of his donation and subscription, and all other sums which he may have paid up to the period of his secession.

2. The non payment of donation, subscription, or any other sums demanded from them in conformity to the Regulations, shall exclude Subscribers from all the benefits derivable from the Fund.

3. Also the non-compliance with any Regulation of the Military Fund or the bringing under litigation any decision which has been passed in conformity to these Regulations.

4. All income derived from the Bombay Military Fund is declared to be unalienable, and the fact of attempting the alienation of such income in any manner, or under any pretence, shall be deemed in itself a forfeiture of all future benefits from the Fund.

5. The widow of a Subscriber who shall have been legally divorced or separated from her husband, or who shall, at the time of his death, have quitted his protection, or shall be living in a state of adultery, though not legally separated or divorced, shall not be entitled to any benefits from the Fund, under any circumstances whatever.

6. If, after the widow of a Subscriber shall have been admitted to the benefits of the Fund, it shall at any time appear to the satisfaction of the Directors, that she is living in a state of incontinence, or in a manner discreditable to the memory of her husband, she shall forfeit all claims to the benefits derivable from the Fund, and shall in future be deprived of her annuity.

SECTION V.

EVENTUAL BENEFITS OF THE FUND.

1. Independent of the benefits which have been recited, the Bombay Military Fund is considered as holding out the prospect of eventual benefits under the following circumstances:—

2. If at any future period it shall be found that the funds of the Institution afford a considerable surplus, after providing for the actual and probable applications for relief under the preceding articles, it shall then, and not otherwise, be competent for the Directors of the institution, provided the permission of the Hon'ble Court of Directors be obtained, to afford the aid of the Fund in the following cases:—

First. To Subscribers compelled by ill-health to abandon the country after ten years service, and before they are entitled to retire on full pay, the regulated passage money of their rank and an annuity which shall render their total income, from whatever source derived, equal to the full pay of their rank.

Second.—To Officers who may have served twenty-two years in India, and may be compelled by ill-health to retire from the service, without having attained the rank of Major, the regulated passage money of their rank, and such assistance from the Fund, as will tender their whole income, from whatever source, equal to the pay of Major; and, as in the case of widows, the possession of an income not exceeding half the pay of a Major of Infantry, shall not occasion abatement from the provision to be made from the Fund.

Third. In the event of a still further surplus, it shall be competent for the Directors of the Military Fund at their discretion, to assist Officers retiring from the service on full pay, in limited circumstances, with a sum equal to the regulated passage money of their rank, provided always that the resignation of such Officer shall actually have been accepted, previously to his embarkation.

Fourth.—Should the Fund, however, at any period fall short of the demands upon it, so that the annual income will not defray the amount of the annuities and other claims, then it shall be in the power of the Directors to make a proportionate deduction from the annuity of each annuitant, and from the payments to other claimants above the rank of subaltern, until the state of the Fund shall afford the means of complete payment; when, if a surplus income exists, the arrears shall be made good from the amount of surplus, but not otherwise.

SECTION 5th. Subscribers who may eventually dissent from joining the New Fund, shall be considered as remaining Members of the Old Fund under the Regulations that were in force on the 30th April 1825.

SECTION 3rd. Married Members with Families may also at their option contribute at the following rates for their Children, the benefits of the Institution being dependant on the rate at which the subscription is paid, as hereinafter defined.

In calculating this minimum amount, though the Annuity to each child is, as herein provided, to depend on the contribution paid, the subscriptions received are to be taken collectively, and the deduction to be made is to be determined in the like manner. In cases of second or other Marriages, the Subscriptions, in estimating the minimum demand, are to date from the previous Wife's decease, but in the adjustment of the minimum payment the subscriptions paid during a first, second or other Marriage are to be taken as a deduction for the claims of the children born during the existence of each marriage respectively.

SECTION 11th. If he be permitted (whether the permission be granted at the time of, or during his suspension, or at the time of his restoration) to draw salary from the period of his suspension, then his contributions to the Fund for that period shall be claimable and the intervening time shall be reckoned as actual service, but if he be not allowed salary for the period of his suspension, then no contribution shall be claimable from him for that period, and which in that case is not to be computed in the term of service necessary to qualify him for the acceptance of an Annuity.

SECTION 4th. SECTION 4th. A Member of the Service, who, being in England or on the way to England when the New Regulations were assented to at Bombay, and not having therefore yet assented to them and who shall not be in India or on the way thither on or before the first day of March 1827, shall not be entitled to hold an Annuity until he shall have resided five years in India after his return to the Service.

SECTION 5th. Any Subscriber who may accept the tender of an Annuity of £1000, or who may apply for one of the smaller Annuities, shall be required to entitle him to such Annuity to pay to the Institution previous to the date at which the Annuity is to commence, the difference between one half (temporarily one fourth in the case of the Annuity of £1000 as sanctioned in the Honorable Court's Dispatches of the 27th May 1835, and 20th March 1838) of the actual value of the Annuity on his life, in sicca rupees and the accumulated value of his contributions, with interest at 6 per cent. per annum, in case the latter quantity shall be less than the former, but should the contributions be in excess, such excess shall be refunded. Such Annuity if required may be made payable either to the date of decease only, or quarterly and to the date of decease, the benefit of the quarterly issue of the Annuity not being available singly, upon the payment of the full value, of the increased advantage, as shewn in the annexed Table.

SECTION 6th. Any Member so choosing, may decline paying the difference defined in the foregoing rule, and shall in such case be entitled to an Annuity diminished in proportion to the sum by which the accumulated value of his contributions is less than one half (temporarily one fourth) of the actual value of an Annuity on his life.

SECTION 7th. The declaration of the willingness of any Subscriber to accept an Annuity must be stated "on honor," and a Subscriber so accepting the Annuity shall at the same time furnish the Secretary and Accountant to the Fund with his Baptismal Certificate or a declaration "upon honor" of his age.

SECTION 8th. The resignation of the Honorable Company's Service is an essential condition to entitle an individual to an Annuity from the Institution, and Annuitants will not be permitted to return to the Service. It is therefore provided that when a Member accepting an Annuity shall resign the Service after the first day of May of the year within which the said Annuity is made to commence, he shall in such case at the close of that year only draw the Annuity from the date of his resignation, a sum proportionate to the time intervening between the first day of May and that date, being deducted for the benefit of the Institution, and the premium which was due on the first day of May preceding being paid.

SECTION 9th. The Annuities are fixed at Rupees 10,000, Rupees 5,000, and Rupees 2,500, payable in England at 2s. the Rupee being respectively, unless made payable quarterly, and to the day of death, £1,000, £500, and £250 Sterling.

SECTION 10th. The number of Annuities offered shall not be more than may complete three (3) per annum from the 1st of May 1826, which number is also to include any of £400 to persons, who on the 1st of May 1825, had not retired from the Service, either by resignation or by an absence of more than five years from India, but this number is not intended to include the smaller Annuities granted to Invalids. Temporarily, and whilst allowed at one fourth value, one third of the Unappropriated Annuities lapse to the Fund.

SECTION 11th. The Annuities shall commence on the 1st of May in each year, beginning with the year 1826, that is to say, shall fall due at the end of the said official years, and in like manner the succeeding Annuities shall commence on the 1st day of the following official year, and fall due at the close of each year respectively. The Quarterly payments will be made on the 1st days of February, May, August and November in each year.

SECTION 12th. No Annuity shall be tendered for acceptance to any Member who may be, at the time of its falling vacant, under temporary suspension by order of the Government or of the Court of Directors, but in such case, it shall pass on the next Member in succession who may be entitled to the acceptance of it, unless such Member shall have been restored to the Service before it shall come to his turn to have it tendered to him for his acceptance.

SECTION 13th. At a convenient period before the close of each year the Trustees of the Fund shall require, according to seniority, a sufficient number of Subscribers to signify their willingness or otherwise to retire on the Annuity to be granted by the Fund, and in case of the absence from India of Members, such requisition shall be made to their constituted Agents in Bombay. It will of course be incumbent on the Members duly qualified to become Annuitants previous to leaving India to empower one or more persons in Bombay to act on their behalf and to communicate to the Trustees the names of such Agents. Such Members previous to quitting India must leave information of their age either in the Civil Fund Office, or with their Agents, agreeably to Section 7 of this Article, and should likewise intimate in what manner they wish to draw their Annuities, whether annually, annually and to the day of death, or quarterly and to the day of death, to enable the amount of fine chargeable to them on their accepting Annuities to be calculated.

SECTION 14th. Those Members, to whom a requisition may be made as above provided, and on whose part no reply may be received on or before the 1st day of November of the year preceding that in which the Annuities intended to be granted may commence, and those who may have quitted India and failed to empower any Resident in Bombay to act for them during their absence, shall be regarded as having virtually intimated for the time being, their unwillingness to retire on the Annuity.

SECTION 15th. Should any Subscriber, having resided in India in the Civil Service not less than 22 years, and been a Member of it the full period of 25 years, retire from the Service before the option of an Annuity may devolve on him, he shall be entitled to the same in his proper turn without any payment to the Fund, save what may be claimable from him to complete the fine of one half (or one fourth) of the actual value of the Annuity on his life, on taking up such Annuity.

SECTION 16th. The right of an Annuitant to receive the Annuity for any particular year shall depend on his having survived that year, unless the same has been secured to the date of decease, as provided for in Section 5 of this Article.

SECTION 17th. The actual value of Annuities, tendered and accepted as above, shall be passed to a separate account on the books of the Institution, under the head of "Appropriated Funds," and to the debit of this account shall be entered all payments in satisfaction of Annuities.

SECTION 18th. At the close of every third year the Managers shall, according to the Annexed Tables, calculate the actual values of the pending Annuities, and shall then compare the total of their values with the assets belonging to the Appropriated Funds of the Institution—Should those assets exceed in value the said total, the difference shall be carried to the credit of the unappropriated Funds of the Annuity Fund, and be available for the purposes of the Institution; on the other hand, should the value of the said assets be less than the total aforesaid, the deficiency shall be supplied by a transfer from the latter Fund to the former.

SECTION 19th. In discharge of each Annuity of Rupees 10,000, Rupees 5,000, or Rupees 2,500, granted by the Fund, the sum of £1,000, £500 or £250 as the case may be, shall be paid to the Annuitant through the Company's Treasury in London, at the close of the year in which the Annuity may commence or according as the instalments may fall due in the case of quarterly payments, the Trustees of the Fund undertaking at the like periods to pay over to the Government of Bombay the equivalent sums for each Annuity so payable under the principles upon which the Company's contribution is to be regulated—including the payments for the quarterly issues and for the payments to the date of decease.

SECTION 20th. The actual value of an Annuity of any Subscriber, as well as the additional payments for its continuance to the date of decease or for its quarterly issue and continuance to the date of decease shall be determined by the annexed Tables.

SECTION 21st. In computing the amount of fine to be paid into the Treasury by a Subscriber previous to his becoming an Annuitant credit shall be given him for the total amount of his Subscriptions to the New Fund since the 1st of May 1825, with compound interest at the rate of 6 per cent. together with his subscriptions to the Old Fund without interest up to the 1st May 1825, in the same proportion as the Capital transferred to meet the Annuities bears to the whole Capital of the Fund.

SECTION 22nd. To determine the accumulated value of the contributions of any Subscriber, the Accountant shall keep separate accounts of each Member, and these accounts shall be annually made up with the rate of interest allowed by the Company.

SECTION 23rd. A member upon becoming an Annuitant, and expressing his wish to receive his Annuity in England, shall be furnished with a formal certificate declaratory of his admission to the Annuity, and of the manner in which it is to be drawn by him under the hands of not less than five Members of the Committee of which the Secretary shall be one. A duplicate of this certificate shall be furnished to the Government for transmission to the Honorable Court of Directors in London.

SECTION III.

1. Medical Officers of older standing than August 1826, who may be admitted into the fund, in addition to all payments which they would have made if subscribers since the provisional institution in August 1829, shall be charged with the arrears laid down in the rules* of that date for those of their standing; together with compound interest at 8 per cent per annum, up to the date of their admission.

2. Three of the members of this committee go out at the end of each year by rotation, but are eligible for immediate re-election. The removal of a member from the presidency to another station, or his departure on leave of absence for six months or more, is held to vacate his seat.

8. The committee shall exercise their discretion in circulating to the subscribers proposals submitted to them with that view, unless required to do so by ten or more subscribers, or unless the question be one of personal claim or grievance, when it shall be their duty to submit the matter with their observations to the general vote. But if this vote be adverse on any personal question thus urged to the opinion of the committee, the expense attending its circulation shall be borne by the individual.

9. Questions submitted to the subscribers are decided by the votes received within six weeks after circulation.

3. The fund guarantees the payment in London of such extra annuities with the same regularity and at the same periods as those paid through the Honorable Company's Treasury. The managers will make the necessary arrangements for this purpose in communication with the annuitant.

4. A subscriber who has served seventeen years in India, and conforms to these rules, is qualified for the annuity; and in case of absence on furlough he shall empower an agent to accept, decline, complete the minimum, &c. as may be necessary, communicating the name of his constituted attorney to the Secretary.

5. On the first of August of each year, and at such other times as it may be found advisable to offer an annuity, the secretary shall call on all qualified subscribers in India and the attorneys of absentees, to convey to him by a given date a sealed letter bearing on the cover the subscriber's name and intimating his readiness or otherwise to accept of an annuity or equivalent. These letters shall be opened at the appointed time before the committee, beginning with the senior subscriber's and proceeding in regular succession downwards still the offered annuities or equivalents are found to be accepted. Any letters then remaining shall be returned unopened to their writers.

6. Three months are allowed to a subscriber in India to retire in after accepting the annuity. If absent he shall, on being made acquainted with his attorney's acceptance of one for him, immediately resign the service, dating his resignation not later than three months from the time of such acceptance.

If as member of the Medical Board, on or before the completion of his second year of service in that capacity he shall make up one half; over two, and not exceeding three year's service three fifths; if over three and not exceeding four years, two thirds; and if during his last year of service, the member shall be entitled to the annuity only on completing as above the payment of its estimated value.

3. The accountant prepares detailed statements of their account, with compound interest at the rate allowed by Government, for the adjustment of the minima of all subscribers accepting annuities, and for other subscribers who may require such statements.

4. The value per table of each annuity, as successively granted by the fund is withdrawn from the available surplus, and entered under the head of appropriated capital in the books of the fund.

5. Of this account a balance shall be struck yearly, when after adjusting the amount of the appropriated capital to the actual value of the existing annuities, and setting apart an extra sum of Rupees 10,000 to meet contingencies the remaining fund shall be considered available for the granting and defraying of new annuities or equivalents during the year.

6. The valuation of annuities shall be in all cases by the annexed table* which is calculated at 6 per cent, interest, with remittance at two shillings per rupee, and is taken from that of the Civil Fund.

Secretary.

FORT WILLIAM, FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT, THE 17TH JUNE, 1835.

Notice is hereby given, that the Honorable the Court of Directors having in an advertisement, dated East India House, the 17th September, 1834, notified to proprietors of Bengal six per cent. remittable paper, resident in Europe, who had made known, or might make known, before the 1st of December following, at the Auditor's office in the India House, their wish to transfer their notes of that loan into the new five per cent. transfer loan, under the conditions specified in the Court's advertisement of the 14th May, 1834, that the property in the new loan would be held in the form of stock instead of promissory notes; that stock receipts would be granted in Bengal to the respective proprietors or their agents, in the exchange for the promissory notes transferred, and that the new stock would be transferable at the place of registry in books to be kept for that purpose in London and in India; in pursuance of that notification and the orders of the Honorable Court, the Sub-Treasurer at Fort William is authorized to receive any of the six per cent. promissory notes of this Government, bearing date the 30th June, 1822, that may be tendered for transfer into the new five per cent. loan, the fulfilment of the intention of the proprietors signified at the India House under the advertisement of the 17th of September last, and to grant stock receipt to the respective proprietors, or their agent, in charge for the promissory notes transferred.

2. A bonus of premium of 5 per cent. will be granted on all transfers made under this advertisement: that is to say, for every note surrendered for transfer, a stock receipt will be granted for a principal sum exceeding the principal sum of the notes surrendered, in the proportion of 105 for every 100 sicca rupees; and the stock receipt will bear interest at the rate of 5 per cent. per annum, payable, if the proprietors are resident in India, in cash at the place of registry, and, if resident in Europe, at their option, either in cash in India, or by bills on the Court at twelve months' date at 2s. 1d. the sicca rupee.

3. The transfers under this advertisement will take effect only at the period when the notes to be transferred shall fail to be discharged, according to the notices, published from the Financial Department under the dates respectively of the 9th May and 13th October, 1834.

4. The property of the new loan here advertised is to be transferable only in books to be kept in Bengal, at Madras, at Bombay, and in London, and not by endorsement of stock receipts, on the face of which it is to be declared that they are not transferable. Proprietors of stock receipts will be entitled to the option of transferring from the books of Bengal to those of either Madras, Bombay or London. Having availed themselves of that option, the property cannot again be registered in Bengal, or at either of the other places, unless upon transfer effected at the place at which they may have chosen to register it.

5. After transfer has been made to London, the interest payable on the stock so transferred will be issued in England at the same periods as when the bills would have become due, had the remittance of interest been previously received by bills under the option allowed in the second article of the present notice.

6. It is hereby declared and stipulated, that no part of the transfer five per cent. loan opened by this advertisement, shall be paid off before the 22d April, 1854, and whenever it shall be redeemed, a previous notice of fifteen months shall be given by public advertisement, which notice may be issued at any time after the 21st of January, 1853, Payment shall then be made at the option of the creditors, either in cash in India, or by bills upon the Court at twelve months date, and at 2s. 1d. the sicca rupee; with power to the Court to postpone payment of those bills for one, two, or three years, upon allowing interest at five per cent. per annum for the period of the postponement. The notice of payment duly advertised as above, and published in the Government Gazette of Calcutta, shall be considered as equivalent to a tender of payment on the date advertised for discharge, and all interest will cease from that day.

7. Proprietors who shall transfer to the books of Madras and Bombay, will be entitled to receive interest at the exchange of one hundred and six and a half Madras and Bombay rupees, for one hundred Calcutta sicca rupees, from the General Treasuries of those presidencies respectively.

8. The Accountant General of the Supreme Government may, on the application of proprietors of stock registered in the books of Bengal, and for their convenience, make interest of such stock payable at any other treasuries of issue under the Bengal or Agra presidencies ; but proprietors shall not be entitled to claim this accommodation if the Accountant General should think proper to refuse it.

9. Stock of the five per cent. transfer loan opened by this advertisement, may be consolidated and divided at the pleasure of the proprietors in the books in which it is registered.

10. Proprietors of six per cent. remittable paper who may transfer into the five per cent. loan now advertized, shall not be subjected on this operation to the Fees prescribed in the regulations for the Government agency.

11. Proprietors of the five per cent transfer notes issued under the advertisement of this Department, bearing date the 13th October last, or their authorized agents, will be permitted to transfer their property into the book debt loan. For this purpose a period of four months will be allowed to the holders of five per cent. promissory notes or their agents, and it is hereby notified, that during the same period fresh transfer will be allowed to the book debt by holders of six per cent. remittable paper.

12. Forms of stock receipt will be published in a future notice.

INTRODUCTION.

THE only explanation which is conceived necessary, to render the scheme of the following Calendar fully understood, is that the Christian Months indicated at the top of each page, divide the Native Months as they appear, represented in the space below allotted to their names; January, for example, partakes of the Hindoo months, Marroo, Poush and Magh; Guzeratt, Duxun, and Concan, Margashirsh and Poush; and Malabar, Dhanuh and Magaram; the Parsee months Saharsoyee, Teer and Amoordad; Chureegur, Amoordad and Shuraver; and the date of Nowroz 125 to 155; and the Mahomedan months Zilkad and Zilhuz.

From the Columns is to be collected that the 1st of January corresponds with the 5th of Poush Vud Marroo; and the 5th of Margashirsh Vud Guzeratt, Duxun, and Concan; and the 19th of Dhanuh Malabar; the 5th of Teer Saharsoyee, the 5th of Amoordad Chureegur, and the 125th day of Nowroz or Chureegur; and the 18th of Zilkad Mahomedan; and so throughout the year.

There is a third mode of reckoning time among the Hindoos called, Marroo, which has been introduced according to the style practised in the Eastern and Northern parts of Hindoostan; the new year of Vekramajit commences with their month of Chyter Sood corresponding with the Chyter Sood of the Guzerat style.

It may here be observed that the Hindoos employ a mode of computing time peculiar to themselves, dividing the month into thirty parts each equal to the time occupied by the Moon in passing through an Arc of her orbit of 12 degrees; hence these parts are unequal to each other and not reconciled to our days; thirty of them, which, they call Tiths, being equal only to twenty nine days and a half; which and their inequality to each other, have obliged us occasionally to retrench or repeat one of them, as we have found it most expedient, in adjusting them to our reckoning.—It is also to be noted, that the increase of the Moon they call Sood, and the decrease Vud, counting as we have done.

The present scheme also embraces the Parsee Era of Yezdezerd commonly styled Chureegur or Dureesayee Nowroz or Sea-reckoning, the same being made use of in all nautical calculations among the Asiatic Mariners, the year of which commences, with the month of Furverdeen or August ; the Parsees established in India, having in the disorders and troubles incident to the earlier days of their emigration to this Country, lost a month in their calculation of time, reckon the Nowroz to fall in September, and term the discordant style Saharsoyee.

We have also endeavoured to discriminate the Feasts and Festivals of each Nation by different sorts of Type ; the Hindoos for example, we have distinguished by Roman small letters, as Poush Sood ; the name of the Malabar month by Roman capitals, as MAGARAM ; the Parsees by the small capitals as AMOORDAD ; and the Mussulman, by Italic small letters, as Rumzan.

Every Monday is a fast day with the Hindoos, but not rigidly observed.

N. B. According to the calculation of the Hindoo Jotishees or Astronomers at Bombay, it is probable, that a Xhuya mas or cancelled month called Retrenched Poush, will occur in this year because two Soorya Sunkrants occur within that Lunar month, or entrance of the Sun into two Signs, one of which Sunkrants happens at the commencement, the other at the termination of that month, this is the only cause adduced for the above Xhuya mas or cancelled month, the intercalary Lunar month substituted in lieu thereof in order to bring the Hindoo Fests and Festivals to certain stated periods, is called Audick Chytru as it has no Soorya Sunkrant in it.— In consequence of the variance of opinion between the Guzerattee and Duxunee Jotishees or Astronomers, there has not yet been a decision on the above mentioned Xhuya mas and Audick mas, they are therefore not inserted in the body of this Calendar.—

If the Xhuya mas and Audick mas in question are observed by the other Jotishees or Astronomers throughout Guzeratt, the Duxun and the Concan, in consequence of their coming within their calculations, then of course the same must be observed by those in Bombay, although they are not inserted in this Calendar, in which case the Hindoo month called Poush should be named (Retrenched Poush) Magh, the month called Magh should be named Falgon. and the month called Falgon should be named Audick Chytru, from which month the New year of Shalivahn Shuk 1764 will commence, and by which arrangement the Hindoo Fasts and Festivals entered in the month of Magh against their respective dates will fall in Poush, and those entered in Falgon will happen in Magh under the same dates.
